Today we welcome Tonbridge Angels to the Mangata Pay UK stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

With it being just four days before Christmas, can I firstly thank you all for attending today and spending your hard-earned cash at the club. I know at this time of year things are always tight, so I hope we can reward your support and loyalty with a good performance and a positive result.

Today is also our annual 'Ladies Day', where free entry is given to the girls and ladies of both Tonbridge Angels and Boreham Wood. In truth, it's the ladies who make our Christmas and the festive period so special. It's the Ladies (certainly in my family), who have always chosen the gifts, wrapped up the presents, done the shopping, prepared the 'Christmas Breakfast, Dinner' and dealt with the evening.... so can I genuinely thank you ladies.

If like me you are of a certain age and a typical male, we sometimes forget to tell our wives, girlfriends, partners and loved ones just how much we appreciate them, but trust me we always know "behind every good man there's a good woman"..... and with today being 'ladies day' I hope the girls enjoy their 'free' admission, enjoy a cocktail or two and even manage to belt a tune out on Karaoke after the game in the Glass House.

The male and female support percentages regarding home attendance show that on the ladies' side, their attendance is not only strong but also rising every season. They are also very loyal and with us being a fully inclusive club, I'm looking at creating a "mums and chums" special season ticket next season, as the increased ladies' support that we receive week in and week out, is hugely appreciated. I believe our average attendance would perhaps be down to around 700 without our loyal ladies.

So as we end the year on the football front, it's in all honesty been a mad 12 months for me, but things are looking up since our club's summer revamp, in-season rebuild and Luke Garrard's return. That said, you'll also be pleased to know that there will be no extra messaging or long programme notes today from me - as I feel you all deserve a very well-earned day off haha.

As such, it just leaves me to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a very happy and healthy New Year. For some of you, I'll no doubt see you at our away game at Enfield Town on Boxing Day and for many more of you I'll hopefully see you in the Glass House after the game on New Year's Day against Slough Town.

I do though at this time of year need to thank my amazingly loyal staff, our amazing sponsors and our tremendous club partners for their loyalty, longevity and support - it's been a truly challenging 12 months for me and you all in so many ways - but in those difficult and dark moments you stuck with me and my faith tells me 'God loves a trier'..... I know if we can stick to the fight when we're hardest hit we'll eventually get our rewards and my faith in what we're doing is important to me.

So as we enter another New Year, hope does spring eternal, and I ask once again that you all support our club, your club, the town's club, through these tough times, trust in me, trust in the process and know that win, lose or draw, we'll be trying our very best to give you a 2025 to remember.

Can I also thank Luke Garrard, Charlie Hunter, Billy Hunter, the dressing room, our academy and all our associated football staff for their hard work. Like me, they know that they hold our town and our community's footballing dreams and ambition in their hands.

I genuinely believe if we can stick to the process, believe in the club's ethos and values, remain fully focused and continue to work on our togetherness then by Easter the resurrection of our football club will be within touching distance.

So as I sign off on my notes for the final time in 2024, I need to apologise to you our loyal supporters, my staff, our town and our community for our relegation, as the buck must always stop with me - trust me I will not sleep or rest until I right that wrong and rebuild this club from top to bottom, because I know when I do, we are going to be far stronger for the experience.

Finally, to one and all, have a great Christmas and festive period, build your memories and always, always, always, cherish your time with friends, family and loved ones.

New Year's Eve is always a tough and emotional time for those of us of a certain age who have lost family and friends over the years. As the minutes tick down on this year and as a brand new year approaches, I'll quietly raise a glass and be forever thankful for the memories I've made and the love and friendships we shared. "Here's to you, absent friends and lost loved ones."

God Bless.

LIKE GARD

Good Afternoon, firstly I would like to welcome Jay Saunders, his Staff and Players to The Mangata Pay Uk Stadium for today's National South fixture.

We've been very fortunate with us having several home games in recent weeks at Meadow Park and with the form being excellent we have real confidence and belief that we can continue that today against strong opposition in Tonbridge Angels.

We finished off a real tough week last week with a comfortable win against Chesham running out 3-0 winners.

Would I have liked to score more goals and look more of a threat in the offensive third? Yes 100% but I also temper that with making 5 changes from the bench, that in itself disjoins the pattern of the game and also, we managed to get another clean sheet which was our third in a row and twelfth all season.

I speak openly about how important it is to be hard to beat and with our current defensive record, we are a side that has an attitude to defending our box and that will be fundamental in our success this season.

We have been way more productive in front of goal in our last few fixtures, registering 12 goals in 5 games which is averaging over 2 goals per game. That stat is pleasing as we have really worked on our forward play, whether that's runs, combinations or deliveries from key areas.

And for us to see a return shows the work the players are putting in at training and full credit for them to transfer that on to pitch and get the rewards we are currently.

We have now had a little breather with no midweek game, that has allowed for us to get some much-needed rest but also more importantly work into the group to continually improve and grow.

We are a side that wants to use the ball and that has been evident, but I feel we have so much more we can strengthen and that is the task of myself and the staff.

We do a lot of work on good practice where we show the group clips of what they have done good and bits we feel we can improve on.

We had a review of the 19 games we have had since my return, and we shared stats and metrics where we have enhanced as a squad.

It was important for us to see a marked improvement and I definitely feel that is the case, we are currently hitting a lot of the KPI [Key Performance Indicators] that are huge in a successful side.

We monitor this religiously whether that's our Coverage on the pitch individually or collectively, how quick we regain the ball, our entries in the final 3rd with controlled possession, our XG or shots we face every 90minutes.

Of course you can get bogged down by stats but I limit what I want as I feel these are the metrics that are important and it's no surprise we are seeing the return we are especially when we are hitting the data.

For the first time in seven weeks I can boast a full squad, with the return of both Charles Clayden and Erico Sousa.

This just shows you how strong our 19 man squad is, the task for me now is to pick a side and subs to get 3points.

We will have disappointed players but that's expected, what I have seen recently is a group that is understanding that and driving standards throughout the week to ensure they are ready when called upon.

I keep telling them how important they all are and how much they have a part to play and I've seen BUY IN which for me is the most valuable thing.

This is now a start of a busy next couple of weeks and we want to go into the New Year in the form we are in and continue to climb the table.

Let's keep the momentum going. I Look forward to seeing you all.

Enjoy the game

2023/24 FINISH
14th - National League South

IN THE DUGOUT

Manager: Jay SAUNDERS

Jay Saunders' joined the Angels as first team manager in May of 2022 and his success in management was already proven, taking Maidstone United from the Isthmian South the National League in just four seasons. However, it is not only this landmark achievement for which he is recognised. Something of a club legend in his playing days at Margate, he made 373 appearances, scoring a half century of goals from predominantly defensive positions and gaining five caps for the England semi-professional side in the process.

ONES TO WATCH

Matthew ROWLEY

Born: 25 October 2004

Position: Goalkeeper

Young Reading Academy goalkeeper, Matthew Rowley joined the Angels on loan after Toby Steward's recall to Portsmouth. Initially signed until 27th November, he debuted for the Angels against Truro City. Rowley has featured in two Reading first-team squads this season and has played in the Premier League Two. He's had previous loans at Bognor Regis, Beaconsfield, and Dover Athletic, with nine National League South appearances.

Scott WAGSTAFF

Born: Maidstone - 31 March 1990

Position: Midfield

A vastly experienced midfielder player, 34-year-old Scott Wagstaff has recorded over 300 EFL appearances with the likes of Charlton Athletic and Gillingham. A key member of Manager Jay Saunders' squad, Scott is delighted to be playing for the Angels, believing that the club is going in the right direction. Wagstaff was appointed club captain at the beginning of the 2023/24 season, succeeding Sonny Miles in the skipper role.

Sean SHIELDS

Born: Enfield - 20 January 1992

Position: Midfield

Top scorer for the Angels so far this campaign, the 32-year-old began his career at Tottenham Hotspur, spending eight years in their academy. Born in Enfield, he represented Northern Ireland U21s through his father. After 71 appearances and 13 goals for St Albans City, he joined Dagenham & Redbridge in 2013, followed by a loan back to the Saints as well as to Ebbsfleet United, where he made 116 appearances over five seasons. The attacking midfielder later played for Weymouth before becoming a fan favourite and award-winner at Longmead.

CLASSIC CAMPAIGNS

TONBRIDGE ANGELS

Football historian LEIGH EDWARDS selects ten post-war Tonbridge Angels 'Classic Campaigns'

1951/52

Tonbridge faced Football League opposition in the FA Cup for the first time in 1951/52. Harry Curtis' side beat Littlehampton 7-1, Bexhill 4-0, Worthing 11-1, Ashford Town 4-0 after a 1-1 draw and Wealdstone 2-0 to reach the FA Cup first round proper for the second consecutive season. Tonbridge held Aldershot to a 0-0 draw watched by a record 8,236 crowd at the Angel Ground. Despite goals from Johnny Jordan and footballing-cricketer Ken Suttle, Tonbridge lost 3-2 after extra-time in the replay. Centre-half Ian Dargie joined Brentford in February. Tonbridge won their first trophy, beating Gravesend & Northfleet 3-1 in the Kent Senior Shield final.

1954/55

Tonbridge reached the Southern League Cup final for the first time in 1954/55. Early Southern League results included a 6-3 win over eventual runners-up Weymouth. They beat Dartford 3-2, Llanelly 5-1 after a 1-1 draw, Barry Town 3-1 after another 1-1 draw and Guildford City 1-0 to reach the Southern League Cup final. Doug Hunt's side were held to a 0-0 draw at home to Yeovil Town in the final first-leg. Harry Robshaw gave Tonbridge an early lead in the second-leg but Yeovil fought back to win 3-1 at Huish, achieving the Southern League and Cup 'double'. The Angels lost 1-0 at Headington United in the FA Cup fourth qualifying round.

Tonbridge were Southern League Cup finalists again in 1956/57. Doug Hunt's side beat Gravesend & Northfleet 3-1, Chelmsford City 2-1 and Yeovil Town 4-1 to reach the Southern League Cup final for the second time in three seasons. The Angels lost 2-1 at home to Hereford United in the final first-leg, then lost 3-1 in the second-leg at Edgar Street as Hereford triumphed 5-2 on aggregate. Tonbridge reached the Kent Senior Cup final for the first time that season but lost 2-0 to Folkestone Town at Priestfield Stadium. Leading marksman Ron Saunders joined Gillingham that summer and later became the first player to move from the Fourth Division to First.

1963/64

Tonbridge were promoted back to the Southern League Premier Division in 1963/64. The Angels won their opening four matches, then slammed five goals past Sittingbourne, Stevenage and Burton Albion before a prestigious friendly match at home to Arsenal in late November. They bounced back from a 5-1 defeat at Corby to lose just once in 11 games, then hammered Gloucester City 6-2 at the Angel Ground. Unbeaten in their final ten games, Tonbridge stormed to a 7-2 win at home to Gravesend & Northfleet in their penultimate match and clinched promotion in fourth place with 59 points. They also beat Dover 3-2 in the Kent Floodlit Cup final.

1972/73

Player-manager John Gilchrist guided Tonbridge back to the Southern League Premier Division in 1972/73. They lost only two of their opening ten games and triumphed 5-1 at home to Basingstoke. The Angels also reached the FA Cup first round proper for only the second time in 20 years but lost 5-0 to Charlton Athletic in front of 7,770 at the Angel Ground. They lost just once in 18 matches after Christmas and finished Southern League First Division (South) runners-up with 59 points, three behind champions

Maidstone United. Phil Stonebridge was top scorer, while Dave Crush, Tony Newcombe, Ray White and Dai Yorath also starred.

1992/93

Tonbridge regained Southern League status after an absence of four years in 1992/93. Phil Emblen patiently built a winning team and guided Tonbridge to the Kent League title. The Angels hammered both Folkestone Invicta and Kent Police 5-0 in their first two games, then repeated the feat at home to Greenwich in late September. They extended their lead with an 18 match unbeaten run, hitting five goals past Crockenhill and Alma Swanley, then storming to a 6-0 win at home to Faversham. Ian Mawson, Mark Freeman and Gary Julians scored 63 goals between them as Tonbridge won the title with 90 points, six ahead of runners-up Herne Bay.

2003/04

Tonbridge finished third in the Southern League Eastern Division in 2003/04, the club's highest position for more than 25 years. A fine run at the end of the previous season continued into the new campaign, with Alan Walker plotting a club record 26 Southern League match unbeaten run before it ended in December. At this point the Angels were comfortable leaders of the Eastern Division. Walker left the club shortly after due to a loss of sponsorship and Tony Dolby replaced him as player-boss. After an initial period of mixed results, he kept Tonbridge in the title race until the penultimate match, winning 27 of their 42 games and gaining 88 points.

2005/06

Tonbridge regained Isthmian League Premier Division status at the first attempt under player-manager Tony Dolby in 2005/06. The Angels were undefeated until the end of October, including a 7-0 victory at home to Newport IOW, before a disappointing run of results threatened to undermine their promotion bid. A late surge, with leading marksman Ray Powell scoring several important goals, secured third place in the Isthmian League First Division with 80 points and they won 2-0 at home to Tooting & Mitcham in the play-off semi-finals. They beat

Dover Athletic 3-2 in the play-off final, watched by a new record Longmead Stadium attendance of 1,863.

2010/11

Tonbridge secured promotion to the Conference South for the first time in 2010/11. The Angels won only two of their opening eight games before Frannie Collin grabbed a hat-trick in a 7-1 win at home to AFC Hornchurch. Tommy Warrilow's side surged up the table with just one defeat in 18 games and finished as Isthmian League Premier Division runners-up after winning 2-0 at Horsham on the final day. Tonbridge beat Harrow Borough 3-2 in the play-off semi-final, then Lowestoft Town 4-3 in the final with Lewis Taylor scoring their winner in the closing stages. Frannie Collin was leading marksman, while goalkeeper Lee Worgan missed just one game.

2018/19

Tonbridge returned to the Conference South in 2018/19. The Angels dropped only two points in their opening seven Isthmian League Premier Division games but slumped with just one win in ten matches. Steve McKimm's side surged back up the table with one defeat in 15 games and qualified for the play-offs in fourth place. After winning 2-1 at Haringey Borough in the semi-finals, they defeated Merstham 2-0 in the final watched by 2,268 at Longmead Stadium. Tonbridge then had to play a further 'Step 3 Super Play-Off' final against the winners of the Southern League Premier Division South play-offs, winning 3-2 after extra-time at Metropolitan Police.

Ball (15'), (58')

17 August 2013 // 15:00 // Conference South

Ian Allinson's men began their 2013/14 Conference South campaign in style with a commanding 2-0 victory over Tonbridge Angels at Longmead.

The game saw Wood summer signings Matthew Ball, Matty Whichelow, and Calum Willock impress on their debuts, with Charlie O'Loughlin leading the side as captain. After an early Tonbridge effort was saved, the Wood dominated with incisive attacking play. Matty Whichelow set up Greg Morgan, whose pass found Ball to open the scoring with a precise finish in the 16th minute.

The Angels struggled to threaten against the Wood's solid defence, with James Russell making a key save to deny Nathan Pinney in the second half. Matt Ball would go on to double Wood's lead on 58 minutes, pouncing on a loose ball from a corner and completing his brace. Despite late efforts from substitutes Rob Hastings and Raheem Sterling-Parker, the scoreline remained 2-0 as the Wood cruised to a well-earned opening-day victory.

Boreham Wood FC Day Centre

CHRISTMAS PARTY

On Tuesday 17 December, the Boreham Wood Community Trust, in partnership with Boreham Wood FC, were delighted to take part in our annual Christmas party with the local Mencap group at the Borehamwood Day Centre, thoroughly enjoyed by all involved

The day was an extraordinary success with the Day Centre decorated to the fullest. The local Mencap groups and their carers with the players and staff of Boreham Wood FC all made the day so special. Everyone enjoyed a truly festive afternoon at the Day Centre which included various Christmas-themed activities, including an indoor "snowball" fight.

There was also a surprise visit from Santa Claus who of course had gifts for all members of the Day Centre and Mencap groups, which was enough to make their day, but the fun didn't stop there... We also played a Christmas-themed bingo which saw some wholesome moments of the whole room cheering and supporting all of the Day Centre and Mencap participants as they received their prizes.

Boreham Wood dominated early on but couldn't break down St Albans' resilient defence.

Jon Benton's eighth-minute effort flew over, while Saints gradually grew into the game, forcing several corners. Shaun Jeffers tested Nathan Ashmore on 19 minutes, while Lee Ndlovu and Femi Ilesamni came close for Wood, with the latter hitting the crossbar. St Albans almost capitalised late in the half, but Charles's weak effort was saved.

The second half was all Boreham Wood. Benton set up Ndlovu for an early chance, but it was Appiah who broke the deadlock with a powerful header. Appiah doubled the lead on 70 minutes after a fine pass from Ilesamni and completed his hat-trick with a superb curling shot. Wood controlled the game throughout, with Appiah narrowly missing a fourth. This convincing win marks Boreham Wood's fourth consecutive victory, moving them up to fourth in the National League.

Last time out, Wood secured a fourth consecutive league win with a dominant 3-0 victory over Chesham United, moving up to second in the table, just one point behind Torquay United.

The game turned decisively in Wood's favour after just nine minutes when Chesham's Jack Cawley was sent off for a handball on the goal line. Kwesi Appiah calmly converted the resulting penalty and Lee Ndlovu doubled the lead 10 minutes later with a powerful strike past Generals keeper, Dillon Addai.

Appiah then grabbed his second of the match seven minutes after that with a tidy finish at the near post. Despite their man disadvantage, the visitors pressed in the second half, forcing Nathan Ashmore into action on multiple occasions. However, the Wood largely managed the game, with late chances from Junior Dixon and Abdul Abdulmalik going narrowly wide. With all focus now on today's, Luke Garrard's men will be hoping to top the table before Christmas.

TONBRIDGE TURN THE TABLES

Tonbridge secured a 2-1 victory over relegation battlers, Aveley in a tight contest, bouncing back from their 3-1 loss to Enfield.

Jay Saunders' men took the lead after 19 minutes when Liam Vincent's cross, following a well-worked move, was turned into the net by Jason Ring. However, ex-Angel, Ibby Akanbi equalised just two minutes later, capitalising on a defensive mix-up.

The second half saw Tonbridge edge possession, with Mo Dabre and substitute Trevan Robinson missing chances. However, the decisive moment would come in the 76th minute when Ethan Sutcliffe headed home from a Sean Shields corner. The Angels would hold firm to secure the three points, putting them within reach of a play-off place.

DON'T FEAR, LEE'S HERE!

Lee Allinson got off to a dream start to life as Hemel Hempstead Town manager, guiding the Tudors to a commanding 3-0 victory over Weymouth.

After a goalless first half, Brandon Barzey broke the deadlock with a sublime free-kick into the bottom-left corner shortly after the restart. Barzey would then double the lead minutes later, volleying home following a well-crafted attack to complete his brace.

Following that, Tudors debutant, Sam Adenola sealed the win in the 73rd minute, lashing in from close range after a goalmouth scramble. The Terras had an opportunity to respond with Keelan O'Connell's effort forcing Brad House into a fine save. However, Hemel's strong performance secured Allinson's tenure a perfect opening.

This half-season ticket and its associated discount make a truly great Christmas present. It represents fantastic value and can be made even more affordable as, if you choose, it can be paid in four simple instalments.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

Our half-season ticket packages don't only allow you to gain entry to our remaining Vanarama National League South home games at a reduced rate, you will also receive the following:

- 10% discount on club-arranged away travel
- 10% discount on alcohol in the Glass House on match days
- 10% discount on club shop purchases
- 10% discount on function hire
- Free digital programme emailed before the game

So don't delay purchasing your discounted half-season ticket and get all the benefits stated above!
