Today we welcome Salisbury FC to the Mangata Pay UK Stadium.
May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

Well, a lot has happened on and off the pitch since my last programme notes against Dorking Wanderers and if I'm being honest, though it hurts me to say it, the two most recent defeats on top of the Weymouth loss did not necessarily surprise me but to surrender a title chance in just three weeks without too much of a fight has in all honesty shaken me.

I accept to lose Chris Bush and Femi Ilesanmi in recent weeks was a blow, to then lose Tom Whelan and Kwezi Appiah for the Maidstone United game of course didn't help things either. That said, I've paid out an awful lot of money this season to allow a high quality squad and backroom team to be put together for just those types of scenarios and in truth when they have been called upon in those big moments to date, they have been found wanting, they have not stood up to pressure as I expected and have come up short.

Our mindsets and our ambitions as such must now change and change quickly. We must firstly work harder to reverse what has been an alarming slide, we must secondly get over all or any title hangover, and thirdly we must re-focus on reaching the Play-offs and finding a bit of form in the process.

Hopefully with some of our injured players returning we can find a winning formula and a settled starting X1 to give us the highest league position possible to hopefully give ourselves home advantage in at least one game in the Play-offs, as that would give us a chance of success in what is a knockout cup competition where winner takes all, but first of all we must actually make the Play-offs.

My job, of course, during a season is mostly to pay the bills, pay the wages, and be responsible for oversight and governance. My passion though is to build the club both on and off the field and it's certainly not to crumble, scream and shout or fall apart every time there's a bit of a setback or when pressure comes calling.

As such, in recent months I've quietly been getting on with building a better tomorrow for this football club and our fans in the areas that I can affect during a season. Over the last three months I've tried to be empathetic, realistic and pragmatic in my thinking, as I look to support Luke, the changing room, my staff and our football club in the best way I can.

As such that has meant blocking out the noise at times, but importantly watching people's true performance, attitudes and their outcomes with my own eyes. I say with my own eyes, as everyone likes to blow in my ear, talk about me, me, me and explain why they are not to blame, or nothing is their fault, as personal responsibility nowadays is almost a thing of the past.

That said, I always take personal responsibility for everything I do and for everything that happens here at this club from top to bottom. I have in the last 26 years almost built the stadium and facility from scratch, I have built it with care and in my own image.

I now try to run the club off the pitch in a bespoke way that best suits not only the club, but my partners, our sponsors, our town and our community. I try to dovetail the club and our academy, and I think over the years with me at the helm it has stood the test of time and stands up to close scrutiny, as we still have no historical debt and we now have tried and tested work practices and staff who act, look and work smart.

On top of that we still have huge ambition and trust me we are not stopping now. Now is the time for us to stand together on the cobbles, to come out swinging and to wipe our mouths, I'm ready to go again next season whatever happens in the next month and I hope you are?

It's now time for the dressing room and it's associated staff to come together, it's about them rolling their sleeves up and it's about them relaxing and performing, it's about them looking forward, not backwards, for the remainder of this season and let me worry about what league we are in, as it's me who has to deal with the finances and me who must plan this club's short, mid and long term future.

With that in mind, I've done a lot of my normal in-season planning, I've created further investment and already secured Watford, Arsenal and Barnet, in what is already a very impressive home pre-season programme. For clarity, home pre season games are an important component for us, as every bit of income derived from those games goes towards improving the first team budget and we will announce one or two further fixtures in the coming weeks.

With the end of season almost nigh and post season now almost upon us, it's time for me to explain our spring and summer works in a little more detail, because despite record spending levels given over to the first team again this season, we are still playing fear football and not quite firing and so I'm having to re-balance spend for next season against income and it's not pretty.

That said, our club is not only about the first team, and I have along with my accountants, commercial/finance team and my other companies, put the financials in place for another £500k plus of facility upgrades this spring and summer in readiness for next season whatever league we are in.

That investment, though expensive, is necessary, as it's always about looking ahead, taking the club forward step by step and getting this football club future proofed and ready for when we do finally return to the National League and about getting ourselves ready for the EFL one day.

As such I will with my investment and my partners create a new control room in post season with multi stadium cameras for your safety and for our safety officer and his stewards to do their work more professionally in the years ahead as we hopefully climb back up the leagues.

Our summer Investment will include the building of a complete new safety fence line on the East Side of the ground. We will also improve our floodlights and lighting capacity and take our floodlights from a 500 lux reading to over 800 lux and beyond EFL requirements.

On top of the above we will move our home and away dug outs to the West Stand, while completing a new media, manager and players seating area within the West Stand, this will also allow our pitch to be slightly widened.

As an aside, for those who might think your voices are not always heard, I have listened to many of our supporters who at our recent Q and A, made it very clear to me that most of you wanted segregation for all of our home games next season. You stated you wanted 'The Glass House' and 'The North Bank' to be a safe space for home supporters and after a lot of thought on my part I've decided (at great financial loss) that your wants will be implemented but it will cost me up to £100k in lost wet sales from away fans over a three year period - that's the reality of our supporters wants, needs and that decision.

However for me to make that happen I felt I also needed to be fair to our visiting clubs and their supporters, as most of these clubs don't have a problem welcoming our travelling fans and they do not segregate their stadiums at this level. As such, I will create a small away fans drinking area at the South East corner of our ground, with the introduction of a bespoke bar, a small away fans zone and put in some bench seating, again at more expense. I think I've listened to our supporters and acted accordingly, but I felt we should also treat away fans as I would like the 'Wood Army' to be treated on their travels, and I think I've done that.

For clarity when we do move the home and away dug outs across to the West Stand and when we complete the East Stand fence line, it will allow us to widen our pitch and at the same time move it slightly toward the North Bank, which will ensure the run offs are a tad safer for the players.

The above means I've not stood still for one minute this season and means I'll have the summer from HELL overseeing these upgrades, as I have just 7 to 9 weeks dependant on the play offs to get these improvements completed if we are to be ready for July 8th and our first pre season game.

On top of the above you'll be pleased to know I've very importantly decided to continue my not inconsiderable investment in the first team and decided we will remain full time next season even though we might still be in a regional league. I have thought long and hard about this and believe if I'm to realise both my and your promotion ambition then we must remain full time for at least one more season. I've also decided to not only remain full time but to maintain a million pound plus dressing room budget, though I do accept we must freshen things up in more than just a few areas.

I've tried to be honest, realistic, unemotional and pragmatic with myself and my key staff in recent months and after discussing things in detail with your fans liaison officer Grant Morris, I've also decided to keep our season tickets and match day entry prices the same as this season, regardless of what division we end up in.

I am also going to purchase hundreds of our new first team match shirts for every under 20's, 16's and under 14's who decide to purchase a season ticket before July 1st. The Under 5's will again go free but with no admin fee and they will also receive a free gift from myself and the club.

Also each season ticket purchase will enable the buyer to see two home pre-season games of their choice 'free of charge'.... I want everyone to know that I acknowledge that this season (though not a complete disaster), has not gone quite like I envisaged and I'm sorry about that but that's when I'm at my best because I'll wipe my mouth, will work harder to try and right any wrongs and as I've told you all many times, "God loves a trier".

When I look around the club, it's clear to me that everything off the pitch points to the club being in its best shape ever and even after my facility and first team investment, we still operate with no historic debt as I deal with that and I do not saddle our club with directors loans like some of my fellow chairmen and directors around non league.

As such I see NO good reason for us to quit on our stools because things are a bit tough at the moment - I believe May will tell us where we are and by July/August we'll know where we're at, as the ground improvements will look amazing, the pitch will be in fantastic condition, the new signings would be bedding in and together WE MUST be ready to go again whatever league we are in.

Unlike some local chairmen, my ambition first and foremost is only about what sustainable success I can create that brings you success both on and off the field of play. Recruitment is of course vital and I have always believed that my staff, our facility and my ongoing stadium investment is vital if we are progress and should never be neglected or overlooked because as a football club we would stand still.

If we fail to look forward or if I fail to invest intelligently in all areas of our football club, then trust me we will make NO sustainable progress in the years ahead. We will end up with a tired looking stadium with very limited facilities like the one I inherited 26 years ago.

In truth the club I inherited back then was literally falling apart and if we have not learnt lessons or fail to invest in our club's infrastructure and future once again, then I believe within five years our facility and stadium will look like some of our other near neighbours' stadiums who we have visited this season.

In my opinion some clubs lack true ambition and some appear to be more bothered about selling a craft beer and a chicken wing than harnessing ambition, improving their football club, winning football matches or mounting a promotion challenge.

In truth, after so many years in the chair, the legacy I'm trying to build is not for me, its for you, your children, our grandchildren and for this town and our community. For me when I'm gone I want you supporting a club you can be proud of, a club that has ambition and a purpose, but for me to be fulfilled I need a National League return, as I still dream of being an EFL club one day.

So as we enter the last month of our season, let's deal with the setbacks together, let's fight the good fight as our town always does, let's acknowledge we've been poor of late but the Play-offs are still amazingly within our grasp, and if we can come together as a club, as a dressing room, as a support base and as a town, then I believe the Play-offs are still winnable and I've won two of them with a far poorer squad than this one, but it's only winnable if we work hard, come together and become brave.

If we can show bravery and strength at the right time, if we can get some of our injured players off the treatment table, then we can still change our clubs' destiny this season, but it's a VERY BIG IF and it only happens through togetherness, strength and bravery.

Whoever you support let's hope for an open attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care.

Danny

GREAT PLACES
TO PLAY

LIKE GARD

Good Afternoon, firstly I would like to welcome Brian Dutton, his Staff and Players to The Mangata Pay UK Stadium for today's National South fixture.

Today's match offers different outcomes for both set of sides, with different agendas. For ourselves it is to get back on track and start to gain some momentum to give us any chance of success if we are to make the play-offs.

For the visitors it will be to build on last weeks win to increase the gap even more from the bottom four and to gain safety sooner rather than later.

I know first-hand how much pressure there is when you're in a relegation battle and how it can suffocate you, it can have a huge impact on the groups confidence and it can most definitely engulf you.

Whereas we have a different pressure, one where expectation, hunger and a desire to right some wrongs plays a part.

I can't hide away from the fact we have fell away and our performances have been lacklustre to say the least. We put ourselves into such a great position and we now find ourselves looking over our shoulders to even make the top 7.

We have rightly been questioned, when you have a changing room blessed with so much talent you're expected to see a better return.

I relished coming back because I believed the squad that was assembled had it all, and I genuinely still do.

Home truths, honest conversations and some much-needed love has been the order of play this week, we have five games where it can define us a group and also our season.

I know there is frustration, none more so than mine. The task was to get promoted and that is still very much our aim.

It's for myself and the players to show how talented this group is, marrying that up with hard work and endeavour.

All the traits that we are as a Club and a Community.

I want a team to be proud of and I have discussed that with the squad and what that looks like, the messaging has been clear and there are no grey areas.

I often use the line "talkers and doers", this week there has been a lot of talking, I now expect the players to go out and do the doing.

We have a huge five fixtures remaining starting with today's opponents and a win is what is expected, please continue to support the boys and together let's go and achieve what was set out back in July.

Look forward to seeing you all

Enjoy the game

Luke

Manager: Brian DUTTON

Appointed manager at the Ray Mac in October of 2022, Brian began his career at Pickering before joining Cambridge United in 2004. He later played for Weymouth, Eastleigh, Mangotsfield, Dorchester, Salisbury, Harrogate, and Northwich Victoria. Returning to Salisbury in 2010, he joined Havant & Waterlooville in 2014, then Eastbourne in 2016. After coaching at Bristol Rovers and Walsall, he became Walsall's head coach in 2021. Dutton would then rejoin Bristol Rovers as Academy Manager in March 2022 before landing a role in Wiltshire.

ONES TO WATCH

Ronan SILVA

Born: 18 April 2000

Position: Midfield

Silva progressed through Conquest Academy, going on to play for Biggleswade Town, Fleet Town and Crawley, signing an 18-month-long professional contract with the Reds in February of 2022 for Crawley Town F.C. After loan spells at Lewes and Eastleigh, Silva joined Farnborough and eventually the Whites in the summer. The midfielder can play in many positions, has a telling pass and an eye for goal, netting against the Wood back in August.

Josh HEDGES

Born: 14 October 2003

Position: Midfield

Josh Hedges, Salisbury's leading scorer this season, joined the Whites from Didcot Town in July of 2023. The 21-year-old developed through Didcot Town's youth system, linked with Procision Oxford Football Academy, before breaking into the first team. A skilled attacking midfielder, Josh was a key player at Didcot and brings creativity and goal-scoring ability to Salisbury, making him a key component to Brian Dutton's side.

Daniel FITCHETT

Born: 28 March 1991

Position: Forward

The Whites' skipper began his career at Aldershot Academy before moving to Wycombe Wanderers in 2009, earning a pro contract in 2010. This was followed by a loan spell at Salisbury City, later joining them permanently for three seasons. After City's demise in 2014, Fitchett played for Aldershot, Sutton United, Wealdstone, and Hartley Wintney and in 2024, joined Sholing before moving to Gosport Borough and eventually rejoining Salisbury in January.

CLASSIC CAMPAIGNS

SALISBURY

Football historian LEIGH EDWARDS selects ten post-war Salisbury FC 'Classic Campaigns'

1957/58

Salisbury won the Western League title for the first time in 1957/58. New signings included Peter Rushworth, Len Gibbons, Bob McAlone, Charlie McNulty, Tom Gale, Ian Allen and Gordon Kaile. The Whites slowly climbed the table after a disappointing start and went top for the first time at the end of February. Reg Broom's side swept to a 4-0 win at home to Glastonbury and clinched the title with a 2-0 victory at home to Cinderford Town. Stan Abbott was leading marksman with 15 goals as Salisbury won 18 of their 36 Western League games and lost just seven times. They had the best defensive record, conceding only 30 goals and gaining 47 points.

1960/61

Salisbury won the Western League title again in 1960/61. They had finished runners-up in the previous two seasons. Reg Broom's side won 31 of their 40 Western League games and suffered just five defeats. They hammered Trowbridge Town Reserves 9-1 and 7-0, Barnstaple Town 8-1 and slammed six goals past Bideford, Taunton, Welton Rovers and Bristol City Colts. Roy Watts was top scorer with 49 goals as Salisbury were the highest scorers in the Western League with 135 goals. They gained 66 points, finishing eight ahead of runners-up Dorchester Town. The only disappointment was a 2-0 defeat at home to Weymouth in an FA Cup replay.

Salisbury won promotion to the Southern League Premier Division for the first time in 1985/86. Geoff Butler's new attacking system proved an instant success with a 5-1 victory at home to Ruislip on the opening day. They missed a chance to go top when they lost 5-3 at Hastings despite a hat-trick from Peter Johnson. Salisbury lost their 100% home record when they were held to a 2-2 draw by Trowbridge on Boxing Day. The Whites returned to action after a five week lay-off and ended the season with seven straight wins, clinching promotion with a 3-2 win at Woodford on the final day. They finished runners-up, level on 80 points with champions Cambridge City.

1994/95

Salisbury City won the Southern League Southern Division title in 1994/95. Geoff Butler's side started with a 2-1 defeat at Tonbridge but soared with five straight wins and Jason Lovell grabbed a hat-trick in a stunning 7-0 victory at Baldock in November, then repeated the feat in their 4-2 win at home to Yate four days later. The Whites gained another five successive wins early in the New Year. Newcomers Paul Morrell and Gary Manson helped extend the run to 18 games without defeat. Salisbury gained a 1-0 win over promotion rivals Havant and clinched the title with a 3-1 victory at home to Wealdstone. Jason Lovell was leading marksman with 26 goals.

2005/06

Salisbury won the Southern League Premier Division title in 2005/06. Paul Sales, Chris Ferrett and Simon Browne returned and Nick Holmes' side were early pace-setters, winning five and drawing two of their first seven matches. The Whites beat promotion rivals King's Lynn 1-0 to hold a four point lead at the top of the table. But Team Bath inflicted the first home defeat at the end of January and Salisbury lost 3-1 at Exeter City in the FA Trophy, then lost pole position after 1-0 defeats against Halesowen and Bedford. A dramatic 2-1 win at Banbury heralded nine consecutive wins and they clinched the title with a 2-0 victory at home to Gloucester.

2006/07

Salisbury won promotion to the Conference National for the first time in 2006/07. Nick Holmes' side went top of the Conference South after winning all except three of their opening 12 games. They also reached the FA Cup second round for only the second time, beating VT 3-0, Eastleigh 1-0, Fisher 1-0, Fleetwood 3-1 and Enfield 2-1 before drawing 1-1 at home to Nottingham Forest in front of a 3,100 crowd. The match was screened live on BBC 1 and the replay, lost 2-0, was live on Sky. Matt Tubbs was top scorer as Salisbury finished runners-up to Histon. They beat Bishop's Stortford 3-1 in the play-off semi-finals, then Braintree 1-0 in the play-off final.

2010/11

Salisbury won promotion back to the Conference South in 2010/11. The Whites made a fine start to the season under new manager Darrell Clarke and were unbeaten at home in the Southern League Premier Division until they lost 6-0 to title rivals Truro City in February 2011. They also beat Wrexham and Woking en route to the FA Trophy quarter-finals before losing 2-1 at eventual winners Darlington. Injuries hampered Salisbury during the closing weeks and they finished third. The Whites won 1-0 at home to Cambridge City in the play-off semi-finals, then triumphed 3-2 on penalties after a thrilling 2-2 draw at Hednesford Town in the play-off final.

2011/12

Salisbury reached the FA Cup third round for the first time in 2011/12. They beat Swindon Supermarine 3-0, Poole Town 6-1 and Bishop's Stortford 2-1 before defeating Arlesley 3-1 in the first round proper. The Whites drew 0-0 against Grimsby watched by 2,161 at the Raymond McEnhill Stadium in the second round before winning 3-2 after extra-time in the replay. Salisbury lost 3-1 at Sheffield United in the third round. They won 2-0 at home to Conference

South leaders Woking. The club's financial problems were eased by the FA Cup run and £800,000 sale of former striker Matt Tubbs from Crawley to AFC Bournemouth with a 15% sell-on clause.

2012/13

Salisbury won promotion back to the Conference National in 2012/13. New signings included Mark Scott, Chris McPhee and Jamie White. The Whites went top after winning all except two of their opening eight Conference South games. Darrell Clarke's side remained in pole position with just one defeat in 13 matches but finished runners-up to Welling United. Jamie White was top scorer with 26 goals. Salisbury defeated Chelmsford City 2-1 in the play-off semi-finals, then goals by Ricky Wellard, Stuart Sinclair and Jamie White secured a 3-2 victory over Dover Athletic after extra time in the play-off final in front of 3,408 at the Raymond McEnhill Stadium.

2023/24

Salisbury won promotion to the Conference South in 2023/24. Brian Dutton's side made a nine-match unbeaten start in the Southern League Premier Division South before losing 2-1 at Sholing. They responded with seven straight wins and went top of the table but then won just twice in nine games during December and January. Despite gaining a thrilling 5-4 victory at Poole Town, they had inconsistent results over the closing weeks and finished in third place with 79 points, having won 23 of their 42 matches. The Whites beat Gosport Borough 2-1 in the play-off semi-finals, then defeated AFC Totton 4-3 on penalties after a 2-2 draw in the play-off final.

Fasanmade [47], Silva [71]

Sousa [40']

26 August 2024 // 15:00 // National League South

The Wood suffered a disappointing 2-1 defeat at Salisbury despite leading at half-time. Erico Sousa's penalty put Wood ahead just before the break after Lee Ndlovu was fouled by goalkeeper Ryan Gosney.

However, the hosts responded swiftly, levelling two minutes into the second half when Josh Hedges played in Craig Fasanmade, who finished clinically. Salisbury dominated much of the second period and deservedly took the lead on 71 minutes, as Gerson Ramos teed up Ronan Silva to slot home from close range.

Wood struggled to create clear openings, with Tyrone Marsh volleying over late on before hitting the post in stoppage time and missing the rebound. It was a frustrating afternoon for Ross Jenkins' side, who were unable to replicate their previous performance.

Prior (47')

22 March 2025 // 15:00 // National League South

A second-half goal from Jason Prior was enough to give Dorking Wanderers all three points and consign the Wood to their second league defeat in a row.

The hosts started brightly, with Kwesi Appiah and Erico Sousa both testing Harrison Foulkes early on, while Junior Dixon and Jon Benton went close. However, Dorking broke the deadlock just after half-time when Jason Prior's deflected strike beat Nathan Ashmore.

The introduction of Matt Rush and Abdul Abdulmalik gave the hosts some impetus, with Abdulmalik forcing Foulkes into another fine save. Charles Clayden later fired narrowly wide, but Wood's hopes faded when Tom Whelan saw red in stoppage time. Cameron Coxe was denied by a superb late save from Foulkes, who proved the difference and resulted in a frustrating afternoon for Wood, who were left to rue missed chances and inspired goalkeeping.

Wanjau-Smith [36'] [45'], Brookes [45+4']
Fowler [66']

29 March 2025 // 15:00 // National League South

Maidstone United cruised to a dominant 4-0 victory over the Wood, dealing a major blow to our play-off hopes.

Sol Wanjau-Smith struck twice, while a Ben Brookes penalty and a George Fowler finish sealed a crucial win, lifting the Stones above their rivals in the table.

The Wood started brightly but soon found themselves under pressure, as Wanjau-Smith opened the scoring with a header from Charlie Seaman's throw-in before doubling the lead late in the first half. Ben Brookes converted from the spot in stoppage time which put the hosts in complete control.

Despite seeing more of the ball after the break, the Wood struggled to break through Maidstone's resolute defence. Fowler added a fourth in the 65th minute and almost made it five soon after. A tough afternoon ended with a Tyrone Marsh effort which was well saved, leaving the visitors without a consolation.

LATEST NEWS FROM AROUND THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

LEAGUE NEWS

SCOPES STEPS DOWN

Aveley FC have confirmed that manager Danny Scopes will leave the club at the end of the season. Despite a 1-1 draw at Hemel Hempstead delaying their mathematical relegation from the National League South, the Millers remain bottom with only a slim chance of survival.

Scopes, who guided Aveley to promotion via the Isthmian North play-offs and lifted the Isthmian Velocity Cup, expressed his gratitude to the club's staff, players, and supporters for their dedication during his tenure and CEO Craig Johnson praised Scopes' unwavering commitment and lasting impact. Scopes will remain in charge for the remainder of the season while the club searches for his successor.

ZAC BELL MOVE MADE PERMANENT

Maidenhead United have sold defender Zac Bell to Truro City for an undisclosed fee. The 21-year-old had been on loan at the National League South club since January and now makes the move permanent.

Bell made a few appearances for Maidenhead before an injury saw him fall out of favour. Since his move, he has played 14 times for Truro, who are just three points off the top of their league.

Truro boss John Askey said signing Bell permanently was an easy decision, praising his performances and potential. The length of the former Wales youth international's contract remains undisclosed.

WINGS SIGN SALFORD YOUNGSTER

Welling United have signed midfielder Jez Davies on loan from Salford City. The 20-year-old began his career at Tottenham before joining Burnley in 2022 and later moving to Salford in January 2024.

Davies made his senior league debut in March and has featured in the Football League Trophy and Carabao Cup, scoring twice against Wolves U21s. He previously had loan spells at Marine and Ebbsfleet United, making six National League appearances.

He now joins Welling to strengthen caretaker boss Brian Statham's midfield options for the remainder of the season.
