This evening we welcome Carlisle United to the Mangata Developments Stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

Firstly, can I say to every attending Carlisle United fan, your commitment and resolve to get yourselves down here on the last Sunday before Christmas with 600 of you making a 600 mile round trip is absolutely outstanding and if any team and any group of fans deserve to get themselves back into the EFL it's you guys, and after tonight I wish you all nothing but success.

For me, I accepted a long time ago that we are a much smaller community based club than many who now reside within this league. I accepted as a lowly populated town at this level, that we would have our limitations if we focused only on attendances. However, maybe foolishly I never saw that as a sole reason to forego my aspirations, my ambitions or stop me dreaming the impossible dream for my club.

In truth like my father before me, who managed our club with such distinction in the sixties and seventies, I still love the fact that sixty years later, we are still finding ways, whether through our staffs' work ethic, our academy or with our improved scouting system, to improve the club off the park, while recruiting good young players on it, who might then get the chance to compete at the top of this league and who might well then go on beyond.

As such, it's not as mad as most people seem to think that a small well run club with a good catchment area for players, can be playing a club of Carlisle United's size as an equal in this league and not only in the FA Cup. I say that as I well remember watching on the terraces from the Shed end at Chelsea way back in 1974 when Carlisle United won that day 2-0 to go top of Division 1 - and just to put that into perspective, Division 1 is nowadays known as the Premier League.

Though Carlisle United led the league that day after three or four games, they still got relegated that year and that was possibly the best it has ever been for them? And nowadays, with the type of money available and on offer in the Premier League, that was maybe the best it will ever be, who knows?

Only the current 'Blues' diehards will know exactly how they've managed to get themselves down into the National League with their incredible support. From the outside there has obviously been huge historical Boardroom, manager and player changes that perhaps in hindsight would be questioned by the fanbase, but only the clubs diehards will truly know how they are playing Boreham Wood FC as equals this evening?

For me, I'm now in my 27th season in the Chair here and our story under me was firstly one of survival at the start, followed by a bit of yo-yo success, that then got replaced with more long term ambition and it's now a story of patience, which yet again might be slow, but my aim is to provide a long lasting period of over achievement that will one day land ourselves in the EFL. Is it likely? No, not really but Leicester City did win the Premier League and in truth most of our past achievements were also unlikely, yet we somehow found a way, so here's hoping and praying.

Whatever the reasons for us ending up in the same league as tonight's visitors, along with some of the other big ex-Football League clubs in this division, it is a very big deal for me. As a way of explanation, I go back to my earliest football upbringing long before becoming a fairly successful local businessman. In the seventies and eighties I was a street supporter who followed Chelsea and England up and down the country and over land and sea. I was a big Chelsea fan mostly in the Ken Bates era at Stamford Bridge and so I know the ups and downs of supporting a mad yo-yo club. That said I loved every minute of it and to this day I'm still following England around the world and loving every second of being a die-hard England fan.

So for me as a local owner, it's a real privilege for our small club, when trying to compete with the Carlisle, Southend, York, Rochdale and Scunthorpe's of this world on a level playing field. I of course accept with a Town population being in or around 35k and with us presently averaging around 900 home fans on a regular basis that things are difficult.

That said, our fanbase is quietly growing, as is our sponsorship, as are our partnerships and in truth so are our relationships with both our Borough Council and Town Council which have never been stronger. For me that is the recipe for our community football club's future success and why we've seen sustained progress over the last two decades. In that time we've dealt with the setbacks, we've shown resilience, shown patience to achieve a bit of longevity, and that longevity means at National League we are making memories and a bit of history along the way.

Other Club News:

The Annual Mencap and Day Centre Christmas lunch held at the club each year, was a resounding success. The lunch itself was great, the staff (servers) were first class, the Mencap, Day Groups and Carers are quite simply amazing people and our players, manager, staff and local dignitaries made it a community day (once again) to cherish and remember.

No doubt there are photos and videos online somewhere and possibly in this digital programme and I hope they convey the joy, care and love in the room, because without being corny, everyone in our community should feel like they belong and everyone deserves to feel both cared for and loved. In truth this is one of the clubs' most cherished and anticipated days and once again it did not disappoint.

On to the Clubs' South end planning application. I'm sorry to say that timelines have slipped planning wise once again and our submission will not be heard until February. In truth the project was not where the planners wanted it to be, nor where I was feeling happy and I've let my feelings and frustration be known to my architect and inner circle. As such, after certain decisions were made beyond my control, the project has been tweaked once again to incorporate further community provision that includes two new changing rooms, that will be under our control but will also be made available for the park and its pitch users.

For clarity, if everything goes well in February then the start date will remain May 2026 but if it slips any further, then I'll need to rethink things, re-budget and plan accordingly.

Anyway, back to tonight and the visit of the 1974 Division 1 leaders in Carlisle United, plus the first league visit of their incredible supporters. Their Manager is none other than the legendary Mark 'Sparky' Hughes. It's fair to say that back in the day, I would loyally follow both Hughsie and Chelsea up and down the country and on occasion even up Wembley way itself, "what a special player he was"....

That was a lifetime ago and we are now in a very different social and streaming era, an era that tramples on common sense and cares nothing for the attending supporter. As such, I want to repeat myself and give the warmest of welcomes to Carlisle's amazing travelling supporters. As a long-standing Chairman of a National League club, I can only apologise to Carlisle fans and every away supporter for DAZN and the National League's recent stupidity, and especially in putting this game on at 4pm on the last Sunday before Christmas. To disregard the away fans, who will be lucky to be home by 2am tonight is dangerous, could be the beginning of the end for the travelling supporter and it's absolutely scandalous.

Once again the National League Board have refused to meet me to discuss things, surprise surprise which is frustrating, but I'll keep trying to meet them on the little man's behalf, and I'll try to ask them for a more common sense approach toward both supporters and clubs and try to find some common ground on how we best implement a streaming deal that can work better for all parties.

However, that's for another day, and as we are the last game of DAZN's "Nightmare of Christmas" I hope that both teams give the attending fans exactly what we want, that being a brilliant, exciting and attacking game, and no matter who you support this evening, may I genuinely wish you a very happy and peaceful Christmas and more importantly a very happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Take care and God Bless.

Danny

Good evening, firstly I would like to welcome Mark Hughes, his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for today Enterprise National League fixture.

Carlisle United arrive here in very good form, only losing one match in their last ten. They will have confidence going into today's game and will no doubt want to right the wrongs of their defeat against Woking last time out.

We played out a very entertaining 3-3 draw in the reverse fixture back in early August, with both sides showing their attacking threat in front of goal.

Since that game both sides have been on an incredible run and find ourselves firmly in the play-offs recording more than 2 points per match. Which is very impressive to maintain over this period of time.

Since our last game Carlisle have added Chris Conn-Clarke to their ranks and he will no doubt have a huge influence in their success this season.

We also added personnel that wasn't present back in August, with the likes of Zak Brunt, Regan Booty and Marley Marshall Miranda joining the squad.

Having rewatched our footage against them, I can imagine there will be a lot of movement in both starting elevens.

This shows the natural progression of a group and the journey a squad goes on throughout the season.

We have been relatively consistent with our team selections, which I feel has really aided us with how we are performing.

Having the luxury to select a side regularly for a Manager is very important, getting lucky with injuries and suspensions most definitely play a huge part in the success over the course of the Season.

We have though been hit with a minor blow in regards to Tom White who will be sidelined for some time, he has been a massive part of our success to date and will no doubt be missed.

We softened the landing on this news when we added Regan and now Marley to the squad, these two additions will add real quality to the group and also give us the insurance we need going into the New Year.

Regan and Charlie have both really hit it off and already started to compliment each other, that's a testament to them both and the level of quality they possess. Now adding a long term target in Marley will bring that much needed competition into the squad to continue driving standards.

We have already started to look at recruitment and areas we feel we can add to the dressing room, we are very appreciative of the great work that has already been done but also understand we need to constantly evolve and when opportunities present themselves to us we need to be proactive and ready to move.

We are in a delicate stage of the season and we want to make sure we capitalise on this good start and roll into the New Year full of energy, confidence and belief to kick on.

We need to continue to do the great work which has been evident in our performances over the last few weeks, the free flowing football and fluidity has been a pleasure to watch.

We will need to make sure we take the game to Carlisle and get into our rhythm and really emphasise us on them and play with the quality we know we possess.

I thank all our supporters who have backed us and been on this journey to date and I'm going to ask you to really get behind the boys this Afternoon, packing out the North Bank and giving us an atmosphere to thrive to.

Be Loud, Be proud, B'WOOD

Enjoy the Game.

Luke

Last time out against the Cumbrians, Wood produced a stirring late fightback to claim a deserved point in a pulsating early-season contest at Brunton Park, coming from 3-1 down to draw with Mark Hughes' men.

After weathering early pressure, Wood grew into the game and were rewarded just before the break when Erico Sousa's perfectly weighted pass released Luke Norris, who finished clinically to give Luke Garrard's side a half-time lead. Carlisle emerged with renewed intensity after the interval and quickly turned the game on its head, scoring three times through Georgie Kelly and a superb Regan Linney double to seemingly take control.

However, Wood refused to fold. Matt Rush and Chris Bush both threatened before Norris reignited belief with a powerful header. Momentum swung decisively when Sousa's free-kick was met by Charlie O'Connell, whose towering header drew Wood level late on. In a breathless finale, we held firm to secure an a well-earned point in Cumbria.

Brackley Town win 3-1 on penalties

13 December 2025 // 15:00 // ISUZU FA Trophy

The Wood's FA Trophy hopes ended in frustration as they were beaten on penalties by Brackley Town after a breathless 3-3 draw at Meadow Park.

Wood began brightly and were rewarded early on when Zak Brunt finished smartly after good work from Lewis Richardson, setting the tone for an entertaining afternoon. However, Brackley gradually grew into the contest and turned the game around before the break, with Matt Lowe striking twice to give the visitors a 2-1 half-time lead.

Wood responded with renewed urgency after the interval and were deservedly level when Jeff King's curling free-kick clipped the post on its way in. Brackley struck again through an outstanding Tyler Lyttle set-piece, but Wood refused to go quietly. After Matt Rush rattled the crossbar late on, Erico Sousa bundled home a dramatic stoppage-time equaliser to force penalties.

The shoot-out proved cruel, with Wood missing three spot-kicks as Brackley advanced, leaving Garrard's side to refocus on league and FA Cup ambitions.

7 December 2025 // 14:30 // Emirates FA Cup

Luke Garrard's men powered into the FA Cup Third Round for the fourth time in six seasons with a superb 3–0 victory over League Two Newport County.

After a nervy opening spell in which the visitors hit the post and tested Ted Curd, Wood suddenly came alive. Jeff King struck first, lashing home after a loose clearance, before Regan Booty finished a flowing move to double the lead before the break. Wood emerged rampant in the second half and Matt Rush's cool finish on the hour sent the North Bank into delirium, sealing another magical cup win.

The Exiles battled but were simply overwhelmed by the Wood's tempo, width and relentless energy. By full-time, the Meadow Park crowd knew they had witnessed something special, another commanding victory over league opposition and another step deeper into the world's most storied cup competition. The dream of another magical FA Cup run burns brightly in WD6.

THE EMIRATES FA CUP - THIRD ROUND

AT MEADOW PARK

The Third Round Proper is back at Meadow Park, and the stage is set for more magical Emirates FA Cup memories.

This is more than just another cup tie; it's a chance to dare to dream again. The Emirates FA Cup has only taken us as far as the Fifth Round Proper once in our history, and moments like that don't come around often. If we're going to do it again, we need the Wood Army loud, proud, and right behind the team.

Let's pack the North Bank, fill Meadow Park to the rafters and push Luke and the lads forward as we look to write another unforgettable chapter in our FA Cup story. A place in the Fourth Round Proper would mark just the second time we've ever reached that stage – and from there, who knows how far we could go?

We can do it again. But we can't do it without YOU. We want noise in the north bank and hope in our hearts!

The Message Is Simple

Luke, the players, and everyone connected with the club understand the significance of these FA Cup matchdays. We need the drum, the noise, and the passion. From the first whistle, we need the North Bank united and driving the team forward. We need the whole town to come together, to turn Meadow Park into the fortress it can be and to help us take another league scalp!

TRIBUTES PAID TO MACCLESFIELD YOUNGSTER

Macclesfield FC have been left devastated following the death of forward Ethan McLeod in a car crash at the age of 21.

The club confirmed McLeod was involved in a traffic collision on the M1 while returning from Tuesday night's National League North match at Bedford Town. A popular and highly regarded member of the squad, McLeod joined Macclesfield last summer after coming through the youth ranks at Wolves and spells in non-league football.

In a heartfelt tribute, the club described him as an outstanding professional whose infectious personality and love of life lifted everyone around him. McLeod made three league appearances this season and is remembered as a talented young player with a bright future ahead.

TINNERS RETURN TO WINNING WAYS

Rock-bottom Truro City ended a five-match losing run with a deserved home win over Wealdstone.

After a cagey opening, the breakthrough arrived shortly before the interval when Dominic Johnson-Fisher reacted quickest to a loose ball in the area, poking home his third league goal of the campaign. The hosts carried that momentum into the second half and doubled their advantage when Christian Oxlade-Chamberlain capitalised on a defensive slip to calmly finish.

Truro threatened to make the result even more convincing late on, only for Dante Baptiste to deny Tyler Harvey with an excellent save. The result brought welcome relief for Truro, while Wealdstone saw their six-game unbeaten league run come to an end.

MOORS SECURE HIGH LONG-TERM

Solihull Moors have completed the permanent signing of midfielder Scott High after a successful loan spell from Barnet.

The 24-year-old arrived at Damson Park in October and quickly became a key figure, featuring in every match since his move. Having made six League Two appearances for Barnet earlier in the season, High has now committed to the Moors by signing a contract running until the end of the 2026/27 campaign.

Manager Chris Millington hailed the deal as a statement of intent, describing High as the benchmark for future recruitment. The Moors boss believes the energetic midfielder's work rate and consistency will see him become a firm favourite with supporters in the months ahead.
