Tonight we welcome our good friends from Yeovil Town to Meadow Park, may I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters a pleasant stay with us and a safe journey home.

Well other than the National League Cup, it's not been the best of starts to the New Year for us, either with our results or performances. In truth we've hit a bit of sticky patch and that coincided with us picking up a few injuries to key players and Jeff King's loan ending.

As such as we look to steer ourselves into calmer waters, let's remember the positives, let's continue to be honest with each other, as we still sit safely in a Play Off place and we've worked our socks off over the last two seasons to get ourselves into this position. In truth if we're going to have a sticky patch, much better it comes now while we can still wheel, deal and tweak the squad.

If we don't overreact to the current set back, if we're sensible we can do something long term about it, rather than wait until later in the season when the non league transfer window closes at the end of March and when we've already entered the final run in.

Let's be honest when we went top a little over a month ago, I know myself, the 'Wood Army' and our wider community's expectations went through the roof and while we were top (which wasn't for long) we loved every minute of it and so we should.

If like me in early January you were literally on cloud nine that's perfectly understandable, as we were in the 3rd Round of the FA Cup, we were Top 3 in the league and the football we were playing was outstanding and we were all possibly dreaming the impossible dream of the EFL.

Today the situation is slightly different, as two very good sides in Rochdale and York City have got away from the rest of us and the title is now a straight fight between those two ex Football League clubs. However, for us the Play offs and a top 5 league finish is still very realistic.

Thankfully it appears that some of our injured players are now slowly coming back and our squad certainly looks a lot stronger than it has over the last month. When looking back over the last 18 months we actually went through three sticky spells last season but found ways to turn things around because we were focused, motivated and desperate for promotion, trust me nothing has changed this season.

Of course you need certain things like a good budget, club unity, good players, an good structure and real togetherness, but firstly you must deal with any weak mindsets, any self doubt, the poor excuses. Those things are honestly debilitating if they take hold within a dressing room or amongst the wider staff. In truth self weakness like that gets on my nerves, especially when it's from our weaker known characters who are always looking to find a ready made excuse that suits their me, me, me disposition.

Thankfully most of the people wrapped around me are over achievers and the sooner everyone settles down, focusses on the next 10 weeks and deal with their own jobs, the teams current form, their own self doubt, then the better things will turn out for everyone.

When the singular recognises the collective then the sooner we will arrest this bump in the road and I expect that to happen this evening. In truth I don't want to keep hearing about Jeff King going back to York City, as for me it's a complete irrelevance now.

Trust me Jeff was very good but he's not Rushy, he's not Bushy, he's not Brunty and he's certainly not Abdul. Jeff's a very good right back but that's it, so let's all get over a right back departing and find a way to deal with finishing the season well and winning the Play-offs without him.

For me there are some big questions that need answering tonight regarding some of the players within our squad and whether they are quite good enough both mentally and physically to fill the injured players' boots in the heat of battle. In all honesty everyone within the squad has had more than enough time in both training and in games, to of put down a marker down and we've had more than enough time to assess all of these things.

I say this, because we're at a very critical stage of the season and so we might in all honesty need to bring in one or two more players to re-balance the squad especially down the right hand side, plus add someone up top.... Luke Garrard and Charlie Hunter must now decide if the players who have recently been given a chance during the injured players' absence have done enough to keep Erico Souza, Callum Reynolds and Tom White out of the side when they return and can the squad players if needed get us promoted?

Put simply the above might sound harsh but I'm a winner and I want success for my town, so I'm more than happy to spend my children's and grandchildren's inheritance to back Luke and Charlie Hunter in the transfer and loan market again, but only if the right players and right characters become available.

That said, tonight is a further opportunity for some of the squad players to send a real message to the gaffer, by showing him their attitude, discipline, desire and performance is of a level to be winners and they are ready for the run in. In terms of our last league outing here against Boston United, we were ok at best, 1 up at half time, we were coasting without ever looking great but by anyone's reckoning we were in very little danger of ever losing the game.

A silly penalty is then given away early in the second half, a red card is dished out to Femi Ilesanmi and the game changes in an instant - that's football I'm afraid. A second red card is then given to Regan Booty for foul language and suddenly we're 2-1 down and instead of sitting third in the league and on the leaders tails, we're sitting in 5th and those around me instantly talk about pressure.

Trust me the talk of pressure and me listening to peoples reasoning about pressure is complete nonsense. There's no pressure on me as an owner nor as a club when we're sitting in a Play-off position. It's not a pressure situation it's just an expectation thing and long may your expectations stick around at Meadow Park, as it means we're all doing something right.

Anyway enough of my diatribe, let's get back to tonight's game, where we welcome a rejuvenated Yeovil Town under new ownership. Yeovil are coming here after winning 1-0 up at Altrincham on Saturday and in truth I watched the game on DAZN and they did a smash and grab number on Alty and so we can expect a very difficult game this evening.

Lastly, whoever you support, let's hope for an open, attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care

Danny

LUKE GARREARD

Good evening, firstly I would like to welcome Billy Rowley, his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for tonight's Enterprise National League fixture.

Billy has had an instant impact since taking the reins at Yeovil, over seeing a very positive return on their league form and also seeing them progress through to the Quarter Finals of the FA Trophy.

They arrive here this evening having picked up a massive three points on the road against Altrincham and no doubt will want to continue their current run of form with another big result tonight.

For us it's about getting back "on the horse". We returned back down south last Tuesday having been beaten by promotion rivals Rochdale.

Having to lick our wounds and regroup in prep for Saturday, for it to unfortunately be postponed.

We are now very much chomping at the bit to put another strong run together. The results you could say very much went in our favour on Saturday and now it's for us to capitalise on that with a big three points tonight.

We know how important it is for us to gain momentum and with the return of much needed personnel within the group it will definitely be the catalyst to our success.

We have faced slight adversity recently and now we have to show a unity and belief that between us all we can steer ourselves into more positive outcomes.

We know for us to have the year we want we need to show a level of consistency going forward to ensure we go into the business end of the season fully committed and delivering on performances.

We are very close to players returning and having a full squad to select from, which will give us the much-needed competition going into the latter stages of the Season.

Tonight, there will be no hiding place, I have spoken to the squad and outlined exactly what I expect from them and the challenges Yeovil will present.

We have to show a willingness to run and have a selflessness within the team where it's "we not me" and we have an understanding of what it looks like to put all in and take nothing out.

We have a group that has so much ability and when they get it right they're a match for anyone in the division, we just need to get back to playing with the confidence and having the swagger that has got us to where we currently sit.

Back to tonight, our whole focus is three points and starting a much needed winning run.

Get right behind the boys and give them the energy to deliver.

Be Loud, Be proud, B'WOOD

Enjoy the Game.

Luke

Manager: Billy ROWLEY

Up and coming manager Billy is regarded as one of the hottest managerial prospects in non-league after he played an instrumental part in Walton & Hersham's impressive rise up the pyramid. He joined The Swans in 2020, being part of the management team which rose from Step 5 to Step 3 in two seasons as an assistant, before he was appointed manager for the 2024/25 campaign and guided his side to an impressive play-off campaign & a Surrey Senior Cup win.

ONES TO WATCH

Jed WARD

Born: 20 May 2003

Position: Goalkeeper

Young goalkeeper Jed joined on loan from Bristol Rovers in August and has been crucial in between the sticks, keeping the majority of Yeovil's opposite numbers at bay. Having made several appearances for the club in League One & Two, he spent several loans in non-league at the likes of Wealdstone & Forest Green Rovers before this season. He also has experience as an England youth international as recently as 2024 with the U20 side.

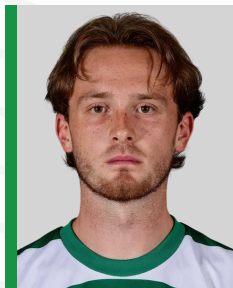

Luke McCORMICK

Born: 21 January 1991

Position: Midfield

Midfielder Luke is an experienced midfielder with spells at several EFL clubs. He was on the books of Chelsea whilst gaining first team experience at both Shrewsbury & Bristol Rovers before being released. The 27-year-old has arguably hit his best spell of his career this season, after joining at the start of this season and scoring eight times in 25 appearances. He was rewarded with a new contract recently, extending his deal until 2028.

Harvey GREENSLADE

Born: 8 April 2004

Position: Forward

Formerly of Bristol Rovers all the way through youth level, striker Harvey will provide the threat on the last line for the visitors. A man who has experiences at various levels of non-league, including time with Chippenham Town, Truro City and Oxford City, his experience earned him a professional contract with The Gas before leaving for Yeovil in 2024. He currently has 3 goals so far this season in seven starts.

4 October 2025 // 15:00 // National League

Boreham Wood continued their incredible start to life in the National League as a win away in Dorset snuck them into the top three places of the table.

Wood were unbeaten since game week two in tough conditions set by Storm Amy, they took the lead 20 minutes in when Abdul Abdulmalik burst down the left, skipping past Andrew Oluwabori before curling a shot home.

Jeff King was then denied by the post from a free-kick from distance before Matt Rush doubled the lead in first-half stoppage time, turning in a cross from Charles Clayden.

Wood were knocking on the door for a third and nearly got it through Clayden after Jed Ward got a superb fingertip to his curling effort. Femi Ilesanmi got a decisive third just after the hour however, turning in the loose ball after Clayden's mis-hit shot, but Rush was offside when he had the ball in the net for a fourth time late on.

3 February 2026 // 19:45 // National League

Rochdale returned to the top of the National League with a comfortable 4-1 victory over a Boreham Wood side looking to rediscover their form.

Devante Rodney headed in Tobi Adebayo-Rowling's cross to give Dale a sixth-minute lead, with the striker netting his first goal since the start of November.

Emmanuel Dieseruwwe was superbly denied by Nathan Ashmore in the visitors' goal before he eventually got the better of the Wood 'keeper as he doubled Rochdale's lead on the half an hour mark.

Dieseruwwe then doubled his tally as he pounced on a loose back pass to grab his 14th goal of the season five minutes after the restart.

Zak Brunt gave Wood hope from the penalty spot midway through the second half as he converted following Whatmuff's challenge on Matt Rush.

However, substitute Ian Henderson restored Rochdale's three-goal cushion as he slammed home from Aidan Barlow's cross as they went two points clear of York at the top of the table.

31 January 2026 // 15:00 // National League

A late winner from Jordy Hiwula ten minutes from time gave Boston United a huge boost in their survival hopes over 9-man Boreham Wood.

Abdul Abdulmalik put the Wood in front just before half-time after he let fly from 25-yards out and fortunately found his effort hitting the back of the net via the aid of a deflection.

However the visitors were given a penalty six minutes after the restart when last man Femi Ilesanmi pulled back Ken Aboh in the box, and the former was the first of two Wood red cards. Lenell John-Lewis levelled from the spot, but he injured himself minutes later and was replaced by Jordy Hiwula just before the hour.

Regan Booty then became the second Wood man to see red and Hiwula had the final say in the 81st minute by crashing in a rebound as Boston moved up to 17th, albeit still only two points above the drop.

MAHADY TO STAY WITH THE IRON

Scunthorpe United have extended the loan spell of Leeds United goalkeeper Rory Mahady until the end of the season.

The 19-year-old Scot initially joined the Iron in October and has made 14 appearances for the National League side.

Before that time period, the Scotsman had spent plenty of time at Elland Road developing his craft in the Premier League 2 after making the move from Celtic, working across both the U18 & the U21s during his time in Yorkshire.

Andy Butler's team are sixth in the table, 10 points clear of eighth-placed Southend as they bid to secure a play-off spot.

FOREST GREEN LOAN IN READING DEFENDER

Forest Green Rovers have signed right-back Ashqar Ahmed on loan from League One side Reading for the remainder of the season.

The 18-year-old Royals academy graduate has broken into their first team over the past 18 months, making 24 appearances including nine in the league this campaign.

He made his debut for Reading in August of 2024, making his league debut just a few months later and was rewarded for a strong spell last term with a new two-year contract with the club.

He joins The Green looking to gain valuable first team experience and help Robbie Savage's side push towards a return back to the football league.

SAVAGE TO STAY AT THE NEW LAWN

Robbie Savage says links to the vacant Blackburn job are "pure speculation" and that he "can't wait to see through" his project.

The 51-year-old former Wales international midfielder played 100 games for Blackburn from 2005 to 2008 before a move to Derby and was among the bookmakers' favourites to replace Valerien Ismael as boss at Ewood Park.

Savage spoke on Thursday morning: "It's purely speculation. I have loved my time here. I have got a great relationship with [the board], we are on a journey and a project and it's something that I can't wait to see through. There's nothing at all for the fans to worry about."
