Today we welcome Brackley to the Mangata Developments Stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

Well after a great performance at Southend United, we didn't really get going at Tamworth until it was too late and in truth I didn't know what to expect at home against league leaders York City on Tuesday, as they were 24 games unbeaten and unbeaten away from home all season.

I needn't have worried though as two very good teams went at it from the start and slugged it out. However, after going behind we equalised early in the second half, took the game to our visitors and went 3-1 up, and although we conceded a second very late on, I thought we were more than good value for our win and that would have done us a power of good.

I can on the injury front report we are very close to getting both Callum Reynolds and Erico Sousa back, and our midfield maestro Tom White is now ready to take his place on the bench. These players will add to Luke's options which is fantastic for the run in and our play off hopes.

On a sour note Ollie Kensdale is now out for the season, Coxey is out for a week after today and I'm told Luke Norris is still reporting pain in his foot, so we'll see how he improves over the next few weeks but we might need to re evaluate things if there's no improvement.

Apart from the above, the club is working well, the squad is quietly getting stronger by the week as our new players settle in and as our existing players start to view the finishing line. I do feel as the pitches quicken and improve that, as a pass and move side, we will be more than capable of dealing with the run in.... I say that as I know we have nous, ambition, work rate and the ability to go on a run and perhaps nick third spot which would be one hell of an achievement for a club our size.

Club Info

In regards to the South Stand Project and our associated facilities, we are now nearing a planning decision in March and I'm very hopeful of a successful outcome. My planning submission, presentations and meetings with HBC, EBTC, FF and AFC have I feel all gone well and so I'm hopeful of successful outcomes.

As in life, nothing is ever guaranteed especially when you are dealing with third parties and I understand at this stage that all outcomes are possible. That said, I actually began building our community football club back in 1999, so trying to build this type of legacy project is not as daunting to me as it could have been, but it is very time consuming and I know that you have no guarantees that it will be successful.

Just a quick update regarding our academy, our trials were hugely successful and we will be going (as previously reported) with a new education provider and although the contracts are not yet signed, I'm very hopeful of announcing our new partners in the match day programme for the National League Cup Final against West Ham United on March 17th (St Patrick's Day).

Please can everyone be advised that West Ham United's ticket allocation for the National League Cup Final has all gone to their season ticket holders as requested by their ticket office. At the time of me writing these notes, I'm also informed by our ticket office that the WHU away allocation at the South end has sold out.

As such can all our fans be reminded that the game is fully segregated and our tickets are strictly for our season ticket holders and our other fans already on our database. We will as part of our community programme be releasing more final tickets into our local schools 'free of charge' but all those school children must be accompanied by a paying adult who must purchase their ticket in advance.

After that only our local Boreham Wood supporters who come to the club in advance with proof of identity and their address can purchase tickets and no tickets will be available on the night. So don't delay, please get yourselves sorted out asap.

This Cup Final really does promise to be a great occasion for a club and community of our size and for the very first time ever we have actually sold out three hospitality areas and it is exciting to welcome a club of West Ham's stature who are taking the game seriously and are also treating it as a great occasion.

Anyway, back to what is a vital National League game, where we will meet a Brackley Town team for the fourth time this season. In those matches to date, we've won two and lost one and with them now having a new manager in Andy Whing, we know we can expect a very difficult game.

Lastly, whoever you support today let's hope for an open, attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care.

Danny

Good afternoon, firstly I would like to welcome Andy Whing, his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for today's Enterprise National League fixture.

This will be the fourth time we have faced Brackley Town this season, but the first time since Andy was announced.

Having only arrived mid-February you can already see the work and new style he wants to implement into the group and their performance on Tuesday evening away to the League leaders Rochdale will give them a lot of confidence for a big finish to the season.

For us we need to continue our current form we find ourselves in, the result on Tuesday night was obviously huge but I was desperate for the team to perform.

I was extremely frustrated after our result against Tamworth at the weekend, not only because we dropped three points but the way in which we delivered on a game plan.

We are on a journey as a club, currently navigating our way through a transitioning period where our style and concepts have changed immensely and as much as I hate the word "project" or "process" but it really is.

I watch in depth our matches back and look for trends and areas of where we have control and where we don't and I'm a strong believer that our processes will always come to the fore.

I constantly address the squad and talk about how our weeks work will reflect our outcome on a Saturday.

"You don't rise to the occasion, you fall to the level of your preparation"

I believe how intense we are through Monday to Friday will always stand us in a way better stead on a match day.

That process was evident on Tuesday Evening against York City, once again we went toe to toe with a side that were unbeaten in 24 matches yet in large periods our performance was very clean.

We were fluid in our approach, dynamic in the way in which we addressed their press and adapted to the way they rolled in and out of shapes.

These are traits I need from the players to not only understand their positions and where I want them in regards to certain reference points on the pitch but also be a teacher and identify where we have an overload, 1on1 situation and then have the confidence to coach their team mate through that scenario to aid the team to gain success.

We work tirelessly as a team on our game plans and put a lot of store on setting us up to have many ways to hurt a side and I'm slowly seeing the variation within the game which is pleasing.

But I have high standards and at times I'm very unforgiving when it doesn't go perfect and that's when I need to appreciate how far this dressing room has come and I need to take a step back and understand we are very much in a growth stage and we are going to fail but I've told the group "fail being positive" and then I will accept that as their Manager.

Today I want to see the levels I witnessed against Forest Green, Southend United and York City, the mentality to control a game and the application to deliver on a performance and collectively having everyone ALL IN.

We have put ourselves in a great position and have shown we can be a match for anyone on our day but we need consistency from now until the end of the season.

With the squad nearing full fitness it will only give us even more confidence coming into the business end and with competition returning in key positions it will help drives standards to ensure levels of performance stay high.

So once again I urge the fans to give us the energy and get right behind us to get another massive three points.

Be Loud, Be proud, B'WOOD

Enjoy the Game.

Luke

Manager: Andy WHING

Manager and former defender Andy Whing retired from playing in 2015 and moved into coaching, working with Oxford United's youth sides before becoming head coach of Kidderminster Harriers' under-23 team in 2017. He later joined Hereford and in 2020 became manager of Banbury United, leading them to the 2021/22 Southern League Premier Division Central title and promotion. Whing managed Solihull Moors, had a spell at Barrow in 2025, and recently became Brackley Town manager following the departure of Gavin Cowan.

ONES TO WATCH

Jonny MAXTED

Born: 26 October 1993

Position: Goalkeeper

Maxted joined the Saints ahead of last season following the retirement of Danny Lewis. The former Doncaster Rovers keeper built experience with Forest Green, Guiseley, Accrington and Exeter before two years under ex-Brackley boss Jon Brady at Northampton. Signed from Newport County, where he debuted in the EFL Cup against Premier League Brentford, Maxted proved a reliable presence, featuring in every game for Gavin Cowan's side last season as they won the National League North title.

Michael NOTTINGHAM

Born: 14 April 1989

Position: Defender

Michael Nottingham began his career in non-league football with Romulus, Castle Vale JKS and Redditch United before joining Gresley, where he won the Midland Football Alliance title in 2011–12 and earned Northern Premier League Team of the Year honours. He later helped Solihull Moors win National League North in 2015–16. After another promotion with Salford City, he moved to Blackpool in 2018. Nottingham later played for Crewe Alexandra, Accrington Stanley, Livingston before joining Brackley Town, and has represented Saint Kitts and Nevis internationally.

Gareth DEAN

Born: 25 January 1990

Position: Defender

The Saints' skipper and stalwart defender Gareth Dean, formerly of Nuneaton Town and Solihull Moors, has over 400 Brackley appearances. The number six at St James Park famously scored the added-time equaliser at Wembley in the 2018 FA Trophy final and has been a regular in the National League North Team of the Season prior to promotion to step one. Dean served as interim manager in 2022–23, leading Brackley to a play-off final, and later captained Gavin Cowan's side to last season's title triumph.

27 January 2026 // 19:00 // National League Cup

Boreham Wood booked their place in the National League Cup semi-finals with an entertaining 5–2 victory over Brackley Town at Meadow Park.

Luke Garrard's side started brightly and led inside four minutes when Matt Rush headed home from Charlie O'Connell's cross. Rush doubled the advantage soon after with a superb chest control and finish from the edge of the area as Wood dominated the opening half. Femi Ilesanmi added a third before the break after Abdul Abdulmalik's effort deflected into his path.

Brackley threatened early in the second half, but Wood struck again when Rush set up Charles Clayden to make it four. Connor Hall briefly reduced the deficit and Morgan Roberts later added another for the visitors, but Boreham Wood remained in control. Deep into stoppage time, Cameron Coxe capped an impressive display by curling a fine finish into the top corner to seal a convincing 5–2 win.

JIMMY ARMSON

England Semi-Pro midfielder Jimmy Armson grabbed a hat-trick in Brackley Town's 2016-17 FA Cup first round replay win over Gillingham. Initially with hometown Nuneaton, he helped win promotion in 2011-12 and joined Solihull Moors in August 2015. He helped win the Conference North title in 2015-16, then reunited with Kevin

Wilkin at Brackley in July 2016. Top scorer in 2016-17, he helped win the FA Trophy in 2018 and was leading marksman again in 2018-19. 3 March 2026 // 19:45 // National League

Boreham Wood produced arguably their performance of the season to end York City's long National League unbeaten run with a thrilling 3–2 victory at Meadow Park.

The visitors struck first when Ollie Pearce turned home Zak Johnson's cross for his 29th league goal, but Wood responded superbly, dominating the remainder of the half. Harrison Male kept York ahead with a string of excellent saves, denying Matt Rush, Femi Ilesanmi and others as the hosts piled on the pressure.

Wood's persistence paid off just three minutes after the restart when Lewis Richardson headed home from Zak Brunt's pinpoint cross. York's task became harder when Josh Stones was sent off, and Boreham Wood made their advantage count late on. Cameron Coxe reacted quickest to fire home through a crowded box before Charlie O'Connell headed in a third at the far post. Ollie Banks pulled one back to set up a tense finish, but Wood held firm to secure an outstanding win.

28 February 2026 // 15:00 // National League

A below-par performance cost Boreham Wood as they fell to a 3–2 defeat at Tamworth despite a late fightback.

After impressing in midweek at Southend United, Luke Garrard kept faith with the same side, and Wood started brightly, forcing early saves and half-chances. However, their momentum faded and Tamworth capitalised, Oli Lynch finishing from close range to give the hosts a deserved interval lead.

Wood hoped for a response after the break but fell further behind when Stefan Mols converted at the far post. Matt Rush's scrappy finish briefly reignited hope, only for Lynch to restore the two-goal cushion with a superb curling strike.

Rush's second, taken confidently after controlling a long pass, ensured a tense finale, and Wood pressed in stoppage time, but Tamworth held firm to secure victory while the visitors were left to rue an inconsistent display.

IRON REWARD BUTLER WITH NEW DEAL

Scunthorpe United have extended manager Andy Butler's contract until the end of the 2027–28 season, rewarding the 42-year-old for a strong start to his tenure at Glanford Park.

Butler guided the Iron to promotion from National League North in the 2024–25 campaign and currently has the side sitting sixth in the National League, despite a recent six-game winless run. Speaking after the announcement, Butler said he was "really pleased" to be rewarded and believes the deal provides valuable stability as the club plans for the future. Assistant manager John Schofield and goalkeeping coach Paul Musselwhite have also committed their futures, extending their contracts through to the summer of 2028.

YOUTUBER TARGETS PREMIER LEAGUE DREAM

Down in the National League South, YouTuber and entertainer Dajide Olatunji, known professionally as 'KSI' has purchased a minority stake in sixth-tier side Dagenham & Redbridge, declaring his ambition to one day take the club 'to the Premier League.'

The 32-year-old described the project as a "rollercoaster" but insisted the long-term goal is achievable with patience from supporters. The investment comes during a period of change at the club, with long-serving managing director Stephen Thompson set to step down at the end of March after 45 years of involvement. Dagenham & Redbridge, currently 13th in National League South, recently welcomed new ownership under Happy Fan Group Ltd, while former England striker Andy Carroll has also invested in the club.

HEED BOOST SURVIVAL BID WITH DUO

Gateshead have strengthened their squad with the signings of goalkeeper Adam Desbois and winger Zak Gilsenan as they battle to avoid relegation from the National League.

Desbois, 25, joins from National League South side Slough Town on a deal until the end of the season after making 33 appearances this campaign. Gilsenan, 22, arrives on loan from Grimsby Town for the remainder of the season. The winger recently impressed during a spell at Buxton, scoring three goals in nine National League North matches.
