Today we welcome Gateshead to the Mangata Developments Stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

Well as we enter the last six weeks of the season it's fair to say we're still sitting top 4 in the league on merit, we're now thankfully National League Cup winners (after our penalty shoot-out win) against West Ham United, and lest we forget we also got to the 3rd Round of the FA Cup earlier in the season, all of which means we've had a great season to date.

That said, I'm a tad greedy and genuinely want the ultimate dream of once again walking my town and family up Wembley Way, once again I want to see us playing on the sacred turf at the home of football and I want to feel the nerves, excitement and the pressure of experiencing a Play Off final once again.

I don't say those things lightly, or wish to add any pressure to Luke, the players or the club, as pressure at the top is often made if you choose to overplay your hand, but I'm simply feeling excitement for my staff, Luke and the dressing room, as I believe if we get things right off the park, we really are that good on it, and I now believe we have a huge chance of causing a massive play off upset.

When I look at our squad, they allow me to dream the impossible dream, as I see very humble staff, a humble manager and humble players, who have a chance to possibly celebrate with you the fans, as they navigate their way through a difficult end to the season but are perhaps giving themselves a winnable play off route?

Only by winning games between now and the end of April, can we genuinely look forward to walking up those gazillion Wembley Stadium steps with our club and town, but this group I know strive to lift the National League Play Off Trophy which would tell the world they are going to the EFL.

Off the field as always, it's been busy, busy, busy, but in truth it's not been the worst of weeks for me or for our community based football club. Why? because we've gone and won the National League Cup and I've finally got our long standing South Stand and associated facilities through planning, whilst seeing three very important players return from injury.

This afternoon Gateshead will arrive here fighting for their lives and after our relegation two seasons ago we know just how that feels and it can be suffocating. When you're down there at this stage of the season trust me that really is pressure, as the clubs in the bottom five or six know that draws are not sometimes enough in their position.

Gateshead will arrive here already knowing what they need to do especially after their 1-0 win at home to Wealdstone on Tuesday. They are at present top 8 in the form guide and unbeaten in 5. That said they will know our squad strength and know three big players have returned to the squad and that we're very strong today.

Everyone knows as a club that we've recruited well this season but in my opinion we've also bought very well for the future, which perhaps indicates that we've never been more focused or ambitious as a club and a town than we are at this very moment in time. So in truth having the likes of Tom White, Callum Reynolds and Erico Sousa back within the squad is huge for our play off push and is an early birthday present for Luke, Charlie, you the fan base and the whole club.

Can I now say to those of the 'Wood Army' who travelled up to Halifax last week, thank you so much for your efforts, but tell me how could we have dominated a game like that for so long, how could we play Halifax off the park like we did, yet return south without even a point?

On Tuesday our luck did turn as we scored a late equaliser to make the game 2-2 against West Ham in the National League Cup Final after being 2 down at the break. We went on to win the penalty shoot out 7-6 and again it shows how quickly fortunes can change in football.

These mad things of course do happen throughout football, but we also know we cannot afford any more silly slip ups if we want to catch Carlisle United and secure third place, whilst we also know we can only afford one or two further slip ups if we want to finish fourth or fifth - and remember that will secure home advantage in the play off quarter finals.

Whatever happens over the next six weeks we simply have to expect the unexpected, but in my heart of hearts I already know having won two league titles and three play offs here as Chairman in my 27 seasons, that this is by far and away the best structure, best squad and staff that we've ever had and the most talented group of players that I've ever seen here and I go back to the 60's.

So I'll not get ahead of myself just yet, but it's fair to say to our many doubters, you write this club, this manager and these boys off at your peril. Gateshead arrive here today knowing they are fighting for their lives and they are, as I've said, a top 8 team on current form. It's clear their togetherness and belief has returned under their new gaffer and with their new signings now settled in, every draw, win and every goal really does matter.

All of which means, we must apply ourselves properly this afternoon, if not we'll get done. So let's try to deal with ourselves, let's deal with solving our problems at both ends of the pitch and let's get ourselves on the front foot early and give this ever improving Gateshead outfit something to think about.

Finally whoever you support let's hope for an open, attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care.

Danny

Good afternoon, firstly I would like to welcome Rob Elliott, his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for today's Enterprise National League fixture.

Rob has done fantastic since taking over the reigns as Manager back in early January, guiding his side to only one loss in their last nine.

His return didn't start too great having lost their first five fixtures, but with good recruitment and a philosophy that is very evident they have now given themselves a great opportunity of keeping their National League status.

We know what personnel they have to their disposal and having watched them closely we will need to make sure we guard against their strengths and really isolate where we feel we can hurt them.

We played out a really positive 3-0 win on the road back in November, having lost Joe Newton early on and to still record a big win with a man less was very pleasing but now we will be facing a different beast and one we must appreciate and respect if we are to be victorious.

We have to continue the momentum we find ourselves on, our performance on Tuesday evening was in spells very detached from how we have been playing, and I felt we looked disjointed and loose in our play.

You can allude to the fact West Ham pressed us and didn't allow us to get our rhythm but having rewatched it, our decision making and lack of aggressive start positions allowed for them to get joy on the turnover.

The most pleasing aspect from the match was we found a way, we addressed where they were getting joy and how we needed to adjust our style to take back the ascendancy and get control back in the game.

Our variation in our build and create phases has what has really given us our success and on Tuesday we were far too one dimensional, we need to have many ways to attack a side and that was evident especially in the second half.

We managed to play through, round and over which was causing West Ham issues and being proactive in our approach to at times disappoint their press with playing quickly in to our most effective players high up the pitch.

We need to appreciate we have a front four that is extremely effective and finding solutions to get them the ball with quality is my conundrum and creating as many 1v1 duels in the opposition half is what I feel success looks like.

So when we are trying to build from deep and provoke a press the ultimate aim is to always work our way to the top of the pitch with as much quality as possible.

I was thankful for our creative players to pull that quality out on Tuesday Evening, with Abdul initially scoring a great goal after a nice passage of play leading up to his finish and for then Aaron Henry to level with a fortunate strike from a well worked short corner late on.

That lead to us going to penalties and for Ted to make a great save on the 7th pen for then ever-present Charlie O'Connell to win us the Trophy.

It was so important to record that win, the memories it creates, the momentum it builds and the belief it instils.

That result will aid us in our quest for the Play Offs in giving us a much needed taste to a "one off" tie and the confidence to come back from a 2 goal deficit.

We need to now really kick on with the remaining eight fixtures in the League campaign and build nicely into what can be a really exciting end to the Season.

Get right behind the boys and get this place rocking.

Be Loud, Be proud, B'WOOD

Enjoy the Game.

Luke

Manager: Rob ELLIOTT

Rob Elliot began his playing career at Charlton Athletic, becoming first-choice goalkeeper before a 2011 move to Newcastle United, where he later starred during the 2015–16 season. A Republic of Ireland international, he later joined Watford. Transitioning into coaching, he became Gateshead manager in 2023, winning the FA Trophy, and had a brief spell at Crawley Town before returning to the North East this year.

ONES TO WATCH

Adam DESBOIS

Born: 5 January 2001

Position: Goalkeeper

Shot stopper Adam Desbois joined the Heed at the beginning of the month on a deal until the end of the current campaign. The 25-year-old arrived after making 33 league appearances for Slough Town. Previously in the ranks of Cheshunt and Hampton & Richmond Borough, Desbois developed in the academies of Reading and Brighton & Hove Albion, bringing experience and ambition to Rob Elliott's squad.

Kenton RICHARDSON

Born: 26 June 1999

Position: Defender

Richardson progressed through Hartlepool United's academy, making his senior debut in 2017 before earning a professional contract. He later joined Sunderland, featuring mainly in cup competitions and gaining experience through loans at Notts County and Spennymoor Town. Released in 2022, he signed for Gateshead, where he became club captain in 2025. He has also represented England C internationally.

Harry CHAPMAN

Born: 5 November 1997

Position: Midfield

Chapman began his career at Middlesbrough, signing professionally in 2015 and excelling in the UEFA Youth League. Loan spells at Barnsley and Sheffield United brought early success, including silverware and a first career hat-trick. After further loans, he joined Blackburn Rovers permanently in 2019. Later moves included Bradford City and Barnet, where he won the National League title. He signed for Gateshead in 2025 and has represented England at youth level.

Brunt (5'p, 76'), Booty (90+4')

22 November 2026 // 15:00 // National League

Boreham Wood claimed a long awaited first victory at the Gateshead International Stadium with a resilient and impressive 3–0 win, despite playing over an hour with 10 men. Luke Garrard's side started brightly and took an early lead through Zak Brunt's composed penalty, asserting control and creating further chances to extend their advantage.

The game shifted when Joe Newton was sent off for denying a clear goalscoring opportunity, handing momentum to the hosts. However, Wood responded with determination, defending resolutely under sustained pressure while still posing a threat on the counter.

Their discipline and organisation proved decisive after the break. Brunt struck again with a clinical finish to double the lead, easing the pressure and denting Gateshead's belief. Deep into stoppage time, substitute Regan Booty capped a remarkable display with an audacious long-range chip, sealing an emphatic result.

It was a performance defined by character and efficiency, as Boreham Wood combined defensive resilience with clinical finishing to secure a big away victory.

GATESHEAD

Football historian LEIGH EDWARDS profiles ten post-war Gateshead goalscoring favourites

JIM PEARSON

Former Scotland U-21 striker Jim Pearson was top scorer when Gateshead won the Northern Premier League title in 1982-83. He was a prolific goalscorer with St Johnstone before joining Everton for £100,000 in May 1974. Playing in the 1977 League Cup final, he moved to Newcastle United in August 1978 but injury curtailed his League career. He moved via Barrow to Gateshead in November 1981, then was North Shields' player-boss before rejoining Gateshead in July 1984. Later at Workington, he was coach/manager of Whitley Bay, notably Blyth Spartans, North Shields and Gateshead. He worked in insurance, then for Nike, based in Washington.

BOB TOPPING

Striker Bob Topping was Gateshead's leading marksman on five occasions. Born in South Shields, he was at Hartlepool before joining Gateshead in October 1977 and played against Lincoln City in the 1980-81 FA Cup first round. He overcame a knee injury that sidelined him for much of the 1981-82 campaign and formed a lethal partnership with Jim Pearson as Gateshead won the Northern Premier League title in 1982-83. Netting seven hat-tricks, he scored a then club record 129 goals overall and had a joint testimonial match with Terry Hibbitt against Newcastle United in August 1984. Returning from a brief spell at Workington, he joined Blue Star.

KEITH McNALL

Striker Keith McNall was top scorer as Gateshead won the Northern Premier League title in 1985-86. He played for Crook Town and Bishop Auckland prior to joining Gateshead in August 1984. Also leading marksman in 1986-87 and 1987-88, he repeated the feat in 1989-90 when Gateshead won promotion back to the Conference after three years' absence. He joined Blyth Spartans in February 1991, then Eppleton CW and Dunston Federation Brewery. After 31 years working in financial services for Northern Rock, he was a postman, settling in Low Fell, Gateshead. His son Lewis joined Gateshead on loan from Newcastle United in January 2018.

PAUL DOBSON

Striker Paul Dobson was Gateshead's top scorer in 1993-94 and 1994-95. Starting with Newcastle United, he joined Hartlepool in November 1981 and moved to Torquay United in July 1986. He was leading marksman in 1986-87, scoring the dramatic goal that preserved Football League status. Starring as they reached the Fourth Division play-off final in 1987-88, he joined Doncaster Rovers in an exchange deal involving Sean Joyce and Paul Holmes in August 1988. Later with Scarborough, Lincoln City and Darlington, he joined Gateshead in February 1993. He moved to Bishop Auckland in November 1995, then Chester-le-Street and Spennymoor.

PAUL THOMPSON

Striker Paul Thompson had four spells at Gateshead. Initially with Redheugh Boys, he joined Hartlepool in November 1991 and gained Football League experience. 'Thommo' joined Gateshead in July 1995 and was top scorer in 1996-97, joining Stevenage in July 1997. Loaned back to Gateshead in March 1999, he returned that summer and was top scorer again in 2003-04. He joined Bishop Auckland in August 2004, then Blyth Spartans and Whitley Bay prior to rejoining Gateshead again in February 2005. Scoring a club record 130 goals in 427 games overall, he had a testimonial match in August 2007 and remained on their coaching staff until May 2010.

DAVID SOUTHERN

Striker David Southern was Gateshead's top scorer and 'Player of the Year' in two consecutive seasons. Born in Gateshead, he played for Birtley Town and Crook Town before initially joining Gateshead on loan in October 2002. He was a prolific goalscorer for Dunstan Federation Brewery and Newcastle Blue Star prior to rejoining Gateshead in July 2006. Starring alongside Graeme Armstrong as they won promotion to the Conference North in 2007-08, he netted 58 goals in 140 games before returning to Newcastle Blue Star in January 2009, then played for Morpeth, Bedlington Terriers and Whitby. Still living locally, he has since scouted for Gateshead.

LEE NOVAK

Striker Lee Novak was top scorer and 'Player of the Year' when Gateshead won promotion to the Conference National in 2008-09. Initially with Wallsend Boys Club, he had spells at Grætna and Newcastle Blue Star prior to joining Gateshead in July 2008. He joined Huddersfield Town for £150,000 in January 2009 but was loaned back to Gateshead for the rest of that season, netting 26 goals in 32 games overall. Helping Huddersfield reach the League One play-off final in two consecutive seasons including their 2012 triumph. He followed Lee Clark to Birmingham in May 2013, then played for Chesterfield, Charlton Athletic, Scunthorpe and Bradford City.

JON SHAW

England Semi-Pro striker Jon Shaw was Gateshead's leading marksman in 2010-11 and 2011-12. Starting at Sheffield Wednesday, he joined Burton Albion in November 2004 and was twice top scorer, helping take Manchester United to an FA Cup replay in 2005-06. He then had spells at Halifax, Rochdale and Mansfield. Joining Gateshead in May 2010, he starred as they were FA Trophy semi-finalists in 2010-11. He moved to Luton in June 2012 and helped regain Football League status in 2013-14. Rejoining Gateshead in June 2014, he netted 56 goals in 146 games overall, then played for South Shields, Dunston UTS, Blyth and Ashington.

DANNY JOHNSON

Striker Danny Johnson was Gateshead's top scorer in 2016-17 and 2017-18. He had spells with Middlesbrough, Hartlepool, Harrogate Town and Billingham Synthonia prior to joining Guisborough in March 2013. Top scorer in the Northern League with 59 goals in 2013-14, he moved to Cardiff City in August 2014 and gained Football League experience on loan to Tranmere Rovers and Stevenage. He reunited with Malcolm Crosby at Gateshead in July 2015 and starred as they were FA Trophy semi-finalists in 2017-18, netting 53 goals in 127 games. Moving to Motherwell in June 2018, he has since played for Dundee, Leyton Orient, Mansfield and Walsall.

MACAULAY LANGSTAFF

Striker Macaulay Langstaff was leading marksman and 'Player of the Year' as Gateshead won the Conference North title in 2021-22. He played for hometown Stockton and Billingham Synthonia before initially joining Gateshead in February 2017. Loaned to Blyth Spartans, he moved to York City in July 2018 but rejoined Gateshead in August 2020. He partnered Cedwyn Scott in attack, netting 36 goals in 67 games overall for the Heed before being sold to Notts County for £50,000 in June 2022. Scoring a club record 42 goals as they regained Football League status via the Conference play-offs in 2022-23, he joined Millwall in July 2024.

17 March 2026 // 19:00 // National League Cup

Boreham Wood made history at Mangata Developments Stadium Meadow Park, becoming the first National League side to lift the National League Cup after a dramatic penalty shootout victory over West Ham United U21.

Trailing 2–0 at the break despite an encouraging first-half display, Wood responded with resilience and intensity after the restart. Driven by an outstanding performance from Abdul Abdulmalik, they seized control of the second half, creating chance after chance while limiting the visitors' threat. Abdulmalik's well-taken goal ignited the comeback, and as pressure mounted late on, Aaron Henry's stoppage-time strike - slipping through the grasp of Finley Herrick - sparked wild celebrations and forced penalties.

The shootout matched the drama of the contest, with both sides converting confidently until Ted Curd produced a crucial save to deny West Ham's seventh attempt. Charlie O'Connell then calmly converted the winner, sealing a remarkable comeback and a historic triumph for Luke Garrard's side.

14 March 2026 // 15:00 // National League

Boreham Wood suffered a frustrating 3–2 defeat away at Halifax Town despite long spells of control in Yorkshire.

Wood started brightly and almost took the lead when Lewis Richardson forced Sam Johnson into an early save, but Halifax struck first as Josh Hmami headed home from Jay Turner-Cooke's free-kick.

The visitors responded quickly, Chris Bush's superb long pass releasing Richardson, who teed up Zak Brunt to finish confidently. After Matt Rush and Abdul Abdulmalik went close, Halifax regained the lead before the break when Will Smith capitalised on a defensive lapse.

Wood hit back again early in the second half, Abdulmalik's driving run setting up Richardson to tap in from close range. Rush later saw a goal ruled out for offside, and Callum Reynolds nearly marked his return from injury with a winner, but Owen Bray's late breakaway sealed the points for Halifax.

EMBARGO LIFT GIVES MORECAMBE HOPE

Morecambe have received a major boost after the National League lifted a transfer embargo that had threatened their fight for survival.

The restriction, imposed over a disputed payment linked to former owners Bond Group Investments, had limited the club's ability to strengthen. Club officials confirmed the issue was resolved following detailed discussions and evidence submitted to the league.

The decision allows Morecambe to fully focus on the closing stages of the 2025-26 campaign. Now under Panjab Warriors ownership, the Shrimps face a tense battle, sitting three points from safety with eight crucial matches remaining to avoid a third consecutive relegation.

AN UNAUTHORISED APPEARANCE

Wealdstone midfielder Sak Hassan is unlikely to feature again this season after playing in the Beller League without the club's permission.

The 24-year-old represented Prime FC on Monday, scoring in a 7-3 victory. Hassan, who joined from Hashtag United last summer, has made 25 appearances this campaign but recently fell out of favour, featuring just 21 minutes under new manager Gary Waddock.

He was also left out of the last two matchday squads. The Somalia international, previously part of academies at Leyton Orient, QPR and Tottenham, had earlier competed in the Beller League for John Terry's 26ers.

MOORS RECALL FRONTMAN

Solihull Moors have brought striker Callum McFarlane back from his loan spell at Oxford City ahead of the season's run-in.

The 22-year-old, a former Fulham youth product, had recently extended his stay with the National League North side until the end of the campaign. However, the Moors have opted to recall him after eight appearances and one goal, which came in his final outing during a 3-1 win over Southport.

McFarlane joined Solihull at the start of the season and previously spent time on loan at Hereford, where he featured seven times in late 2025.
