Tonight we welcome our good friends from York City to the Mangata Developments Stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

In truth as we enter the business end of the season, we ended up having an incredible 2025 and who knows what 2026 might bring us? The permutations at this stage of the season are of course endless with us sitting in fourth place in the league and having reached the final of the National League Cup.

For me York City have the strongest squad within the National League and I genuinely fancy them to pip Rochdale to the title after finishing second last season with 96 points. For us, we accept we are an underdog club and as such we know what to expect from games like this evenings and know when you play the bigger ex Football League clubs you must match their work rate and their desire, as they will arrive here with a swagger, with a confidence, with a large fanbase but underneath it all, they will still be trying to deal with the pressure and the huge fan expectation.

Pressure can at times suffocate some of the bigger clubs as Southend United and perhaps Carlisle United are now finding out. York City though it appears are handling things very well up to now under Stuart Maynard and they also have a very loyal but expectant support base to satisfy and at the moment they are dealing with things beautifully.

When you're an ex Football League club like York City, Carlisle United, Scunthorpe United, Rochdale and Southend United, there is of course a historical expectation that demands EFL football and who can argue when you see their support levels. That's why the 3 UP Campaign needs to succeed some time soon, as some of the clubs in our league are simply too big for this level and they deserve (as we all do), promotion and relegation parity that clubs in the EFL enjoy.

For a small club like ourselves to have been top of the pile as we entered the New Year, was perhaps beyond everyone's expectation. In truth since then our form has been patchy but we've done enough to hang in there and as I write these notes, we still sit in the top 4, which means as we enter March that we are up there on merit.

There's no doubt Luke and the dressing room are still targeting third, but I know we will experience weeks where we will take one step forward and two steps back until the season's end. That said, for a club our size just to be in the play off mix, shows how well we are run, how good recruitment has been and what a job Luke Garrard, his staff and the dressing room are doing.

This evening I must belatedly thank York City for allowing us to take Jeff King on his initial loan. I think the loan was hugely beneficial to all parties and I hope Jeff returned to York better for his experience with us. In truth we did everything we could to keep him and I discussed with the York hierarchy the possibility of taking him on a permanent deal. However it was made very clear that No meant No and as everyone can see Kingy is now very much in Stuart Maynard's plans.

On the injury front we still have Callum Reynolds, Erico Souza, Ollie Kensdale, Luke Norris and Tom White out but now only for the short term which means we are slightly light in one or two positions but nothing that we cannot deal with and hopefully we can expect another signing soon.

In truth, in Tom White's absence we went out and signed Regan Booty and Marley Miranda-Marshall on permanent deals and in Erico's absence we have signed Leon Ayinde on loan from Ipswich Town.

So we feel we still have a very strong and versatile squad to pick from this evening.

In fact we will have the same squad who overcome a very good Southend United team away from home last Tuesday and the same squad that lost on a pathetic and slow Astro pitch at Tamworth on Saturday So we must wipe our mouths after Saturdays set back and re-focus on tonight's game.

We must still look up, target third and believe in all possibilities. We have to believe in each other, we must stick together and if we can put our best foot forward this evening, we can enjoy each moment and accept the challenges that will lie ahead with no real pressure on us.

After the pressure of relegation two seasons ago, the pressure of promotion last season, I must say I feel no pressure this season, just expectation and excitement. That might be because of the support I receive from my family, friends, sponsors, partners and you the fans and it genuinely makes the impossible dream of the EFL somehow seem possible.

Of course to dream that impossible dream, then we must remain humble, we must remain hard working and we must bite our lip when the noise starts. After the disappointment of the Tamworth result, we must re-focus ourselves on our togetherness and ensure we deliver a better performance tonight, and that's not rocket science.

Tonight though, is all about two very good football teams going toe to toe and nobody perhaps predicted back in August that this game would be a 1st v 4th match up and so we embrace it in the knowledge we will do our best to cause an upset. With York's firepower, I would expect a very open game, much like the away game where we drew 2-2, and though York City scored late in both halves (which hurt us hugely at the time), on reflection it was probably a fair result but most definitely a great game for the neutral.

Anyway, let's hope for an open, attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care.

Danny

Good evening, firstly I would like to welcome Stuart Maynard, his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for tonight's Enterprise National League fixture.

We welcome current league leaders to us and having watched them over their last few games, if they are to be crowned champions, I have to admit they would of deserved it on reflection of their superb season to date.

They have recorded over 90 goals and currently find themselves on a run of 24 unbeaten. That is an incredible return, and I have full respect to their Management and Players.

We played out a fantastic 2-2 draw up at their place back in late October and we were worthy of that point having showed some real quality in and out of possession.

Tonight, we will need to mirror large parts of that performance if we are to register anything from the match as they have players in their squad that can turn a game on its head in an instance.

Especially someone we are all aware of and that's "Kinky", Jeff was pivotal in our success this season and showed a level of performance on and off the field.

His ability on the grass was evident for everyone to see and the relationships he cultivated down that right channel at times was a pleasure to watch.

His main influence was how he galvanised a group day to day and his commitment to his profession was infectious, I wish nothing but success for Jeff just not for the next 90 minutes.

We have had an in different 7 days, heading to play-off Rivals Southend United last Tuesday and recording what was a near perfect performance to take all three points, to then perform in the manner in which we did on Saturday.

I take nothing away from our hosts, they stifled, frustrated and limited us but I told the group in depth about them.

My exact words were "They are parasites, they feed off our shit".

And then we go and start the game in the manner in which we did, it plays out exactly as I described to the players.

It frustrates me like you can't believe, we perform unbelievably the game before yet we're a complete contrast to that side a game later.

If we are to really have a say in this year's play-offs we need to start finding a level of consistency as I won't know what side is going to turn up any given week.

We have an agenda to finish as up high up as possible and tonight we are facing the cream of the crop, so there is no hiding place, we need to show the best version of ourselves so we can record another important win which will aid us in our quest for a top 3 finish.

We know what we must do in the coming weeks and appreciate the work ethic it is going to take but I'm now challenging this squad to fix up and fix up quick.

Opportunities like this don't often present themselves and I'm someone who will grab it with both hands and do everything in my power to achieve the unthinkable and I'm now demanding the same from everyone in that group.

Let's get right behind the boys, bring the noise and I'll ensure the players mirror "our" energy.

Be Loud, Be proud, B'WOOD

Enjoy the Game.

Luke

21 October 2025 // 19:45 // National League

York City twice came from behind to hold the Wood to a 2-2 draw at the LNER Community Stadium, denying the visitors a chance to climb to the top of the table on a dramatic afternoon.

Matt Rush struck early for Luke Garrard's side, pouncing on the rebound inside two minutes after a brilliant Abdulmalik dribble and a well-saved initial effort that unsettled the home defence. York gradually grew into the contest and were rewarded on the stroke of half-time when Alex Newby finished smartly to restore parity.

Rush restored the Wood lead after the break with a finish at the far post, completing his brace and putting the visitors in control. Yet the Minstermen refused to relent, pressing late. Their persistence paid off when Ryan Fallowfield rose highest to head home an 89th-minute equaliser, ensuring the hosts claimed a point and halting the Wood's push for top spot hopes.

ALF PATRICK

Centre-forward Alf Patrick was York City's leading marksman in the first four post-war League seasons. Born locally, he turned professional at Bootham Crescent in September 1946 and scored on his League debut in York's 3-2 win at home to Stockport two months later. He netted a club record five goals against Rotherham in November 1948 and a total of six hat-tricks, scoring 109 times in 228 League games before joining Scarborough in June 1953. Later assisting with York's third team in the Yorkshire League, he was a precision machine-tool miller for Cooke, Troughton & Sims. He died aged 100 in November 2021.

BILLY FENTON

Flying winger Billy Fenton was a key figure as York City took eventual winners Newcastle United to an FA Cup semi-final replay in 1954-55. He played for Barnsley and Horden CW before joining Blackburn Rovers in December 1948 and joined York in May 1951. Scoring a club record 31 League goals in 1951-52, he netted vital goals in the FA Cup wins over top-flight Blackpool and Spurs in 1954-55. He scored 118 times in 257 League outings for York prior to joining Scarborough in July 1958 and worked locally as a draughtsman until his death in April 1973. York's 'Clubman of the Season' award is named in his memory.

ARTHUR BOTTOM

Inside-right Arthur Bottom equalled York City's record 31 League goals in 1954-55 and 1955-56. He turned professional with Sheffield United in April 1947 and helped win the Second Division title in 1952-53, moving to Bootham Crescent in June 1954. Grabbing a hat-trick on his York debut in a 6-2 victory at Wrexham, he scored as they took Newcastle United to an FA Cup semi-final replay in 1954-55 and netted 92 goals in 137 League games before joining Newcastle in February 1958. He later played for Chesterfield, Boston United and Alfreton Town, then had various labouring jobs in Sheffield and died in April 2012.

NORMAN WILKINSON

Centre-forward Norman Wilkinson holds York City's all-time goalscoring record. Initially with Crook Town, he had a spell with Hull City before moving to Bootham Crescent in July 1954. He scored twice on his debut in York's 6-2 win at Wrexham and starred as they beat top-flight Blackpool and Spurs before taking Newcastle United to an FA Cup semi-final replay in 1954-55. Featuring in York's 1958-59 and 1964-65 promotion campaigns, he netted 127 goals in 354 League games prior to joining Annfield Plain in June 1966. He ran a boot and shoe repair business, also scouting for York, and died in January 2011.

PAUL AIMSON

Striker Paul Aimson was leading marksman in York City's 1964-65 promotion success. Initially with Manchester City, he joined York in July 1964 and was also top scorer in 1965-66 despite joining Bury in March 1966. He had spells with Bradford City and Huddersfield Town before returning to York in August 1969. Leading scorer twice more, including their 1970-71 promotion campaign, he netted 98 goals in 219 League games overall before reuniting with Phil Boyer at Bournemouth in March 1973. He later played for Colchester United, then became a physical recreation officer and died in Christchurch in January 2008.

Striker Ted MacDougall gained seven Scotland caps after leaving York City. Previously a Liverpool reserve, he joined York in July 1967 and was twice top scorer. He netted 34 times in 84 League games, moving to Bournemouth in July 1969 and starring in their 1970-71 promotion success. Scoring nine goals against Margate in the 1971-72 FA Cup first round, he joined Manchester United for a record £220,000 in September 1972, then played for West Ham, Norwich City and Southampton, partnering Phil Boyer for the fourth time. He had spells with Bournemouth again and Blackpool before coaching in the United States.

PHIL BOYER

Striker Phil Boyer was ever-present for York City in 1968-69. A former Derby County reserve, he moved to Bootham Crescent in July 1968 and featured in York's 1970-71 promotion campaign. Helping the Canaries to win promotion and reach the League Cup final in 1974-75, the England international later played for Southampton, Manchester City, Bulova and Grantham. He then scouted for Graham Carr at various clubs and worked for Securicor in Nottingham.

KEITH WALWYN

Starring in their 1983-84 Fourth Division title triumph, he helped them take Liverpool to an FA Cup fifth round replay in two consecutive seasons and netted 117 goals in 245 League games while at Bootham Crescent prior to joining Blackpool in July 1987. He featured in their 1987-88 FA Cup run and moved to Carlisle United in July 1989. Later with Kettering Town until heart problems ended his career, he ran a sports shop in Kirkham until his death in April 2003.

The Republic of Ireland international starred as they were League Cup finalists in 1985-86, then moved via Le Havre to Brighton in September 1990. 28 February 2026 // 15:00 // National League

A below-par performance cost Boreham Wood as they fell to a 3–2 defeat at Tamworth despite a late fightback.

After impressing in midweek at Southend United, Luke Garrard kept faith with the same side, and Wood started brightly, forcing early saves and half-chances. However, their momentum faded and Tamworth capitalised, Oli Lynch finishing from close range to give the hosts a deserved interval lead.

Wood hoped for a response after the break but fell further behind when Stefan Mols converted at the far post. Matt Rush's scrappy finish briefly reignited hope, only for Lynch to restore the two-goal cushion with a superb curling strike.

Rush's second, taken confidently after controlling a long pass, ensured a tense finale, and Wood pressed in stoppage time, but Tamworth held firm to secure victory while the visitors were left to rue an inconsistent display.

Abdulmalik (11), Rush (75)

24 February 2026 // 19:45 // National League

Boreham Wood delivered an assured, disciplined display at Roots Hall to claim a valuable 2–0 win over fellow promotion chasers Southend United.

Having kept the same side that drew with Forest Green Rovers, Luke Garrard saw his team weather an energetic start from the hosts before striking with a slick, incisive move. Charlie O'Connell's precise pass allowed Abdul Abdulmalik to control and finish confidently, putting Wood in charge.

From there, the visitors managed the contest impressively, limiting Southend's threat while creating the clearer chances themselves. Early second-half opportunities hinted at a decisive second, and it arrived when Matt Rush converted first time from Abdulmalik's inviting cross, effectively ending the contest.

Southend pushed late on but rarely troubled Wood's organised defence, and the visitors saw out the closing stages comfortably to secure a composed, professional victory with significant play-off implications.

LATEST ENTERPRISE NATIONAL LEAGUE NEWS

WOKING AXE ARDLEY AFTER SLIDE

Woking have sacked manager Neal Ardley after six defeats in nine National League matches dragged the club to 17th, five points above danger.

Ardley, appointed in December 2024, had steadied results last season and overseen a strong start to this campaign, but only two league wins since mid-December halted progress.

His final match was a 1-0 FA Trophy quarter-final loss to Marine, following a narrow victory at Truro City. Chairman Todd Johnson said results failed to match ambitions, with an interim staff now overseeing first-team duties.

WADDOCK ROLLING WITH THE STONES

Wealdstone have appointed Gary Waddock as manager on a two-and-a-half-year deal, replacing Sam Cox after his dismissal this week.

The 63-year-old former Queens Park Rangers, Millwall and Luton Town player returns to frontline management after two-and-a-half years as assistant at Walsall. Waddock previously guided Aldershot Town into the Football League in 2008 and won League One promotion with Wycombe Wanderers in 2011, earning a reputation for disciplined, organised sides.

Chairman Rory Fitzgerald said the club sought experience and leadership to maximise their squad's potential. The National League club believe Waddock's track record, knowledge and hunger to return to the dugout can help drive improved results.

TORQUAY TURN TO WARNOCK AGAIN

Down in the National League South, Torquay United have placed Neil Warnock in temporary charge after sacking Paul Wotton following a 5-0 home defeat to Chelmsford City.

The loss capped a five-match winless run that saw the National League South side slip from first to fourth, 10 points behind leaders Dorking Wanderers. Wotton, appointed in 2024 after leaving Truro City, had guided the club close to promotion last season.

Veteran boss Warnock, formerly of Aberdeen and Plymouth Argyle, will oversee Tuesday's game with Farnborough while the club considers longer-term plans. Officials thanked Wotton's commitment but said results forced change as Torquay attempt to revive their push.
