Today we welcome our good friends from Wealdstone to the Mangata Developments Stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable stay with us and a safe journey home.

At present both our clubs still have much to play for this season, with Wealdstone having got themselves to the final of the FA Trophy by beating Marine last Saturday with a late winner. They've earned the right to enjoy that amazing walk up Wembley Way, and for me just to play on the hallowed turf that is Wembley and be within that iconic Stadium with your community is simply jous and I am incredibly jealous.

That said I wish Rory, the club, team and supporters an amazing day and nothing but success. For us it's more about the bread and butter of the National league and achieving as high a league position as possible. It's also worth mentioning that we've already secured a record number of points and scored more goals this season than in any other season in our 78 year history.

As such while it's possible, we'll still strive to finish as high as third but it's more likely we will finish fourth or fifth. Third is obviously the aim as it would give us the very best chance within the play-off system by guaranteeing us home advantage in a one-off game to get ourselves to Wembley.

It's been two years since Wealdstone last came here with both clubs battling relegation. We won the battle that day by beating them comprehensively, but ultimately, we lost the war that season as they survived and we were relegated.

With that in mind I thought I'd try and give you an Easter monologue that's not quite the resurrection but pretty damn close. Here's an honest three year insight into how a small community club recovered from a play-off defeat, a subsequent relegation and how we've fought tooth and nail since to get ourselves back to where we sit today.

Just two years ago we lost to Ebbsfleet here on the final day of that season. We all knew we hadn't done enough, we were on the floor, and we were down but not quite out. The tears of course flowed as our bubble had well and truly burst, the recriminations certainly began but from that day until now we have tried everything in our power to find a way to bounce back.

So much needed to change here both on and off the field of play for the betterment of our football club. So for the last two seasons from top to bottom we've worked hard at identifying our failures, on how we could evolve, on re-cementing relationships and worked harder on our strengths, long standing friendships and partnerships.

Simple changes maybe, but they've brought about a renewed togetherness, focus and a realistic ambition back to our football club that we'd perhaps lost. In truth when I'm now in the company of my manager, staff, partners, sponsors, players and our ever growing supporter groups, I don't think I've ever felt more comfortable.

Perhaps its just me getting older but my mindset is now about creating a more positive narrative and a better working environment. I think we all work so hard which will help us create more magic moments and memories, and next season we will get closer to completing our Stadium and facility builds.

For two years I've tried to create an environment that was less about the me me me, can I have, I want, I need brigade (which is not easy in football circles) and more about re-creating 'old school' values, based on mutual respect with a more patient approach.

Looking back, after that damaging, painful and gut wrenching play off loss three seasons ago, I knew the clubs academy and football structure would need addressing, but also knew the club we needed more investment for our South Stand build. If you stand still you go backwards, so I needed to get on with completing the stadium and facility builds to EFL standards.

To find a way to move our club forward meant I needed to stay and not take any investment away from our dressing room. While still investing in our facility to move ourselves forward. I believed then and believe now, we need to build the South end of the ground while improving our squad and if we do that, then one day we will fulfil our EFL dream.

To be given the time to do that, is testament to my family, my staff, my long standing sponsors, partners at HBC, EBTC, Football Foundation, Premier League and Arsenal Football Club. We all know I'm not getting any younger but I want a facility here that can house the magic moments and memories we create, like the ones we recently shared when beating Crawley Town and Newport County in this seasons FA Cup and when winning the National League Cup here against West Ham United's under 21's.

Our recent success brought a togetherness to my staff, our gaffer, dressing room and to you our loyal supporters. I believe our recent success and progress on and off the park, can be traced to a culture change from my loyal staff who've created an environment and structure that has continually improved us over these past two years.

Our small family type club is not for everyone, but it does help sign some seriously good players and it has helped me build this club, whilst allowing some very good young players to flourish and develop. Trust me that isn't down to luck, it comes from smart investment, great recruitment, leadership, attitude, discipline, desire, experience, care, patience and good decision making.

All of which allows the positive people wrapped around me to quietly progress our football club even when dealing with set backs. It must be remembered that as recent as May 2023 we endured what was a very damaging last minute play off defeat up at Notts County after leading 2-0 at half time.

After many years of over achievement, we were again play off losers only this time the pain was felt by everyone and with me sat marrow deep. On our very quiet journey home I felt both myself and Luke Garrard were possibly at our lowest ebb. We were drained, fatigued, burnt out or whatever you wish to call it, and in truth we didn't get over that loss as quickly as we should and went into the 2023/24 season exhausted.

For me non league had changed and my loathing for disruptive agents, for cheating clubs who prospered while not paying their debts, tax bills, vat and players or paying in cash while not putting in audited accounts, breaking every league rule had perhaps affected me far more than I imagined.

As did the decision by the National League to give away what I considered to be our most valuable asset namely our live Broadcasting rights for an absolute pittance. Our Board in their wisdom simply signed off on a contract in a panic after losing the TNT contract. I felt they had signed up with a streaming production company who would be sub standard for our level of the game and would give poor production value and I have been proved right....

A streaming company in my opinion who would care nothing for non league, would give no true production value nor give the member clubs and National League a wider audience to grow our game. In my opinion the Board took a huge risk as these streamers did not have a bigger broadcasters track record to showcase our strengths and sometimes you have to say NO to a deal while you look at your options calmly.

I would go as far as to say that DAZN have no real understanding of non league football or our supporters travel habits, wants and needs. I felt then and still do that the National League Board sold our soul to the devil for absolutely no money and with no thought for what the supporters or member clubs needed.

For transparency that broadcast deal was done behind the backs of all club owners who were not on the National League Board and without ever discussing the deal with some very business savvy and knowledgeable club owners, as they didn't want us scuppering their agreement.

Anyway I digress haha, let's get back to our Easter monologue.... The Notts County Play Off loss and subsequent relegation had seriously affected my confidence and belief in what I was doing. Even now I remember very emotionally deliberating retirement with my partner, but still felt I owed my family, staff, my town, our supporters and this amazing community football club, a bit more than giving them an emotional losers farewell and showing the non league football world my personal weakness.

So I took myself off for a few weeks and after returning for another heart to heart with my partner, decided I would try again only this time I would spend my money where I felt it would best serve our football club. Firstly though we needed to give you promotion back to the National League and secondly we needed to get on with building the South Stand and complete my dream of giving our supporters and town a four stand Stadium that would be EFL compliant and we're very nearly there!!!

There was though one huge problem as I was still completely exhausted, I was still doubting myself and I honestly doubted if I had the energy and drive anymore to lead our fantastic football club and staff back from the National South into the National League.

That hurtful play off defeat and painful relegation had made me blame myself like you wouldn't believe, and in truth I just didn't recognise the game anymore. I'd stopped enjoying the buzz of being an underdog club and bloodying the nose of the bigger clubs, and I'm no good to anyone if I don't believe in myself or believe in what I'm doing.

This club though has been in my families blood for 70 years and I knew it was still the love of my life, so I wiped my mouth and after another heart to heart this time with family members it was almost all systems go. Luke though was also drained after that play off defeat and

I knew he would have to break up that team as he needed legs, needed good young players who could run, and players who would for a few years at least would be more loyal and supportive to him and this football club.

Luke knew the risks of letting good club players like Mark Ricketts and Josh Rees go, and we both knew early on that our attempts to sign one or two very good players like Zac Brunt and George Broadbent had hit the buffers. Over that spring and summer we didn't adapt quickly enough and perhaps our relationship had become strained. We've since quietly addressed all of those things, including our failings, our strengths, our weaknesses and in truth both myself and Luke have acknowledged that we did not quite do enough in that off season.

We had not been active enough by our high standards and both know if you don't do the hard yards in May, June and July in modern day football you'll play catch up and get found out and boy did we get found out. When looking back I genuinely think that Luke and myself were working as hard as ever but we were just exhausted and had somehow lost our mentor/father figure/young manager mojo?

Perhaps we were in denial but I know we both felt with our experience and past relationship and success, that we would find a way to keep us up and then deal with any fall out at the seasons end. As history showed we got it hopelessly wrong and I know we both felt we had let you all down.

When looking back I also let one or two well meaning voices within my inner circle have too much of a voice which is very unlike me. As my mother would often tell me “youth is wasted on the young” but that applies equally to “the old” haha....

Of course as an owner you must always accept total blame, but football lessons were most certainly learnt by me and my young maverick manager that season. And I genuinely believe that both myself and Luke now use the hurt and pain that we both felt back then, to now really enjoy each other and any success or magic moments that come our way and we both cherish the memories we're creating with our family, staff and our dressing room once again.

Hurt and pain if you are big enough to accept them, can liberate you and allow you to create new horizons and new ambitions. They allow you to create a new vision with realistic expectations. I've tried to learn heavily not only from my recent mistakes but from past mistakes and trust me there have been so many lessons learned over my 27 years here.

My dark days and sleepless nights after our play off defeat and relegation do now seem a million miles away and as I often say “god loves a trier”. That experience though taught me that if complacency ever sets in again, those dark days and sleepless nights would return in an instant.

Only through past mistakes have I learnt that in every dressing room up and down the country, there are always issues to solve and dramas to overcome, but I now try to deal with ours a bit more intelligently and know we have to if we ever want to get to the EFL.

To get to the EFL this season we will need our entire squad on board, but we'll also need lady luck on our side regarding injuries and suspensions. When you have a squad of our size and you enter the run in, you will always need a balanced squad, but you also need to understand a squads frustration if they are not playing regularly or getting the game time they feel their talent deserves.

Having said that our players also need to be brutally honest with themselves, because if their performances don't warrant a starting place or if they're in denial about their performances and what they need to do to start within the framework Luke creates, it can and will cause them a problem.

My philosophy regarding team selection is perhaps more 'old school' and very simple, “if you have the shirt then keep it. If you lose it due to poor performances, ill discipline, international call ups or because of injury then you take your medicine like a man and work harder to regain your place”.

In my day you learned very quickly when you got your chance, you knew you best take it with both hands, but whatever happens you knew never to bring negativity, whinging or poor body language to the dressing room, as the senior players would not tolerate it....

That said, I'm now a grandad, a dad and a realist, so I try to understand a players frustration a little more, as all our players are very talented and I realise I cannot make their frustration of not playing every week disappear simply because I write a few paragraphs within my programme notes.

At my age you become more mellow but I can say both on and off the park, that we are a great club for many of our very talented young people to learn their trade and I know this club is often seen as a stepping stone in the careers of some of our players, media staff, analysts, medical team, strength and conditioning personnel, coaching staff and I accept that....

If I may I would like to end my longwinded Easter monologue, by taking this opportunity to thank our amazingly loyal supporters once again for their positivity this season. You have supported us throughout pre-season, you supported us during our FA Cup run in growing numbers and you got rewarded with another trip to the 3rd Round.

You then thankfully came out and supported us throughout our National League Cup run all the way to the final and were again rewarded with us winning the tournament in such dramatic fashion on penalties. That night alone allowed us to enjoy more magic moments, more wonderful memories and yet another special night together.

However, it's within the National League where your support has grown the most and has in fact increased by around 40% from last season. Support wise that is the biggest percentage rise within National League attendances this season.

So I simply want to say a very big thank you one and all, as I know Luke and the players do notice and they hugely appreciate your efforts. Having said that your loyalty and support is going to be tested more than ever if we're to achieve the impossible dream this season.

Trust me we're going to need your noise, need your flags, need the drum, need the support and we're going to need all of those things both home and away if we want to dream about walking our Club, Town and Community up Wembley Way once again.

Let's give ourselves an underdogs chance as it's who we are. Let's try and create another incredible memory, let's believe that another magic moment is just around the corner, as I genuinely believe we've got a shot at achieving our EFL dream this season and I believe with each passing week that we are getting closer.

We've come a long, long way together and god willing I plan on seeing our EFL dream through however long it takes. We all know what loss feels like, we all know what relegation feels like, we all know what winning a title feels like, we all know what play-off wins and promotions feels like, but we still don't know what winning at Wembley in a Play Off Final and being an EFL Club would feel like and it's about time we found out.

Finally whoever you support, let's hope for an open, attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care

LIKE GARD

Good afternoon, firstly I would like to welcome Gary Waddock, his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for today's Enterprise National League fixture.

Gary started his reign at the Wealdstone with a mix of results, having recorded 4 wins and 4 losses in his first 8 matches.

His biggest result was last Saturday, when facing Marine in the FA Trophy Semi Final.

Micah Obiero was the man of the moment, with a last gasp winner which now sees Wealdstone face Southend United on May 17th at Wembley.

That is an incredible achievement and something to be proud of, walking your side out at Wembley in any competition is immense but to achieve this having only been given the job a couple of months prior could be something special.

I genuinely wish everyone at the club the best of luck and hope they can create history and give Gary possibly one of the best start to any managerial career.

Having watched them live recently you can see they have many threats, and when they get it right, they can cause you problems.

They like to take control of the game and look to dominate the ball, for us we have to be aggressive in and out of possession, have an attitude towards our regain shape and really empathise our game when we turn it over.

We have addressed areas we feel we can hurt them and have worked on that all week, it's been a blessing having a free week to really double down on our principles of play and getting much needed work into the group.

It's been relentless since the 11th February where we have been Saturday / Tuesday for seven straight weeks.

Don't get me wrong, It's great playing games of football and I've loved prepping for that but to get the opportunity to realign the group is important.

When you literally go on to the next game, there's limited learning from the previous fixture and the prep is also tapered due to the quick turnaround.

Whereas from now until the end of the season the schedule is a lot more favourable for us, it allows for more contact time on the grass and also much needed recovery within the group.

This is great for myself and the staff as we can plan accordingly, having to cater for a one match prep week allows for a lot more detail between the games, whether that's good practice from the previous fixture or prep for the game coming up.

We know how important the next few weeks are going to be, remaining consistent and delivering on performances is going to be paramount.

Having only recorded one loss in our last eight matches shows we are hitting form at the right time and momentum at this stage of the Season can play a huge role in a Clubs success.

We now go into a Bank Holiday period where maximum points can really change the landscape of our position in the League and understanding the importance in keeping our standards high.

The boys are in a great place and have really shown their qualities in recent weeks and I now ask them to continue to be consistent and maintain a level of performance that warrants us recording another big win this Afternoon.

Let's get this place rocking and create a derby atmosphere, get right behind the players and give us the energy we need to gain a much needed 3 points.

Be Loud, Be proud, B'WOOD

Enjoy the Game.

IN THE DUGOUT

Manager: Gary WADDOCK

Appointed following the departure of Sam Cox in February, Waddock has been given the task of steering the Stones into safety and steadying an already inconsistent ship which has been rocking around all season. He arrives with plenty of pedigree as both a player and manager, having made over 150 appearances for the likes of Queens Park Rangers & Luton Town as well as managing Aldershot Town to promotion to the Football League in 2007. The former Irish international has also held several coaching roles at Portsmouth, MK Dons, Oxford United, Wycombe Wanderers and most recently Walsall.

ONES TO WATCH

Dante BAPTISTE

Born: 7 February 2002

Position: Goalkeeper

Like fellow teammate Michael Adu-Poku, goalkeeper Dante progressed through the Hornets' academy and has played a key part in the Stones' season so far. Playing all 39 National League games and keeping six clean sheets in the process, he has also featured in the Stones' FA Trophy run, keeping a clean sheet in the semi-final as his side booked their place at Wembley. The shot stopper has also turned out for other local outfits Chesham United and Farnborough.

Enzo BOLDEWIJN

Born: 17 November 1992

Position: Midfielder

The Dutchman began at SC Voorland and Utrecht, debuting in 2011. Loaned to FC Den Bosch, he scored his first senior goal in 2013 before a spell with Almere City, netting 14 goals in over 60 games. Moves to England would follow with Crawley Town, Notts County, and Sutton United and after a spell at Eastleigh, he joined the Stones in 2024, becoming vice-captain and scoring his first goal in January of last year.

Micah OBIERO

Born: 22 Feb 2005

Position: Forward

Being the Stones' top scorer in the league this season, frontman Micah Obiero has scored some key goals for his side. A player at Huddersfield Town and Leyton Orient as a youngster, two loan spells at Carlisle United and Halifax Town was enough to earn him a move to Boston United in 2022. After limited gametime, Obiero has made over 125 appearances for the Stones, netting over 20 times in the process. One of those goals included a dramatic 94th minute winner in last Saturday's FA Trophy semi-final, lobbing 'keeper Adam Anson to book the Stones' place at Wembley.

26 December 2026 // 15:00 // National League

The Wood kept up their promotion push by sweeping past Wealdstone at Grosvenor Vale to make it four straight league wins on Boxing Day.

Wood raced into an early lead inside the opening few minutes when Abdul Abdulmalik pounced on a hospital pass from Enzo Boldewijn to go one-on-one with 'keeper Dante Baptiste, with our winger lobbing the ball delicately over the shotstoppers' head.

They then doubled their advantage in the 26th minute when Matt Rush slotted in after a long throw caused havoc inside the box and he pounced from close range to prod the ball home.

And after Abdulmalik robbed Dominic Hutchinson and laid Lewis Richardson in for his third, before the substitute then jumped on Baptiste's mistake right in front of him to fire it into the roof of the net, allowing Wood to leave Wealdstone with a fantastic four away at their local rivals.

Football historian LEIGH EDWARDS profiles ten post-war Wealdstone goalscoring favourites

VIV EVANS

Long-serving Welsh winger Viv Evans is Wealdstone's second-highest goalscorer and appearance maker. Born in Cardiff, he grew up in Kingsbury and played for Kingsbury Town. He joined Wealdstone in September 1954 and became captain. Touring Nigeria with Middlesex Wanderers in 1960, he joined Hemel Hempstead in March 1965. He then spent a season with Maidenhead United before returning to Wealdstone in July 1968. Hanging up his boots in May 1970, his 216 goals in 451 games overall are surpassed only by George Duck and Charlie Townsend respectively. Later joining Wealdstone's coaching staff, he died in Southampton in August 2012.

HUGH LINDSAY

England Amateur international Hugh Lindsay featured in Wealdstone's 1966 Amateur Cup final success. He trained as a teacher at London University and had a brief spell at Wealdstone in April 1958 before moving to Kingstonian. Appearing in the 1960 Amateur Cup final, he joined Southampton shortly before representing Great Britain in the 1960 Olympic Games. He rejoined Wealdstone in July 1962 and won 29 England Amateur caps. Possessing a ferocious shot, he netted 174 goals in 329 games prior to joining Hampton in August 1969. Later coaching back at Kingstonian and Hampton, he became a lecturer at the Richmond upon Thames College.

BOBBY CHILDS

Tricky forward Bobby Childs scored twice in Wealdstone's 1966 Amateur Cup final triumph. Previously with Wembley and Enfield, he joined Wealdstone in December 1964. He netted 69 goals in 109 games before moving to St Albans City in July 1967. Joining Hendon in October 1971, he was an Amateur Cup winner again in 1972 and helped take Newcastle United to an FA Cup third round replay in 1973-74. He returned to St Albans in July 1974 but rejoined Hendon in February 1975. Voted 'Player of the Year' in 1975-76, helping beat Reading in the FA Cup first round, he left in September 1976. He tragically died of leukaemia aged 44 in 1989.

GEORGE DUCK

Striker George Duck holds Wealdstone's all-time goalscoring record. A former Millwall apprentice, he turned professional in February 1970 and joined Southend United in June 1971. He briefly appeared in their 1971-72 promotion campaign and moved to Wealdstone in July 1972. Top scorer in seven successive seasons, including a club record 62 goals in their 1973-74 Southern League First Division (South) title campaign, he starred as they reached the FA Cup third round in 1977-78. Netting 251 goals in 370 games, he joined Dagenham in July 1979 and scored in their 1980 FA Trophy final success. He was later leading scorer at Harrow Borough and Hendon.

NEIL CORDICE

Striker Neil Cordice had two spells at Wealdstone. He played for Flackwell Heath and Wycombe Wanderers before joining Northampton Town in July 1978. Moving to Wealdstone in July 1979, he played alongside his brother Alan as they achieved the Southern League and Cup 'double' in 1981-82, then the Conference title and FA Trophy 'double' in 1984-85. He netted 96 goals in 331 games and followed Brian Hall to Yeovil Town in October 1987, helping win the Isthmian League and Cup 'double' in 1987-88. Returning to Wealdstone in December 1990, he reunited with Hall at Yeovil in February 1994, then Chesham and Walton & Hersham.

ALAN CORDICE

England Semi-Pro international striker Alan Cordice was top scorer as Wealdstone achieved the Southern League and Cup 'double' in 1981-82. He played for Chesham United, Marlow and Maidenhead United prior to joining Norwich City. Moving to Wealdstone in July 1980, he had blistering pace and also starred alongside his brother Neil in their 1984-85 Conference title and FA Trophy 'double' success. He suffered an injury in October 1985 and retired at the end of that season but resurrected his career in December 1987. Scoring 109 goals in 334 games overall, he had a testimonial match against Yeovil Town in March 1989. He was a self-employed glazier.

MARK GRAVES

Striker Mark Graves was Wealdstone's top scorer in five successive seasons. Born in Isleworth, he grew up in Devon and made his League debut for Plymouth Argyle in December 1977. He joined Wealdstone in July 1982 and was 'Player of the Year' in 1982-83. Helping to achieve the Conference and FA Trophy 'double' in 1984-85, he missed the Wembley triumph due to injury. He netted 138 goals in 252 games prior to joining Hayes in July 1987 but a hip injury ended his career. Employed as an insurance salesman with Imperial Life & Canada, he later specialised in mortgage protection and set up Linear Financial Services before Pink Home Loans.

RICHARD JOLLY

Striker Richard Jolly had four spells at Wealdstone. Starting with Hayes, he joined Wealdstone in January 2003. He moved to Heybridge in February 2006, then AFC Wimbledon, Braintree and Carshalton in July 2008. Top scorer in 2008-09, he joined Sutton United in May 2010 and was leading marksman in their 2010-11 Isthmian League Premier Division title triumph. Rejoining Wealdstone in June 2011, after a loan spell, he starred as they twice reached the Isthmian League Premier Division play-offs and FA Trophy semi-finals in 2011-12. He came out of retirement in November 2014, netting 171 goals in 296 games overall, joining Kingstonian in May 2015.

SCOTT MCGLEISH

Striker Scott McGleish was top scorer as Wealdstone won the Isthmian League Premier Division title in 2013-14. Initially with Edgware, he moved to Charlton in May 1994, then Leyton Orient, Peterborough, Colchester, Cambridge United and Orient again. He joined Barnet in October 1997 and helped reach the Third Division play-offs. Moving via Colchester to Northampton in July 2004, he was a promotion winner in 2005-06. He moved to Wycombe in January 2007, then Orient again, Bristol Rovers and Enfield Town. Joining Wealdstone in March 2013, he netted 44 goals in 112 games, moving to Chesham in September 2017, then Edgware again.

JERMAINE BECKFORD

Jamaica international striker Jermaine Beckford was Wealdstone's top scorer with 35 goals in 2005-06. A former Chelsea junior, he was a prolific scorer for Wealdstone, netting 62 goals in 122 games, before joining Leeds United in March 2006. He was loaned to Scunthorpe and helped clinch the League One title in 2006-07. Top scorer three times as Leeds twice reached the League One play-offs, then won promotion in 2009-10. Also scoring their winner at Manchester United in the FA Cup third round, he joined Everton in June 2010. He later played for Leicester City, Huddersfield Town, Bolton Wanderers, Preston and Bury, becoming a football pundit.

The Wood were held to a frustrating 0–0 draw away at bottom-of-the-table Truro City, with difficult windy conditions playing their part.

Luke Garrard named an unchanged side following a midweek win at Aldershot, and Wood started brightly, with Zak Brunt firing narrowly wide early on. Truro responded but also struggled for accuracy, as both sides failed to test the goalkeepers consistently. The hosts adapted better to the conditions and enjoyed spells of possession, though clear chances remained limited.

Lewis Richardson forced a good save before the break, while Brunt again went close after neat interplay with Abdul Abdulmalik. After half-time, Truro threatened first, but Ryan Law fired over, while Wood's best openings fell to Richardson and Abdulmalik, who proved a constant danger. Despite late efforts at both ends, neither side found a breakthrough in a stalemate.

24 March 2026 // 19:45 // National League

The Wood secured a hard-fought 2-1 victory over Aldershot Town in challenging wind and rain, courtesy of Matt Rush's 30th goal in all competitions this season and a stunning long-range strike by Regan Booty.

Luke Garrard made one change from the win over Gateshead, with Lewis Richardson coming in for Leon Ayinde, and Wood started strongly. Rush opened the scoring early, tapping the ball home after Booty's effort fell kindly, before the midfielder produced a moment of brilliance, lofting the ball over Boyce-Clarke from near the halfway line. Wood looked in control, but Aldershot responded well. Charlie Warren went close before Brody Peart curled in an excellent effort to reduce the deficit.

Chances came at both ends before the break, but Wood held their lead. The second half was more scrappy with worsening conditions, with Wood defending resolutely. Abdulmalik posed a threat on the counter, while Aldershot pushed for an equaliser, going closest through Peart late on, but Luke Garrard's men held firm.

DEFOE TAKES CHARGE AT WOKING

Jermain Defoe has been appointed head coach of Woking, marking his first permanent managerial role.

The former Tottenham Hotspur and England striker replaces Neal Ardley after a recent dismissal. Defoe, who retired in 2022 following a prolific career, scored over 300 goals and earned 57 international caps.

Now stepping into senior leadership, assisted by Paul Bracewell, Defoe is tasked with building on strong foundations and pushing Woking towards a top-10 finish, with long-term ambitions of reaching the Football League.

WEMBLEY BECKONS AFTER DRAMATIC SEMI-FINALS

National League sides Southend United and Wealdstone have booked their places in the ISUZU FA Trophy final after thrilling semi-final victories.

Southend came from behind to beat Southport 3-1, with Charley Kendall scoring twice to seal the turnaround. Manager Kevin Maher would go on to praise the club's resilience after difficult years.

Meanwhile, Wealdstone edged past Marine thanks to a dramatic stoppage-time winner from Micah Obiero. The two National League sides will now meet at Wembley, both aiming to cap their impressive cup runs with silverware.

PRIOR COMPLETES WANDERERS COMEBACK

Down in the National League South, Marc White's Dorking Wanderers boosted their title hopes with a thrilling 2-1 comeback victory over Hemel Hempstead Town at Meadowbank.

The visitors struck first through Remye Campbell, but Dorking responded strongly after the break. Paul McCallum levelled midway through the second half before Jason Prior calmly converted a late penalty to seal the turnaround.

Despite late pressure, a crucial clearance preserved the three points. The result saw the Wanderers go six points clear atop the National League table after an intense and hard-fought contest.
