Today, we extend a warm welcome to our friends from Woking FC. May I wish their directors, manager, players and supporters an enjoyable afternoon with us and a safe journey home.

Well, it's been another busy fortnight or so since we beat a very good Altrincham side 3-1 here at Meadow Park. Since then, we've been back on the road and secured a hard-fought 2-0 victory at Sutton United, in a game that I felt we thoroughly deserved to win.

For me, though, the real positives over the last month has been the way we've conducted ourselves as a football club. We've worked smart, not stupid, kept our own counsel and quietly gone about our business.

Throughout that period, Luke hasn't made a single excuse, despite having to contend with serious injuries to key players, Regan Booty's suspension, two international call-ups and a squad that, at times, has been stretched to its absolute limits.

It's fair to say that, over the last two and a half months, we've occasionally been down to the bare bones, with just 14 or 15 fit players available for selection.

Yet, throughout all of that, Luke has never come jumping up and down at me, nor has he looked for excuses. He understands, as I do, that publicly highlighting our problems might simply encourage opposing teams to exploit any perceived weaknesses.

Instead, we've remained calm, stayed patient, continued to recruit sensibly and, most importantly, kept winning football matches. Trust me, we've scrutinised the transfer and loan markets on a daily basis, and Charlie Hunter has been to more games than I've had hot dinners!

Through our excellent relationships with other clubs, combined with the expertise of our Sporting Director, Charlie Hunter, and our Manager, Luke Garrard, we've managed to bring in some very good players, both permanently and on loan, to strengthen us across the pitch.

As such, I'm pleased to report that we now have much healthier squad depth, although I can assure you we're still looking to improve. Our small-club approach to recruitment has always been about identifying intelligent, affordable signings. That's never easy, particularly after selling a player of Abdul Abdulmalik's quality.

However, by working smart, remaining patient, occasionally saying NO to ridiculous agent or player demands and waiting for the right opportunities, we've managed to assemble a well-balanced squad that Luke believes is capable of coping with our immediate workload and challenging for promotion.

Our thinking has been relatively simple.

By bringing in Farhaan Ali Wahid, Danny Cashman, Ted Curd, Jay Bird, Ben Whitfield, Conor Wilkinson and Will Wright during the season, we've given Luke the options, flexibility and competition for places needed to compete across all four competitions: the National League, FA Cup, FA Trophy and National League Cup.

And, at the moment, there's a real sense of positivity around the whole football club. That was demonstrated perfectly by our last home league attendance against Altrincham, which, if I'm being truthful, pleasantly surprised me.

We attracted a crowd of 1,646, including more than 1,500 home supporters. We then followed that up by taking close to 300 travelling fans to Sutton United last Friday. For a club of our size, those are fantastic numbers, and it's clear that our support base is not only buzzing but continuing to grow.

It just goes to show what a small, community-focused football club like ours can achieve when everyone pulls together, works intelligently and believes in what we're trying to build. I think it's now becoming clear to everyone that we're making genuine progress, both on and off the field, and that we fully intend to challenge for promotion.

As I often tell my staff, friends and family, I genuinely feel that I'm witnessing unprecedented, unexpected and incredibly joyous days at this football club. Who, including me, could ever have imagined, when I took over back in 1999, that we would one day find ourselves in this position?

Back then, we were playing our football in the Isthmian or Southern League, averaging around 150 supporters here at Meadow Park, and simply trying to build something sustainable.

Of course, I always believed that my step-by-step approach, coupled with your refusal to lie down, give up or accept that we were merely here to make up the numbers, might one day give us a genuine shot at reaching the EFL.

But even I have to admit that the journey has surpassed some of my own expectations. Just look at how our stadium and facilities have developed, and then consider how much further they will have progressed by June 2027. Sometimes, even I have to pinch myself.

If we ever do achieve League football, it will be because of you, our loyal, old-school supporters, who have stood by me and this football club through thick and thin, including some very dark days, over the last 28 years.

It's only because of your loyalty, a fair helping of Lady Luck, some smart investment, excellent managers and staff, and years of careful, long-term planning that we now find ourselves in a position we could only have dreamed about back in 1999.

So, I'll say it again: thank you all so much for your incredible loyalty. I genuinely believe you've all earned the right to dream. And, as I've always said, God loves a trier, so perhaps, just perhaps, this might finally be the year that my prayers are answered.

As I mentioned in my last programme notes, the higher you climb up the football pyramid, the more important future-proofing and forward planning become. That means, now more than ever, we must continue to work smart, not stupid. We must stay driven, remain proactive rather than reactive, and ensure we're prepared for whatever challenges or opportunities lie ahead.

In truth, following our hugely encouraging start to the season, we're now reaching the stage where my accountant, Jennifer Priestley, my Finance Director, Ciara Dyer, my inner circle and our key staff are having to look very seriously at what next week, next month and, indeed, next season might look like.

That's not getting carried away. That's simply being responsible, ambitious and prepared.

So, have our signings now finished?

Absolutely not.

We must remain adaptable and realistic. We also have to accept that, for various reasons, some players may choose not to extend their contracts with us. That's football, and while we must respect those decisions, we must also protect the interests of Boreham Wood Football Club.

That means continuing to future-proof our squad, planning ahead and ensuring that, if good players become available as the season unfolds, we're in a position to act quickly and intelligently. We cannot afford to stand still, and we certainly cannot afford to become complacent.

Looking back, I felt our games against Kidderminster Harriers, Altrincham and Sutton United were three very important early-season indicators of where we stood as a team. Thankfully, we came through all three tests, and I was particularly pleased with the Sutton performance.

That satisfaction was perhaps heightened by some rather silly pre-match comments from their noisy manager, who suggested we hadn't really been tested.

Perhaps he'd forgotten that we'd already travelled to Forest Green Rovers, Scunthorpe and Worthing, among others, while also facing very good sides such as Carlisle United, Harrogate and Altrincham here at Meadow Park. Still, everyone's entitled to an opinion, I suppose!

The important thing is that we answered those comments in the best possible way, by doing our talking on the pitch.

In simple terms, our excellent start has now taken us clear at the top of the table and, with more than 28% of the league season already completed, we've put ourselves in a very encouraging position.

Of course, that also means we're now there to be shot at. We've got the proverbial target on our backs, and every team we face will be desperate to knock us off our perch. That's the challenge of being the early-season pace-setters, and it's a challenge we must embrace.

We have to remain humble, focused, hungry and disciplined. We cannot start believing our own publicity, and we certainly cannot take our foot off the gas. There's still an awful lot of football to be played, and nothing has been achieved yet.

Before I finish, I want to say a very big thank you to our incredible Wood Army, our magnificent drummer and everyone who has been making so much noise on the North Bank. Your vocal support, both home and away, has been absolutely outstanding this season.

These really are amazing times at Meadow Park, and you guys are making the journey even more enjoyable through your energy, passion and unwavering backing. I cannot tell you how much it means to the players, Luke, his staff and everyone connected with the club. So, thank you again.

That said, I'm going to ask you for even more! Please, please keep making yourselves heard and keep coming down to Meadow Park in your numbers for every home game, including today's FA Cup tie against Woking.

If you can, bring a friend, bring the family or simply drag your next-door neighbour along! Trust me, you're helping to transform the atmosphere around this football club. You're making a huge difference to the team, you're helping to create a genuine home advantage and, most importantly, you're making yourselves loud, proud and heard. Long may that continue.

Finally, whoever you support this afternoon, let's hope for an open, attacking FA Cup tie, played in the right spirit and may the best team win.

Take care,
Danny

WATCH THE WOOD

30+ times live
this season

Good afternoon. Firstly, I would like to welcome Craig Ross and his players and staff to Meadow Park for today's FA Cup Fourth Qualifying Round Tie.

Craig has once again taken the reins at the Laithwaite Community Stadium having taken over from Jermaine Defoe at the back end of July, having previously overseen a great spell as the interim manager last season that period has definitely aided him in being given the opportunity again.

They have had a mixed start to the league campaign averaging just over a point per game, but they have seen some very impressive results, with a great 5-1 home win against Alfrincham and none more noticeable than an emphatic away day at Carlisle, where they left Brunton Park 5-2 winners.

They have quality within their ranks especially with the new addition of John Marquis, who they landed in early September and he has been extremely productive registering seven goals in eight matches.

He is someone we know we will have to guard against and make sure we have an attitude towards our defensive work to ensure we keep him quiet this afternoon.

We have had a welcome free week this week, facing Sutton United on Friday evening allowed for us to give the boys much needed recovery over the weekend, something we feel with our recent schedule was very much needed.

You could feel the energy when they landed back into work on Monday, they had a freshness to them and a focus to get straight back to it.

We have really focused on our concepts this week, having revisited a lot of what we feel we can improve on and also a lot of repetition in terms of what we are currently doing really well.

I openly speak about the process and building day by day and that is evident in our analysis and sessions, we constantly work closely with the group on all aspects of our systems and structures as we need to make sure we are continually improving.

As staff we are being intensely proactive, especially in tasking each other with certain scenarios of how you would defend and press against us as it's being shown continuously how teams are coming up with inventive ideas to try and stop us having success in our builds, creates & finishes.

Like I always say, managers are tasked to have the answers before the event and that's something I feel has been a really important part of our coaching this year.

Giving the players realistic sessions and scenarios where they have to have the confidence and belief to execute what we believe is required to negate any opposition pressing structure and to create patterns and overloads for us to get joy.

We are so fluid in our builds and have numerous amounts of frameworks that the players can adopt in any given situation, you can see them orchestrating this on the pitch which is so pleasing for us as staff.

To have an intelligent group that has a high footballing IQ really does make our job a lot easier, plus we can really challenge them and add so many layers to their game and propel their knowledge as they are extremely receptive to a lot of what we are trying to implement.

Today we are looking to continue our form and progress into the First Round Proper for the sixth time in the last seven seasons, something I feel is a real accolade to the whole club, boasting a great history within the cup competition that has given us some incredible memories over the last few seasons.

We want to have even more moments as a group and with the squad we have to our disposal we feel we can compete on all four fronts be it in the league, FA Cup, National League Cup and also FA Trophy.

To have 22 players of real quality is extremely pleasing and with games coming thick and fast it allows for individuals to put a case together to warrant getting more game time consistently which will only bode well for much needed competition between the players.

I can see the levels of the dressing room increasing throughout the week, the way in which they have been training is showing a real demand from each other and those standards have to remain for us to continue and achieve what we all want come the end of the season.

As I say often, "it's player led - manager driven", and to have the cultural architects leading and holding their peers accountable really sets a level of professionalism that has really aided us and our progression this season.

We now turn our focus back to today and we will need everyone to create an atmosphere and noise that the players can thrive on and continue to deliver on the performances which has been giving us our success.

Get right behind the boys and let's start another magical cup journey!

I hope you enjoy the game and look forward to seeing you all.

Be loud. Be proud. B'Wood.

Luke

Feature interview: Callum Reynolds

"I'm hoping to give the gaffer a few more heaches when I'm back fit and available for selection - competition is healthy within any successful environment."

Injuries can often shape a player's career, but Callum Reynolds hasn't let it define his.

The 36-year-old has been sidelined with a concussion injury since the end of pre-season but is back in the fold and could return for our Emirates FA Cup clash with Woking this weekend.

With his career brought to a temporary standstill at just 19 with tendonitis in both knees and further injuries testing him as his career progressed, Reynolds has developed the resilience to overcome setbacks and is looking to use his experience to maintain a promotion push.

With a potential return on Saturday on the horizon, Reynolds reflects on just how challenging this latest setback has been.

"Honestly, it has been the hardest injury I've ever had to deal with in my career," the ex-Bromley defender explained.

"With something like a fracture or even a muscle tear, there is a result and a report from the image that gives you a guideline for a time frame of when you can return, but with this particular injury, the uncertainty of not having a timeline to work towards was challenging.

"I've had to trust the advice and myself to an extent to stick to the plan I've been given.

"The mental side of this injury has tested me and questioned me in ways I haven't had before, but I feel stronger for going through it."

Reynolds is also keen to highlight the unseen toll an injury brings and the uncertainty which comes with being sidelined.

"To have suffered early in my career with a debilitating injury, it has served as a good experience and also a reminder to try and control what you can whilst you're out," he said.

"Whether that's your diet, your sleep, your mental health - I've found more so with this injury everyone you speak to, whether it's family, friends or teammates, the first thing they ask is 'how are you feeling?' and 'when are you going to be back?'"

"Having tunnel vision focus has helped me in my career with previous injuries but I've had to let go at times during this period and trust that with time and patience I will return and thankfully that's a lot closer now."

Attention temporarily turns away from the league campaign with the visit of fellow Enterprise National League outfit Woking.

Luke Garrard's side have a rich history in this competition in recent memory, reaching the third round last season after upsetting Crawley Town and Newport County of Sky Bet League Two.

Not withstanding the infamous run to the fifth round in 2022, the Wood will aim to replicate that success this term with the first hurdle coming against the Cardinals.

Having featured for Bromley in the third round against Newcastle United last year, Reynolds reflects on his favourite FA Cup memories.

"The FA Cup is such a special competition in this country but as I've grown, it has a global appeal," the former Barnet man explained.

"I was fortunate enough to be a youth team player at Portsmouth when they won it for the first time in the club's recent history but then when I started playing in it, you feel the magic of the cup.

"I've scored a few FA Cup goals which is nice to remember, but also beating Sheffield United away in the 3rd round the year they were promoted to the Premier League.

"Then the experience of playing away at St. James' Park against a very strong Newcastle team is one of the best experiences and memories of my career.

"Even last season, reaching the third round of the FA Cup almost felt like a formality, the way we dispatched two League Two teams but the draw wasn't too kind to us.

"To be in the hat when those big teams come out fills you with a buzz of excitement that is hard to replicate and financially, it can change your season and in some cases, the club's future."

A near-perfect start to the league season sees the Wood sit seven points clear at the summit, with a dominant 2-0 victory at Sutton United last time out making it six victories on the spin.

Reynolds expresses his excitement at potentially returning to the field in the coming weeks.

"It's another game to add to the success so far and keep the winning habit going," he said.

"You saw last season when we went far in the FA Cup, won the National League Cup and went all the way to the play-off final in the league.

"That wasn't a coincidence as we performed at such a high level throughout last season to reach those levels.

"We want to set the bar even higher this year and repeat some of those achievements if we can.

"I love the group and I feel like I have a good connection with everyone in the team.

"I'm hoping to give the gaffer a few more headaches when I'm back fit and available for selection and I would say competition is healthy within any successful environment.

"Whoever plays knows that their teammate will always have their back, but I will also be pushing the boys and be ready whenever called upon to add to what we are doing."

Woking equalised through Timmy Akinola after the break before Aaron Drewe put the hosts ahead in the 81st minute. But Rush struck again in the sixth minute of stoppage time, converting Regan Booty's cross to rescue a dramatic point for Wood.

Managing to succeed: Woking

Football historian Leigh Edwards profiles ten leading Woking managers

Bob Reeves

Bob Reeves was secretary-manager as Woking won the Amateur Cup in 1958, beating Ilford 3-0 in the final at Wembley Stadium. A former winger, he played for Woking either side of the Second World War and was leading marksman with 33 goals as they were Surrey Senior Cup finalists in 1945-46. He became captain in 1947 and scored 53 times in 167 games overall before hanging up his boots in May 1952. Plotting two consecutive Surrey Senior Cup final triumphs, beating Tooting & Mitcham 1-0 in 1956 and Wimbledon 4-2 in 1957, he managed Woking to the Surrey Senior Cup final again shortly before leaving the post in May 1959.

Charlie Mortimore

England Amateur international centre-forward Charlie Mortimore was a player and manager during 15 years at Woking. Previously in the RAF, he was Aldershot's leading marksman in 1949-50 and joined Woking together with his younger brother John in August 1953. He briefly played for Portsmouth and skippered Woking's 1956 Surrey Senior Cup and 1958 Amateur Cup triumphs. Scoring a club record 250 goals in 363 games, he managed Woking from March 1964 until March 1968. A teacher at Cove County Secondary School, he became president of Farnborough Town and was awarded the MBE for services to youth football. He died in September 2019.

Harry Hughes

Harry Hughes managed Woking to the Surrey Senior Cup final in 1971. A former centre-half, he played for Symingtons and Southport before moving to Chelsea in February 1951, making his First Division debut against Liverpool six months later. Joining Bournemouth in June 1952, he skippered them to the FA Cup sixth round in 1956-57. Twice ever-present, he joined Guildford City in July 1963, then managed Woking from May 1970 until October 1973. Rejoining Guildford as manager, he then ran the Tottenham Hotspur club shop for 11 years. He later devoted his time to the Christians in Sport organisation and died in Guildford in October 2013.

Fred Callaghan

Altrincham took Tottenham Hotspur to an FA Cup third round replay in 1978/79. The Robins received a bye to the competition proper for the first time and defeated Southport 4-3 in the first round, then won 2-0 at Droylsden to reach the third round for the third time in their history. Jeff Johnson's late equaliser gave Altrincham a 1-1 draw with Tottenham Hotspur in front of 31,081 at White Hart Lane. Colin Lee's hat-trick gave a Spurs side including Argentina World Cup stars Ossie Ardiles and Ricky Villa a 3-0 victory in the replay watched by 27,878 at Maine Road. The Robins finished runners-up in the Northern Premier League.

Geoff Chapple

Long-serving manager Geoff Chapple plotted a glorious era at Woking. A former Woking player, he was appointed Woking's boss in September 1984 and guided them to promotion in 1986-87 and 1989-90, then the Isthmian League title in 1991-92. He was manager as Woking won at West Brom in the 1990-91 FA Cup third round and took top-flight Coventry City to a third round replay in 1996-97. Also managing the Cards' 1994, 1995 and 1997 FA Trophy final triumphs, he left in July 1997 to manage Kingstonian, plotting two further FA Trophy triumphs, then briefly returned as Woking's boss. He was later commercial manager and club secretary.

John McGovern

Former Scotland U-23 midfielder John McGovern managed Woking to third place in the Conference in 1997-98. Initially with Hartlepool, he was a promotion winner in 1967-68 and reunited with Brian Clough at Derby County in September 1968. He starred as they won the League Championship in 1971-72, then followed Clough via Leeds United to Nottingham Forest in February 1975. Skipping League Championship and League Cup success, then two consecutive European Cup final triumphs, he became Bolton Wanderers' player-boss in June 1982. He later managed Chorley, Rotherham, Woking from July 1997 until September 1998 and Ilkeston.

Brian McDermott

Ex-England Youth striker Brian McDermott replaced John McGovern as Woking's manager. Initially with Arsenal, he joined Oxford United in December 1984 and helped them to clinch the Second Division title that season. He later played for Cardiff City, Exeter City, Yeovil Town and South China, then managed Slough Town before Woking from September 1998 until February 2000. After a period as Reading's chief scout and reserve team boss, he became their manager in December 2009. Guiding them to the FA Cup sixth round in two consecutive seasons, then the Championship title in 2011-12, he later managed Leeds United and Reading again.

Frank Gray

Former Scotland international left-back Frank Gray managed Woking during the 2007-08 campaign. Starting with Leeds United, he starred alongside his brother Eddie as they were League Champions in 1973-74 and European Cup finalists in 1974-75. He joined Nottingham Forest in July 1979 and helped them win the European Cup in 1980, rejoining Leeds in May 1981. Moving via Sunderland to Darlington in July 1989, he helped win the Conference title and Fourth Division title in consecutive seasons. He managed Darlington, then Farnborough Town, Grays Athletic, Woking from May 2007 until April 2008, Basingstoke Town and Bashley.

Garry Hill

Garry Hill managed Woking to the Conference South title in 2011-12. His managerial career started with Heybridge Swifts, leading them to the Isthmian League First Division (North) title in 1995-96. He then managed St Albans City before taking charge of Dagenham & Redbridge in July 1999. Plotting their 1999-2000 Isthmian League Premier Division title triumph and three FA Cup runs, he led them to the Conference play-off final in 2002-03. He managed Hornchurch, Weymouth and Rushden & Diamonds, then Woking from January 2011 until May 2017, plotting three Surrey Senior Cup triumphs. He later had a spell as Ebbsfleet United's manager.

Alan Dowson

Alan Dowson plotted Woking's 2019 Conference South play-off final triumph. A former defender, he played for Millwall, Bradford City, Darlington, Slough and Gateshead before joining Walton & Hersham in December 1996. He became their player-boss in October 2004 and took charge of Kingstonian in January 2007, guiding them to the Isthmian League First Division (South) title in 2008-09. Following a successful spell as Hampton & Richmond's manager, he became Woking's boss in May 2018, plotting their win over Swindon en route to the FA Cup third round in 2018-19. He left in February 2022, since managing Dartford and Hemel Hempstead.
