Today, we welcome our good friends from Fylde. May I wish their directors, manager, players and supporters a pleasant stay with us and a safe journey home.

Well, it's been another busy seven days, both on and off the field of play, since we beat a hard working and resilient Woking team 3-2 here in the FA Cup.

I'm told that, having reached the First Round Proper once again, and with that being 13 First Round appearances in the last 14 years, we are, at present, the most successful FA Cup club currently residing in non-league football over the last 15 years. Some achievement, if true?

As a quick aside, were you as surprised as me that Luke Garrard has been overlooked twice thus far for the National League 'Manager of the Month' award? If I'm honest, on a selfish note, I'm very happy we've dodged that proverbial bullet, as I would have been worried that the dreaded Manager of the Month curse was about to derail us, but I'm surprised nonetheless.

On a positive note, I was delighted that Ben Whitfield (September) followed Matt Rush (August) in winning the National League 'Player of the Month' award. In both cases, nobody could say the awards were not thoroughly deserved.

As I told you in my last programme notes, over the last two and a half months we've, at times, been down to just 14 or 15 fit players. During that period, we quietly went about our business and, through the focus and hard work of our Sporting Director, Charlie Hunter, and Manager, Luke Garrard, we've signed some very good players who have all contributed to our excellent start to the season. As such, we now have decent squad depth.

Our thinking was simple after losing Abdul Abdulmalik. If we want to challenge for the title outright, then we need to spend a few quid intelligently, which we have, and strengthen ourselves by bringing in some very good players in Farhaan Ali Wahid, Danny Cashman, Ted Curd, Jay Bird, Ben Whitfield, Conor Wilkinson and Will Wright.

These signings give Luke the flexibility to be competitive in all competitions, including the League, FA Cup, FA Trophy and National League Cup, and that showed itself in last week's home victory over Woking in the FA Cup, where the whole squad was utilised.

Our squad, if I'm being picky, is still slightly on the small side, and so we will remain on the lookout for the right players who can improve us and help this squad move forward.

Today is a big day for our medical, strength and conditioning team, as both Callum Reynolds and Matt Rush near full fitness, and their return will undoubtedly strengthen our ranks. Getting these senior players back is huge and will hopefully give Luke a few selection headaches as the league and cup games continue to come thick and fast.

In our last home league game, when we beat Altrincham 3-1, I was surprised and delighted that we attracted a crowd of 1,646, with more than 1,500 home fans. It shows me, my sponsors, our partners and everyone else that, in a town of just 37,500 residents, our supporters and wider community are with us and hugely enjoying the football being served up.

Our increasing gates signify hope and progress, because on top of being a well-run community football club, these step-by-step improvements allow us to dream the impossible dream and quietly progress. I don't know if we will ever get promotion done, but I do expect us to bloody the noses of a few of the bigger clubs trying.

That said, if we can get just one promotion over the line, it will give hope to every small non-league club up and down the country who, like us, have ambitions of winning this league. If we ever do achieve our dream of getting to the EFL, perhaps I can justifiably claim that my risk-averse, step-by-step approach was the right way to go for our small, bespoke club.

My tenure, in truth, has experienced many highs, but perhaps a lot more lows and, for sure, plenty of tearful moments, especially at Wembley. That said, the feeling I get when I'm watching you fans, my town, my friends and family going crazy during those highs never gets old and is truly a gift from God.

When I'm with my family and watching those magic moments unfold, they are almost slow-motion events that mean so much to me. Possibly because I'm a local man, it all feels almost intimate, as these are the special moments that I'll take to my grave.

To be a longstanding Chairman takes money, madness and patience. In my case, it also meant understanding very early on that I'd need long-term partners, loyal sponsors and, importantly, more than just a few sustainable income streams.

Once I'd built those partnerships, once we'd become more sponsor-driven and once we'd created more wide-ranging, sustainable income streams, it became more about cultivating your loyal and patient support. That, in turn, allowed me to plan, mentor a manager, help build a dressing room and eventually build a stadium that I hope will soon be fit for the Football League.

Having won two titles and three play-offs in my time here, I have also failed in the National League play-offs four times, including two semi-final defeats at Harrogate and Notts County, plus two extraordinary Wembley losses to Tranmere and Rochdale.

As such, I can only imagine how amazing it must feel for clubs like Orient, Lincoln, Grimsby, Tranmere, Salford, Stockport, Chesterfield, Wrexham, Notts County, Oldham, Barnet, York City and Rochdale, who I've watched get themselves out of the National League. And I note that they are all currently thriving.

As a local man, I've owned the club since the 90s, played very badly for it in the 80s, and my father once managed it proudly in the 60s and 70s. To say it would be the honour of my life to take our football club, you supporters, my staff, this dressing room, our town and our wider community to the promised land would simply be an understatement.

Having said that, we are still a long, long way from climbing the mountain and getting to the EFL, and believe me, it is a mountain. Though I accept we have currently got ourselves to base camp with a record 35 points from our first 13 league games.

I often tell you that cautious planning comes into play the higher you go up the pyramid. I also told you, after our more than positive start to this season, that it's getting to the stage where Jennifer Priestley, my Accountant, Ciara Dyer, my Finance Director, my inner circle and staff must look very seriously at what next season might hold for us.

Put more simply, if we want this to be our year, we must accept the pressure. We've now gone clear at the top and, having completed more than 28% of the season, we accept that we are there to be shot at. We understand there is now no hiding place, and we must enjoy whatever pressure comes our way between now and the end of the season.

Can I now say a very big thank you to the 'Wood Army and every one of the 300 who travelled down to Sutton United last Friday, and then turned up again for the Woking FA Cup tie last Saturday. I love your passion, love your noise and love the way you celebrate our victories with the players.

This football club is currently in the best shape in its entire history, and you are now improving things further by creating more noise and atmosphere, both home and away. In truth, you are making a huge difference to me, Luke, the staff and the team, and it's joyous.

Other club news

Well, the good news off the park just keeps on coming.

Today, I can report that our CIL Agreement with HBC has been signed off and our new 50-year lease has been agreed. The new agreement includes safeguards and five-year reviews, while also taking into account our community work and being guided by our community benefit document.

The work we now do within the community is more fully recognised by HBC and EBTC, particularly in terms of the benefits and income we bring into the town, its retailers, shopkeepers, pubs, restaurants, petrol stations, car parks and wider community.

Which, in simple terms, means you might have to put up with me looking after you for a few more years, haha.

It also means our £4.25 million South Stand and associated facilities build is now well underway, and it's fully funded by myself, the club, HBC, EBTC, the Football Foundation, Premier League Fund, AFC and BW PASE.

In my opinion, it will change the landscape of this club and our town forever. In truth, when I look back, these improvements, club builds and our latest stadium project actually started well over 27 years ago.

Ultimately, it's resulted in us building the West Stand, North Bank, new entrance roads, electronic barriers, car park, Desso GrassMaster pitch, grounds building, irrigation, fence lines, astro pitches, hospitality suites, East Stand, offices, gantries, study suites, gymnasium, control rooms, club shop, away fan zone, digital turnstiles, new floodlights, medical centre, changing rooms, bin stores, toilets, kitchens, Glass House and South Stand.

When you then add in things like drainage, signage, electrics, lighting, pathways, compounds and connections, it's truly been an expensive labour of love.

I cannot believe I'm about to say it, but if we do ever gain promotion to the EFL, it would mean my dreams and prayers, in my mother and father's memory, would have been realised. And though I've spent tens of millions of pounds getting here, it would be the best money I've ever spent.

That said, "nothing in life is guaranteed", and there's no such thing as a "free lunch" in this life. As such, after just 13 league games, nothing is a given. Not when you have some great ex-league clubs like Southend, Harrogate, Yeovil and Carlisle United chasing you down.

I'm now 64 years of age, and I feel that if God loves a trier, then it's time for Him to answer my prayers and allow me to finish off what I started way back in 1999. If that means it's time for me to work a little harder or spend a little bit more to complete the next stage of this legacy build, then so be it.

Anyway, enough of dreams, enough of all our yesterdays, let's get back to the football.

Today is about welcoming a very good Fylde team to Meadow Park, along with our much-loved ex-midfielder Tom Whelan, his wife Ella and little boy Sonny.

Fylde are also owned by my good friend, Mr David Haythornwaite, who I often meet on my England jaunts. Trust me, Fylde are a very good side, they arrive here in good form, they will pose a huge threat to our unbeaten league run, and it's clear to everyone who knows this league that they are serious promotion rivals.

As a quick reminder, today is also 'Ladies Day' here at Meadow Park, and it's something we hugely look forward to putting on each season. Ladies Day has quickly become one of the best days of the year here at the Club.

Remember, all our ladies and girls get 'free' match-day entry. They also get a 'free' cocktail, mocktail or glass of prosecco to kick things off, and then there's a 'free' Karaoke Evening with our manager, staff and players in the Glass House.

So enjoy yourselves, don't drink too much and have a great time, ladies.

Lastly, whoever you support this afternoon, let's hope for an open, attacking game, and may the best team win.

Take care,

Danny

Good afternoon. Firstly, I would like to welcome Craig Mahon and his players and staff to Meadow Park for today's National League fixture.

AFC Fylde have taken to life back in the National League like they had never been gone, currently finding themselves nicely in the play-offs.

Boasting a very competitive squad and most recently adding to the group with the addition of Luke McCormick, who arrives from a Play Off rival in Yeovil Town where he registered an impressive six goals in eight matches.

We appreciate the quality of opposition we face today and have fully prepared a game plan that gives us the ascendancy to take control of the game, which we have made very apparent to the squad that owning the ball this afternoon is going to be huge.

For us we return to league action having played cup fixtures in our last two matches where we again continued the great form we find ourselves in having beaten Woking here last Saturday setting up a great First Round tie against League One opposition in Wigan Athletic.

We then had the task of facing Middlesbrough in the National Cup where the winner would top the group and guarantee progression into the quarter final, they arrived at Meadow Park having recorded three wins in three and a goal difference of +14.

We watched them at length and envisaged a tough evening in front of us and selected a side that showed intent and I have to say the players delivered across the board. The manner in which they performed was excellent and showed a real understanding to my messaging about standards and momentum.

To go and win 7-1 in any fixture is impressive but to do it against a side that had really shown its strength previously in the competition was extra pleasing.

I speak openly to the dressing room about being a party of a positive conversation come the end of the match and I have to say there were many performances that stood out on the evening which made for a great selection headache for today's match.

We now have a fully fit and healthy squad, which boasts 22 players of real quality and competition across all areas of the pitch.

This is going to be huge for our consistency especially going into another really busy period where we have eight fixtures in just over 4 weeks which is roughly a game every four days.

And having the luxury of the strength and depth we have available will really aid us in keeping a freshness to the team and also a high standard to the way in which we want to present.

I am extremely demanding and that is during the week also, so understanding and appreciating when to stick and when to twist is going to be key.

All the players are aware of the "greater good" and to appreciate that they need to be ready when called upon and to fully maintain the levels of their peers when given the shirt.

I know and understand that there will be natural disappointment as that's just a human emotion but I genuinely believe that the whole group will definitely bring value in the coming weeks and that's been extremely evident in our last two matches where apart from the long term injured players, all the squad have been utilised and they have shown they are all more than capable of delivering on the ambition we have set ourselves in-house.

Back to this afternoon, it's another great opportunity for us to grow again as a group, as I said we are nowhere near where I feel we can get to. There are levels in this dressing room and we are far from our ceiling which pleases me immensely.

We have really stretched the group again in the last week where we are drip feeding even more ideas and knowledge for them to take on board.

We are seeing a huge improvement and the most pleasing aspect is the way in which the players themselves are taking accountability on the pitch and the messaging is being drummed in on a daily basis.

To have a group as receptive as this and as open to learning is so rewarding for myself and the staff, we are seeing a growth mindset across the whole club which is extremely important for continued success.

Now we need to maintain our standards and have the belief and confidence to deliver on another really positive performance that warrants us to get a big three points today.

Let's get right behind the boys and collectively get this place rocking.

I hope you enjoy the game and look forward to seeing you all.

Be loud. Be proud. B'Wood.

Luke

Feature interview: Danny Cashman

"We like to think of ourselves though and how we can hurt them - we are on a great run and we don't want that to stop."

For a team to navigate the gruelling demands of a 46-game league campaign, competition for places must be fierce - something reflected in Luke Garrard's breadth of attacking options.

Danny Cashman is one of those who has had to bide his time for a starring role, but he is now beginning to reap the rewards of his patience.

A summer arrival on loan from Crawley Town, the 25-year-old has been in fine form of late with three goals in as many matches.

Following a composed strike to secure all three points against Altrincham, he followed that up with the second at Sutton United before a sublime effort from distance against Woking in the Emirates FA Cup.

Cashman was keen to express his delight in his recent performances.

"It's always nice to be back scoring consistently, something I've been wanting to do for a while now," he admitted.

"I always back myself to contribute with goals or assists when I get chances in the team.

"It's about staying patient, remembering what I'm good at and what I can bring to the side."

His versatility across the forward line is a valuable weapon at his disposal, with the likes of Tarryn Allarakhia, Lewis Richardson, Ben Whitfield and others all vying for a place in the starting eleven.

Cashman recognises the value of competition for places.

"Competition is always good in a team but I think what makes it different here is how close we are as a group," the ex-Worthing star explained.

"There are no bad characters and everyone is on the same page - one comes in and one goes out.

"I always want to play and I want to play every minute possible but we have a good squad and there is always going to be rotation, especially in the forward line."

Aiming to extend our lead at the summit to ten points, seventh-placed AFC Fylde make the trip down to Hertfordshire having made a bright start following their title-winning Enterprise National League North campaign.

A side who have impressed on the road, most notably with a victory at Harrogate Town last month, Cashman expects the Coasters to pose a stern test.

"I think it will be a good footballing game," he said.

"They play good football and have had a great start to the season as well so it should be a good advert for the league.

"We like to think of ourselves though and how we can hurt them - we are on a great run and we don't want that to stop."

Touching down at Meadow Park in the summer on a season-long loan, the former Brighton & Hove Albion academy forward is yet to taste defeat since arriving.

Cashman feels he has adapted to his new surroundings with ease but feels there is still more to come from him on the pitch.

"It was easy coming in to be honest," the two-time England U17 international admitted.

"I was worried about joining as personal things at home were making the decision a bit harder but from a footballing perspective, it was a no-brainer.

"I was always honest to the club about my situation which they have been great to me about and I'm very thankful to the staff involved for that.

"I still don't think I've played my best stuff - I've had glimpses but I was injured for eight months last year so I have to be cautious in how I think about my form.

"The longer the season goes on, I know I'll get better - I'm on five goals now so I want to get to the ten-to-fifteen mark and help the Club achieve something special this year."

In the dugout

Craig Mahon

Manager • Last club managed: Curzon Ashton

Mahon is relatively new to the management scene, having taken over at Mill Farm at the beginning of the 2025/26 season, following his first stint in the hot seat at Curzon Ashton, in which the Coasters took the Enterprise National League North by storm, recording 100 points and securing the title on the final day with victory away at Merthyr Town. Prior to which, Craig enjoyed a playing career spanning beyond 15 years, in which he made over 500 appearances, most recognisably featuring for Chester and Curzon Ashton, inbetween which Mahon also had a brief loan spell at Fylde before returning as Head Coach last season.

One's to watch

Forward • 16/09/2004 (22) • Last club: Leeds United

Thomas joined the Coasters as one of Mahon's first recruits in the summer of 2025 from Leeds United, following impressive loan spells at both York City and Halifax Town and played a key part in Fylde's return to the National League last season, with 22 goals and 13 assists in a successful first campaign at Mill Farm, and has already recorded six goals in the first twelve games of this season from the wing, posing a major goal threat for the Wood this afternoon.

Gregg Olley

Midfielder • 02/02/1996 (30) • Last club: York City

Olley is one of the more senior members of Mahon's squad, though also one of the newest, having only joined the Club six weeks ago following a memorable promotion-winning season with York City. Greg began his playing career at Hull City, though made his mark in the north east at Gateshead, where he made almost 200 appearances and scored 35 goals in seven seasons, for the latter half of which he was Club Captain and led the Tynesiders out at Wembley in the FA Trophy Final. Olley was added to Fylde's ranks in the hope of repeating the same feat as last season.

Harvey Broad

Defender • 15/09/2005 (21) • Last club: Coventry City

The 21-year-old full-back is another danger man for the Wood to be aware of today. On loan from Coventry City, Harvery has already provided eleven goal contributions for the Coasters this season, having made his first mark in senior football on loan at Dagenham & Redbridge last season and was recruited by Mahon in the summer to aid Fylde's hopes of consolidating their position in the National League, if not more.

Tuesday 26 September 2023, 19:45 | Vanarama National League

Boreham Wood were denied all three points at Mill Farm Stadium after AFC Fylde scored a late equaliser to secure a share of the spoils.

The hosts took the lead through Danny Whitehead on 17 minutes, but Angelo Balanta levelled six minutes later to ensure the sides went into half-time on equal terms.

Balanta struck again on 72 minutes, completing his brace and putting Wood ahead. However, Owen Evans scored late on to rescue a point for Fylde and deny Luke Garrard's side a valuable away victory.

Kabongo Tshimanga opened the scoring on six minutes, before Fylde defender Ethan Mitchell turned the ball into his own net to double Wood's advantage on 28 minutes.

Matt Robinson added a third just before half-time, giving Luke Garrard's side a commanding lead at the break. Tshimanga then completed his brace on 85 minutes, finishing off a convincing afternoon for Wood.

Classic campaigns: AFC Fylde

Football historian Leigh Edwards selects ten post-war AFC Fylde 'Classic Campaigns'

2007/08

Kirkham & Wesham won the FA Vase at the first attempt in 2007/08. Mick Fuller's side defeated Worsbrough Bridge 3-0, Brodsworth MW 4-3, Parkgate 5-0, West Auckland Town 3-0, Newcastle Benfield 5-2, Studley 3-0, Crowborough Athletic 2-0, Coventry Sphinx 1-0 and Needham Market 4-2 en route to the final. Two late goals from teenage substitute Matt Walwyn secured a dramatic 2-1 victory over Lowestoft Town watched by 19,537 at Wembley Stadium. Kirkham & Wesham began life in the North West Counties League First Division with a 5-0 win at home to Darwen and secured promotion as runners-up when they defeated Castleton Gabriels 3-1.

2008/09

The newly-named AFC Fylde won the North West Counties League Premier Division title at the first attempt in 2008/09. The Coasters won 33 of their 42 North West Counties League games and scored 122 goals, slamming six past Abbey Hey, Ashton Athletic and Runcorn Linnets as well as five past Formby, New Mills and Winsford United. Mick Fuller's side remained unbeaten at home and gained a record 104 points, pipping New Mills to the title on goal difference as they won promotion to the First Division (North) of the Northern Premier League. AFC Fylde lost their grip on the FA Vase after losing 2-1 at home to Needham Market in a fourth round replay.

2011/12

AFC Fylde stormed to the Northern Premier League First Division (North) title in 2011/12. Ex-Republic of Ireland international goalkeeper Kelham O'Hanlon was dismissed as manager in November 2011 after a poor run of results and replaced by Dave Challinor. The Coasters were 16 points off the top when he arrived at the club but quickly surged up the table. They trounced Harrogate Railway Athletic 7-0, Clitheroe 6-2 and Ossett Town 5-0, clinching the title with a 1–0 win over Salford City at Kellamergh Park. AFC Fylde won 31 of their 42 Northern Premier League games and gained 99 points, finishing seven ahead of runners-up Curzon Ashton.

2013/14

AFC Fylde won promotion to the Conference North in 2013/14. The Coasters lost just one of their opening 13 matches, hammering Worksop 6-1 and Droylsden 5-0 in consecutive games. Brad Barnes scored five goals in their 10-0 win in the return match at Droylsden and Dave Challinor's side dropped only six points in a 17 match unbeaten run. Matt Blinkhorn was top scorer with 17 goals as they qualified for the Northern Premier League Premier Division play-offs in fifth place. AFC Fylde beat Worksop 3-1 in the semi-finals, then Ashton 4-3 on penalties after a 1-1 draw in the final. They also won the League Cup and Lancashire FA Challenge Trophy.

2015/16

AFC Fylde reached the Conference North play-off final in 2015/16. The Coasters started with a 3-0 defeat at eventual champions Solihull Moors but lost just one of their next 14 Conference North games including a 5-0 win over Stalybridge Celtic. Dave Challinor's side also reached the FA Cup first round proper, losing 3-1 at Millwall. They won 22 of their 42 Conference North games and qualified for the play-offs in third place with 75 points. Sam Finley's spectacular 'Goal of the Season' clinched AFC Fylde's 2-1 aggregate win over Harrogate Town in the play-off semi-final but the Coasters lost 2-1 to North Ferriby United after extra-time in the final.

2016/17

AFC Fylde won the Conference North title in 2016/17. Dave Challinor's side won 11 times in a 15 match unbeaten start. The run ended with a 1-0 defeat at Tamworth but they bounced back with a 5-0 victory over Stalybridge, then hammered Boston United 9-2. The Coasters' solitary home defeat was 2-0 against Chorley watched by a record 3,858 crowd on Boxing Day. They crashed to a 5-0 defeat at Salford in early February but lost just one of their final 14 games, with Danny Rowe breaking the club goalscoring record with his winner at Halifax. AFC Fylde scored 109 goals as they gained 88 points, finishing six ahead of runners-up Kidderminster.

2017/18

AFC Fylde qualified for the Conference National play-offs in 2017/18. Dave Challinor's newly-promoted side lost just one of their opening seven matches. They beat Wrexham and Kidderminster Harriers en route to the FA Cup second round proper, drawing 1-1 at home to League One leaders Wigan Athletic before losing 3-2 in the replay. The Coasters won five times in a six match unbeaten run after Christmas, hammering promotion winners Tranmere Rovers 5-2 and Macclesfield Town 6-0. Leading marksman Danny Rowe grabbed a hat-trick in a 7-1 win over Aldershot and AFC Fylde qualified for the play-offs in seventh place, losing 2-1 to Boreham Wood.

2018/19

AFC Fylde won the FA Trophy and were Conference National play-off finalists in 2018/19. Dave Challinor's side lost just one of their opening 18 Conference games including a 6-0 victory at Maidenhead United. The Coasters also slammed six goals past Havant & Waterlooville and Danny Rowe was top scorer with 27 goals as they qualified for the play-offs in fifth place. They beat Harrogate and Solihull Moors but lost 3-0 to Salford City in the Wembley final. AFC Fylde defeated Stratford, Biggleswade, Ramsbottom, Barnet and Stockport County en route to the FA Trophy final, with Rowe scoring to clinch a 1-0 win over Leyton Orient at Wembley.

2022/23

AFC Fylde won the Conference North title in 2022/23. The Coasters lost only two of their opening ten games before manager James Rowe resigned. Interim-boss Andy Taylor guided them to the FA Cup first round proper and they drew 1-1 at home to Gillingham but lost 1-0 in the replay, the first match under new manager Adam Murray. AFC Fylde lost 2-1 at home to Chorley on Boxing Day but dropped just two other points in the space of 14 matches. They triumphed 1-0 at title rivals King's Lynn in March and won their final four games to clinch the title with 95 points, finishing two points ahead of King's Lynn. Nick Haughton was top scorer with 26 goals.

2025/26

AFC Fylde won the Conference North title again in 2025/26. Craig Mahon's side won 32 of their 46 games and were highest scorers with 112 goals. They netted five goals both home and away against Peterborough Sports and Spennymoor Town, also at home to Curzon Ashton and Macclesfield. Leading marksman Danny Ormerod and Luca Thomas scored 49 goals between them. Amassing 100 points, the Coasters finished five points ahead of runners-up South Shields as they regained Conference National status at the first attempt. They also reached the FA Trophy fifth round, beating Spennymoor, Solihull Moors and Hereford before losing 1-0 to Southport.
