Tonight, we welcome our good friends from Aldershot to the Mangata Developments Stadium, Meadow Park. May I wish their directors, manager, players and supporters a pleasant stay with us and a safe journey home.

Firstly, if I may, I would like to belatedly congratulate Luke Garrard and Zak Brunt on their National League Manager and Player of the Month awards. Both awards are hugely deserved, and it was nice to see that Luke and Zak's excellence throughout October was rightly recognised.

Secondly, can I thank the 'Wood Army', our town and our wider community for truly getting behind the team from game one this season and boy did you surpass yourselves at Southend last Friday.

It's already clear that we'll break our average home attendance record this season, and the support we're receiving, both home and away, is making a huge difference to Luke and the dressing room. That support, trust me, will help enormously as we try to secure that one automatic promotion spot.

As we now near the end of November, our unbeaten run in all competitions finally came to an end on November 7th, when we lost 3-0 here to League One Wigan Athletic in the FA Cup First Round.

For me, though, the bigger news is that we've remained unbeaten in the league after two tough trips to Yeovil Town and Southend United, and that has enabled us to maintain a healthy points lead at the top of the table.

In truth, if there was one positive to come out of our FA Cup loss to Wigan, it was that it gave us the opportunity to bring forward our home midweek league game against Sutton United by three days, as the original fixture was scheduled for Tuesday, December 8th.

With neither club having a game on Saturday, December 5th, due to our respective opponents, Barrow and Kidderminster, both still being involved in the FA Cup, it made total sense to try to bring our Sutton fixture forward.

Not only would it have helped both clubs, but more importantly, it would have helped the players, staff, supporters and families of both clubs by allowing the game to be played on a Saturday afternoon rather than three days later on a Tuesday night.

As such, we asked our friends at Sutton if they would agree to the change, and the only reason given for refusing our request was, "manager said no".

So, yet again, the players, fans and staff of both clubs suffer, but especially the travelling supporters, who are seemingly put second for no fathomable reason...

As an aside, in terms of our early-season indicators, I'm told they show we would need a complete collapse to fall out of the top three, and that it's now very unlikely, given our points advantage, that three other clubs will catch us.

I'm not sure how those indicators work, but with our squad's ability and current mindset, a top-three finish is not even in our psyche. Nothing but the title would satisfy our manager, dressing room or supporters.

Of course, we know anything can happen in football, as was seen when we gave up a 2-0 lead with just 12 minutes left at Wembley back in May.

That was followed by a penalty shootout defeat, so we know what pain feels like, and we know just how unforgiving and cruel this game can be.

For the record, to have wiped our mouths like we have, to have regrouped like we have and to have responded like we have shows everyone our mindset. But mostly, it shows the fortitude and courage of Luke, my staff, our players and our football club.

In life, if you come from nothing, it doesn't have to define you. That said, you must be able to deal with hardship, adversity and setbacks in equal measure, even if it calls for you to stand up and fight when others need you.

I've learned you can't keep looking back. You must look forward, you must wipe your mouth and you must find a way to deal with defeat or failure with good grace.

When you get to my stage in life, you must, in those tough moments like our Wembley defeat, lead your club, town and community correctly. You must let them know that together we'll find the strength to go again.

On those occasions, you rally the troops where possible, but you must also take others with you.

In hindsight, it's what we've tried to do here for 28 years, and I believe that by nurturing strong relationships, often through adversity, it has helped me create a club that now understands itself. In turn, that has helped underpin our strong start to this season.

Our record-breaking start tells you everything you need to know about Luke, my staff, our players and this football club.

I already knew they had character in abundance, but could they overcome the pain and heartbreak of what they endured at Wembley?

They've already answered any concerns I had, and what they're presently doing is both groundbreaking and unprecedented.

That said, it's important we remind each other after every game that we're not even at the halfway stage of the season, and our record-breaking start has put a giant target on our backs.

We accept the title is not yet ours, and we accept the title is still very much up for grabs.

For my part, having won two league titles and three play-offs, albeit in the lower divisions, I can opine that nothing is ever won this side of Easter.

In truth, I'm enjoying the brand of football we're playing this season. I'm enjoying my staff, our players and our supporters, and if I'm honest, it feels "bloody lovely" to receive nice texts, nice letters, nice cards, nice messages and numerous positive emails from so many of our supporters, both old and new.

As Luke and the players will testify, I'm not one to visit the training pitch, gym area or changing rooms with soundbites or words of wisdom for the players, which appears to be in vogue nowadays with many of the new chairmen and owners within this league.

I believe strongly that the training pitch, gym and changing areas are Luke's and his staff's place of work, and the players' safe space.

That said, I do feel it's important at times that they all know the football they're producing has been a joy to watch this season and is, by far, the best I've ever seen in my time here.

It's also been heartwarming to observe the closeness of everyone who works for me and our football club this season, and I include the gaffer, my staff, the players, their families, you supporters and even our over-60s coffee club in that.

To see our club and fan base so happy and content at the moment is joyous, and I feel it's our quiet inner friendships and strength that have underpinned our wonderful start.

At present, I feel extremely blessed, and when I put my head on the pillow, I know I'm a very lucky Chairman.

In truth, it's joyous to work with good people who show energy, positivity, loyalty and passion, because when you align those things with a group of players who have genuine character and talent, it becomes a very powerful mix.

Most of my inner circle have been with me for years, if not decades, and they work so hard for you, me and the football club.

As a local man, I can feel the love, trust, care and energy from both staff and players alike towards what is a tiny, underdog, community football club, and that is truly a gift from God.

I apologise in advance if these are slightly gushy programme notes.

I know I should perhaps be sending out more warning shots to those who think the title is already ours, but I don't feel I need to, as my manager and players already know that nothing has been achieved yet.

Every day, we remind each other that we've played just 39% of our league programme, although we're well aware that percentage is rising weekly.

Trust me, we're not complacent and remain on the lookout for players who might strengthen us. We know it's vital to get our recruitment, signings and loans right over the next four months.

If opportunities do present themselves, then we'll push the boat out and allow both Luke and Charlie to begin recruiting for League Two.

I believe IF we can improve our squad a tad, and IF we can get our recruitment right in the short term, then I feel we'll go on to win this league, and win it big this season.

But it's still a very big IF...

However, if we recruit poorly or try to do things cheaply, if we believe our own publicity, if we get complacent or in any way lose focus, then all bets are off.

We'll end up in a dogfight with some very big clubs in this league, who will most certainly emerge from the chasing pack to try to hunt us down.

If I'm honest, I don't expect us to lose focus, collapse or recruit poorly, as Luke Garrard, Charlie Hunter, my staff and our players are talented, driven and focused.

So, as long as our communication, work ethic and relationships remain strong, then I'm more than happy to financially underwrite all things, both on and off the pitch, moving forward to get us over the line.

Other Club News

The new £4.25 million South End Project, which will ensure our stadium and wider facilities are fit for the EFL, is moving ahead at pace, is fully funded, on schedule and on budget.

Over the next two weeks, we'll be craning in our new changing room block, which includes two further changing rooms, two officials' changing rooms and an extra staff office.

Once in place, it will be sealed, decorated, fitted out, alarmed up, Wi-Fi connected and made fit for purpose.

For clarity, this part of the project (Phase 1) has involved a lot of planning, four-metre-deep screw piling, as the ground conditions were so poor, and a metal grid frame created as a base to facilitate what turned out to be a complicated groundwork design.

As such, when the base is complete, it will involve craning seven separate prefabricated units onto said base. These seven units make up the complete prefabricated building, which is being constructed off-site to minimise disruption and noise to the local nursery, while keeping things on schedule.

By doing things this way, it's been slightly more complicated, but in truth, more cost-effective.

That said, we've experienced a few teething troubles with our chosen contractor, Portable Offices, but I'm hopeful those issues are now behind us.

By way of explanation, after the delivery of the units, there obviously comes a period for the final fit-out, decoration, connections and finishing details. However, it was not made clear to me when I placed the order that those fit-out works, decorations and connections would take a further six weeks to complete, so I was not a happy bunny.

That said, this delay is something we can cope with, and I hope that by the end of January 2027, we'll have an amazing new addition to our facilities.

These continued on-site improvements are very important for our growth as a football club and will no doubt assist Luke, the first team, our academy and our community moving forward. For transparency, most of the groundworks in Phases 1 and 2, other than the new astro pitch, are underway.

As such, I can now concentrate on some of the finer details rather than involve myself in conversations regarding setting out, drainage design, ground levels or the formation of the new South End supporter pathway.

For clarity, in regard to Phase 2, we must complete all the new walkways, the new road and the new entrance to the away fan zone by February 2027.

Completion of Phase 2 must also include the installation of six new digital turnstiles, palisade fencing, wooden fencing, brickwork, gates and tarmacking. On top of that, we must install new toilets, a new catering unit, two new bar units, lighting, signage, connections and all things in between.

For our works programme to succeed, Phases 1 and 2 must be fully completed and operational before we begin Phase 3. In simple terms, percentage-wise, Phase 3 now comprises 60% new South Stand, 15% new astro pitch, 15% new service road and wheel wash, and 10% new pitch fence line and new water tank.

For your information, the new digital turnstiles, toilets, bar and catering units have all been chosen and pre-purchased, and the deals are done. However, our lighting design and signage choices are not yet finalised.

Being an experienced film property master does, of course, help me, but the last phase of this project is going to be a complete headache and more than a tad tricky. It will no doubt involve a few sleepless nights, but I must remind myself that I need to remain fluid, pragmatic and adaptable.

The key to finishing a project like this on budget is patience, skilful programming, a lot of problem-solving, good ground conditions and careful crane work when dealing with heavy steels.

I'm lucky to have a good site manager, a very competent QS and an experienced main contractor, who must all deal with many of these moving parts, involving a number of skilled trades working within limited space and a tight timeframe.

In terms of those moving parts, they include a number of third-party contractors who will build the astro pitch, install Wi-Fi, cabling, fibre optics, sound systems, pigeon netting, lighting, signage, fencing, brickwork and gates, etc.

On top of that little lot, we'll need to rebuild our existing service road after getting rid of the crane and install a wheel wash for the grounds team.

In truth, it's still not clear to me when the new control room and maintenance office will be programmed in, so all in all, there's still a lot to think about. The good news for me is that the problem-solving process started some time ago.

As such, architect Paul Beech, QS Matt Foster and site manager Mark Matthews, along with Daniel Hunter, have already started resolving many of those outstanding problems.

In terms of the South Stand costs, they've already been part-paid, as I chose to pay a percentage up front because I needed to fix the steel prices and not be reliant on any further actions of Donald Trump in the Middle East.

Throughout this process, it's important to ensure the overall project doesn't run away from me. It's important that I stay fully focused on cost control, stay on top of our contractors and utility installations, and remain fully understanding of any water tank, ground levels, lighting, drainage, fire regulations or fence line issues.

As you would expect, some of these things are a tad demanding. So, I'm delighted to report, as we enter the third month of the build, that we're on schedule, on budget, and I feel I'm just about on top of what is turning into a complicated three-phase project.

Tonight, though, is only about the football and our immediate ambitions, as we try to secure another three points. Three points that we hope will take us closer to fulfilling our collective ambitions.

Our manager and this talented squad are aware that we cannot play the underdog card any longer, as this league knows we have nothing on our minds other than victory tonight and the one automatic promotion place on offer.

We've met Aldershot many times here in the past, and we know Scott Davis well from his Slough Town days. Scott and his staff will no doubt have their team well organised and well prepared, and they'll be more than ready to come here and put a dent in our promotion hopes.

We, of course, will need to deal with that. We'll need to focus on ourselves, and in truth, I have great belief that both Luke and the dressing room know exactly what's required of them this evening.

Lastly, whoever you support, let's hope for an open, attacking game, and may the best team win.

Take care,

Danny

DAZN

Good evening. Firstly, I would like to welcome Scott Davies and his staff and players to Meadow Park for tonight's National League fixture.

Aldershot started the league campaign superbly, remaining unbeaten in their first six fixtures recording 2 points per game and setting an early pace at the top end of the table.

They have struggled recently only recording two wins in their last eight fixtures, their early season pace has allowed for them to have a poor spell but I can imagine Scott and his staff will be looking to return to their early season form to kickstart their campaign.

We have watched them at length and have identified where they have their strengths and the game they want to play, we need to ensure we conform to how we play and take control of the ball as soon as possible.

They have a certain style that has given them joy and we need to be good at what we do and be great at what they do. If we combine both these aspects of the game with an attitude we will have success this evening.

For us it's maintaining our levels and our standards, I speak openly about it in every pre and post match interview, "it's only ever about us".

We have a group here that understands my demands and what that looks like daily and regardless of whether we are playing away at Southend United in front of 10,000 or at home against Aldershot Town in front of 1,500 the intensity to our work remains.

We have an agenda that we have all agreed to give 100% of our time, energy and belief regardless of the opposition, we are congruent to our messaging and we deliver on what we have set out as a collective.

That was hugely evident on Friday evening, the first half performance for me was possibly the best I've seen us play in a long time.

The whole shape, organisation and fluidity to our play was mesmerising. From the first minute to the last in that first 45 was everything we could have asked for from the team.

There was a maturity to our work, the togetherness to our pressing and the way we opened them up on several occasions was a joy to watch.

Could we have been even more clinical in spells of the game, possibly yes, but for me to record three first half goals away to a title challenger was extremely pleasing.

The second half showed we had resilience and a strong underbelly, to go and concede two quick successive goals and to hear the roof come off at Roots Hall and yet remain calm and show a unity to our work and to get over the line is exactly what I wanted in my team.

We speak about "what winning looks like" and that last 20 mins showed a level of experience and game understanding which for a side that wants to go and win a division will need in abundance.

Lastly I want to genuinely thank all the travelling fans, you were incredible. To sell out our allocation away to Southend with 400+ away fans just shows you how much you are invested in this squad.

The way you out sung the home support and drove us on to finish the job was very much appreciated.

Now get right behind us in our next 3 league fixtures, fill that North Bank and give us the energy to continue this run we are on and together we can really enjoy the back end of this year going into 2027 with a dream that we can finally make come true.

I hope you enjoy the game and look forward to seeing you all.

Be loud. Be proud. B'Wood.

Simpson (65), Richards (67)		Bainbridge (19), Whitfield (29), Brunt (33)

Friday 20 November 2026, 19:00 — Enterprise National League

Boreham Wood secured a fantastic victory over Southend United in front of 10,000 supporters in Essex.

The Wood made a flying start, taking the lead in the 19th minute when Ollie Bainbridge finished brilliantly after a superb pass from Booty. The side from WD6 then doubled their advantage ten minutes later, with Whitfield finishing from close range following another excellent Booty pass. They then made it three in the 33rd minute as Zak Brunt fired home from a Whitfield cross, sending the travelling supporters into wild celebrations.

Southend fought back in the second half, with Tyreece Simpson heading home in the 64th minute before Richards struck again just three minutes later. Despite a nervy finish, Boreham Wood held their nerve to claim a huge three points with a statement victory.

Saturday 14 November 2026, 15:00 — Enterprise National League

Boreham Wood earned a valuable point on the road after battling back to claim a 2-2 draw against a strong Yeovil Town side in Somerset.

The Wood made a bright start and took an early lead when Tylor Golden converted from close range. Yeovil responded well, with Archie Davies levelling the score on 27 minutes with a composed finish. The hosts then turned the game on its head just three minutes later, as Slavi Spasov calmly converted from the penalty spot to give Yeovil a 2-1 half-time advantage.

Both sides continued to create chances in an entertaining contest, with Boreham Wood showing determination in their search for an equaliser. Their persistence was rewarded late on when Lewis Richardson found the back of the net, securing a well-deserved share of the spoils.

Mellish (11), Fox (36, 74)

Saturday 7 November 2026, 15:00 — Emirates FA Cup 1st Round Proper

Boreham Wood's FA Cup journey came to an end with a 3-0 defeat against League One side Wigan Athletic, who had the majority of the chances despite the Wood controlling much of the contest at Meadow Park.

The visitors took the lead after 10 minutes when Jon Mellish produced a clinical finish beyond Ted Curd. Wigan doubled their advantage on 35 minutes through Morgan Fox, whose superb 25-yard free kick flew into the top corner, giving the Wood goalkeeper little chance.

Despite showing determination throughout, Boreham Wood struggled to create many threatening opportunities against a well organised Wigan side. The visitors added a third goal in the second-half to put the tie beyond doubt and secure their place in the next round, ending the Wood's 2026/27 FA Cup run.

Feature interview: Tarryn Allarakhia

"It's good to have the experience of getting promoted last year but the positive thing is, I'm not the only one with it."

Tarryn Allarakhia has been pleased with his recent displays, but feels there is still more to come.

The 29-year-old arrived at Meadow Park in the summer and has made an immediate impression, establishing himself as a regular in the forward line while becoming a popular figure in the group with his infectious personality.

Notching his first goal in the league against Harrogate Town in September and assisting on two occasions, the Tanzania international explains how he is relishing his role in the team.

"It has been really good, I've been enjoying every single minute and opportunity when I'm called upon," he said.

"I've been really happy with my performances but I'm always looking to improve and give more to the team.

"I'm very fortunate to be playing in a team with such high-quality players all around the pitch."

A 3-2 victory at Southend United on Friday night extended our lead at the summit to 13 points, helped by Harrogate Town's defeat at the weekend.

It was a dream start as goals from Oliver Bainbridge, Ben Whitfield and Zak Brunt saw Luke Garrard's side take a three-goal lead by the 33rd minute.

The Shrimpers' fightback was short-lived in the second period with two goals in as many minutes but the Wood held firm, with Allarakhia full of praise for the performance.

"It was a great win and very well-deserved as we showed all different aspects of our game," the ex-Woking and Wealdstone forward explained.

"I thought that in the first-half, it was an absolute joy to play and watch.

"The goals and patterns of play were incredible but our work rate off the ball to win it back was even better.

"We know as a team what we can improve upon and we will work on that going forward to make sure we grow stronger as a team.

"I thought in the second-half, we showed a lot of fight and courage to get over the line."

Aldershot Town make the trip to Hertfordshire on Wednesday, having ended a run of one win in seven last time out thanks to a much-needed 2-0 victory over Scunthorpe United.

Under the leadership of Scott Davies, the Shots have shown plenty of promise this term, including noteworthy victories over Harrogate and Tamworth, and sit in 12th place.

Having played an instrumental role in Rochdale's promotion via the play-offs last term, Allarakhia believes that experience will stand him in good stead this season.

"We don't look at teams' form or anything like that," he admitted.

"We take one game at a time and we move on to Aldershot.

"We know it's going to be a tough game but we know we need to worry about ourselves and keep our performance levels high so we can get a positive result.

"We want to keep our momentum and we need to keep performing and keep improving as a team and that's all we can do."

"It's always nice to be top of the league and we want to enjoy it but we know we can't take our foot off the gas and we need to keep pushing and wanting more.

"It's good to have the experience of getting promoted last year but the positive thing is, I'm not the only one with it.

"We've got a bunch of players with a lot of experience which will help us even more going forward."

Scott Davies

Manager • Last club managed: Slough Town

Scott Davies took charge of the Shots in April 2026, following a move from Slough Town. Davies gained his experience in a player-manager role at Slough. His highest finish with the Rebels, being 10th in the National League South.

One's to watch

Goalkeeper • 10/04/1999 (27) • Last club: Hartlepool United

Nick joined the Shots in June 2026. A National League veteran, the goalkeeper has racked up over 100 appearances in the division for clubs including Southend United, Solihull Moors, Barnet and Hartlepool United. Growing up locally in Hampshire, Michael is a long serving Aldershot Town fan and was proud to be awarded the captain's armband for this season, alongside fellow defender, Kiki Oshilaja. So far this campaign he has made 19 combined FA Cup and league appearances, scoring one goal, in the Shots home FA Cup tie with Tadley Calleva FC.

Dom Odusanya

Tuesday 24 March 2026, 19:45

Enterprise National League

Boreham Wood claimed an impressive victory over Aldershot Town in testing conditions, with goals from Matt Rush and Regan Booty securing all three points.

Battling heavy rain and strong winds throughout, the Wood showed resilience and quality to edge a closely contested encounter. Rush opened the scoring with a well-taken finish before Booty produced the standout moment of the afternoon, spotting the goalkeeper off his line and sensationally finding the net from near the halfway line.

Boreham Wood remained disciplined defensively to protect their advantage against a determined Aldershot side. The hard-fought win capped a professional display by the Wood, who overcame the challenging conditions to return home with a valuable three points.

Abdulmalik (16)	1-0

Tuesday 4 November 2025, 19:45

Enterprise National League

Boreham Wood strengthened their play-off ambitions with a victory over Aldershot Town, thanks to a moment of pure brilliance from Abdul Abdulmalik. In a challenging affair, chances were at a premium as both sides battled for control.

The decisive moment arrived when Abdulmalik produced a goal to remember, striking from distance with an effort that left the Shots' goalkeeper with no chance of saving. Aldershot pushed for an equaliser in the closing stages, but Boreham Wood remained authoritative in defence to protect their advantage.

The victory provided another three, valuable points giving the Wood a significant boost to their push for a place in the National League play-offs.

Classic campaigns: Aldershot Town

1963/64

Aldershot defeated top-flight Aston Villa en route to the FA Cup fourth round in 1963/64. Alan Woan grabbed a hat-trick as the Shots kicked off their Fourth Division campaign with a 4-1 win at home to Hartlepools. They beat Tranmere 5-4 and other highlights included Tony Priscott scoring four times in an 8-2 win over Barrow, then Ron Fogg and Peter Kearns netting hat-tricks in a 7-0 demolition of Stockport as they finished mid-table. In the FA Cup, Aldershot beat Sutton United 4-0 and Torquay 3-2 before drawing 0-0 at Aston Villa. They won 2-1 in the third round replay but lost 2-1 to Swindon in the fourth round.

1969/70

Jack Howarth and Dennis Brown scored 36 goals between them as Aldershot finished sixth in the Fourth Division in 1969/70. Ex-England international Jimmy Melia became player-manager and signed Dennis Brown from Northampton. The Shots lost just once in 14 Fourth Division matches during mid-season and in the FA Cup defeated Margate 7-2, with Jack Howarth and Dennis Brown netting hat-tricks, then Bristol Rovers 3-1 and Huddersfield Town 3-1 before taking Carlisle United to a fourth round replay. Jimmy Melia and Richard Walden were ever-present, while Jack Howarth and Dennis Brown missed just one match.

1972/73

Steve Melledew was leading marksman with 18 goals as Aldershot won promotion for the first time in 1972/73. Tommy McAnearney returned as manager and goalkeeper Tony Godfrey rejoined the Shots from Rochdale. They were unbeaten in their opening six Fourth Division games and maintained their promotion challenge, with Jack Howarth returning from Rochdale in November. Aldershot lost just one of their last 12 matches, clinching fourth place with a 1-1 draw at Stockport in their final match. Ray Dean, Tony Godfrey and Steve Melledew were ever-present, while five other players missed just seven games between them.

1973/74

Jack Howarth was top scorer with 25 goals as Aldershot finished in their highest-ever position in 1973/74. Summer signings John Richardson and Bob Wallace made their debuts as the newly promoted Shots began life in the Third Division with a 0-0 draw at home to Tranmere. They won just three of their opening 16 matches before a 5-1 win over Wrexham in mid-November sparked an upturn in results. Aldershot lost only twice in 15 games during a mid-season run and Terry Bell grabbed a hat-trick in a 4-0 win over Rochdale, then Jack Howarth repeated the feat in a 6-0 trouncing of Cambridge United. The Shots finished eighth.

1978/79

Ace marksman John Dungworth starred as Aldershot reached the FA Cup fifth round and narrowly missed promotion in 1978/79. Tommy McAnearney's side were unbeaten in their opening six Fourth Division games and triumphed 6-0 at home to Bradford City. In the FA Cup they beat Weymouth 2-0, Barking 2-1, Sheffield United 1-0 and Swindon 2-1 before taking Shrewsbury to a fifth round replay. They maintained their challenge with just one defeat in 25 matches but won only twice in their last six games and finished fifth. John Dungworth scored 34 goals overall, while goalkeeper Glenn Johnson was also ever-present.

1986/87

Len Walker plotted Aldershot's 1987 Fourth Division play-off final success. The Shots won just two of their opening nine games, with Mike Ring grabbing a hat-trick against Lincoln, but three successive wins in December lifted them to sixth place. They beat top-flight Oxford United 3-0 in the FA Cup third round and took Barnsley to a fourth round replay. Aldershot also reached the Freight Rover Trophy southern final. Top scorer Martin Foyle joined Oxford United in March but the Shots had a ten-match unbeaten run and qualified for the play-offs in sixth place. They beat Bolton 3-2, then Wolves 3-0 in the two-legged final.

2002/03

Aldershot Town stormed to the Isthmian League title with a club record 105 points in 2002/03. Terry Brown's side won all but two of their opening 11 Isthmian League games and remained in pole position for the rest of the season. The Shots overcame a mid-season loss of firepower and resisted a late challenge from Canvey Island, with a ten-match unbeaten finish including a 5-1 win over St Albans City and 6-2 demolition of Hendon. England Semi-Pro international Roscoe D'Sane was leading marksman, while experienced trio Paul Moody, Karl Ready and skipper Ray Warburton made a significant contribution.

2003/04

Aldershot Town reached the Conference play-off final in 2003/04. The newly promoted Shots began life in the Conference with a 2-1 victory at home to Accrington Stanley and won their first four matches to go top of the table. They remained in contention with an eight-match unbeaten run and beat Forest Green Rovers and Grays Athletic in the FA Cup before losing 1-0 at Colchester in the second round. Despite failing to win any of their last five games they qualified for the play-offs in fifth place. Aldershot drew 1-1 with Shrewsbury in the final but lost on penalties. Roscoe D'Sane was leading marksman with 27 goals overall.

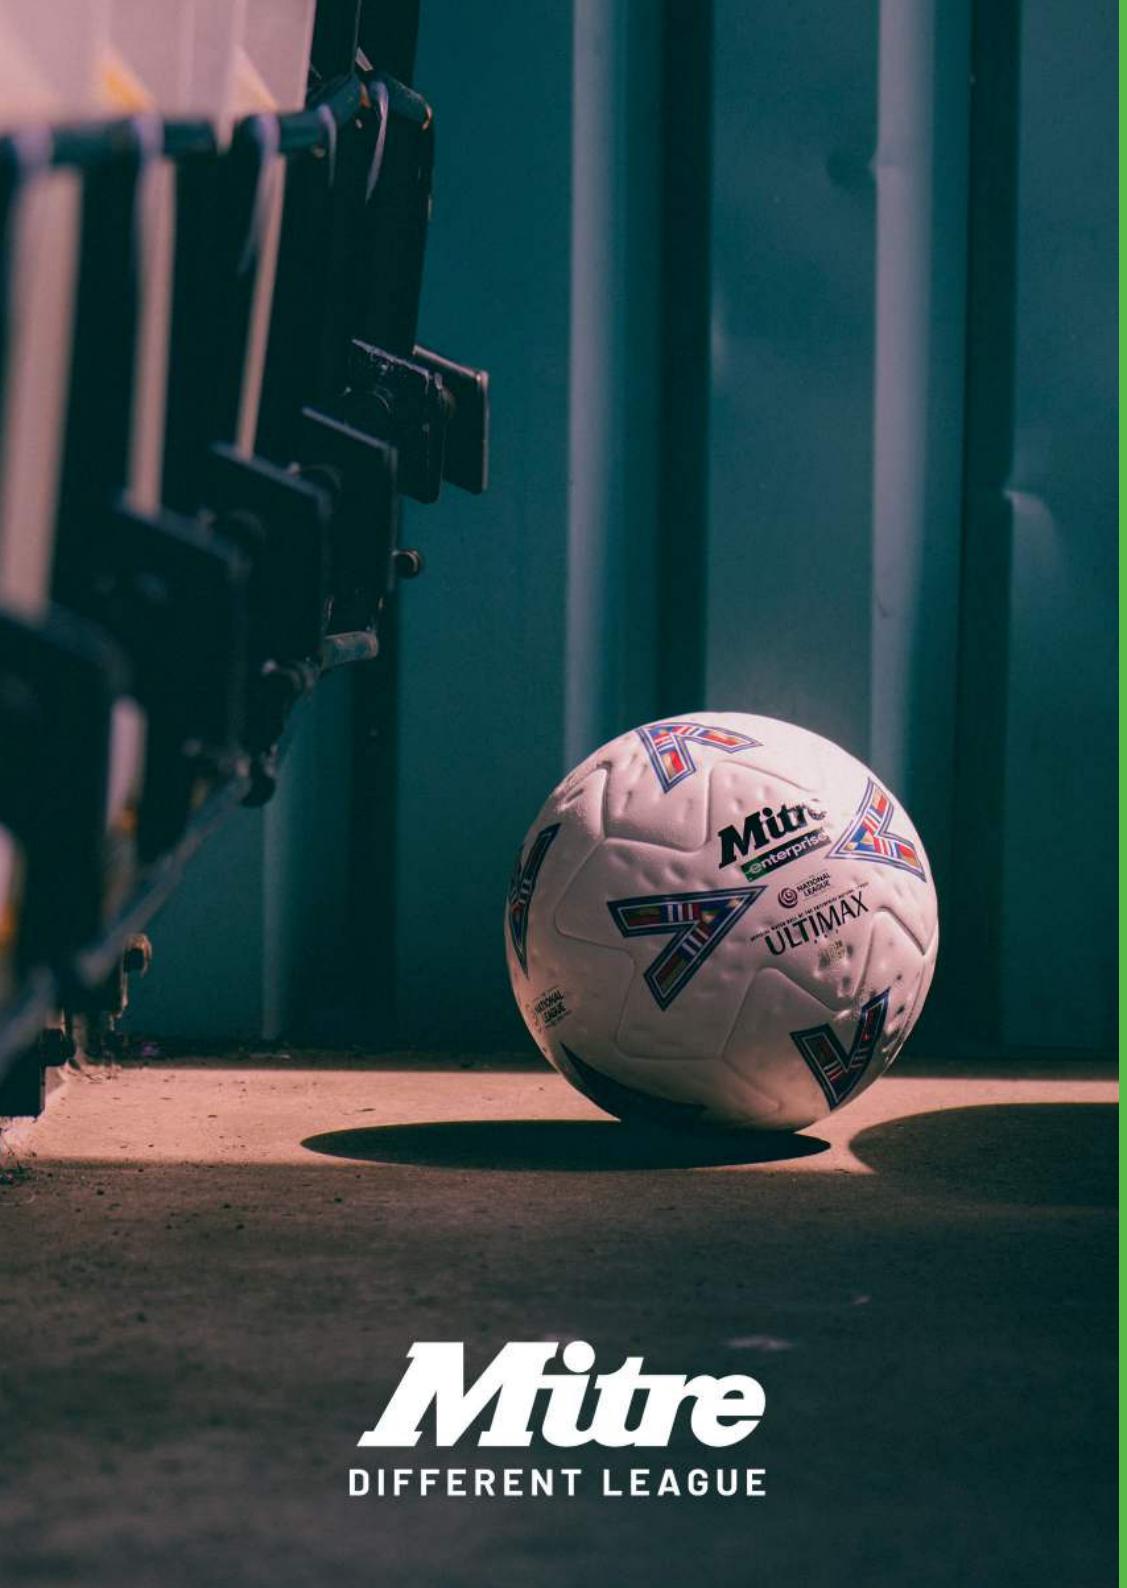

2007/08

New manager Gary Waddock guided Aldershot Town to the Conference title with a record 101 points in 2007/08. The Shots lost two of their first three home games, including a 3-0 defeat by Torquay, but then raced to the top with six straight wins. They lost at Stevenage and Burton, then regained pole position with seven consecutive victories. John Grant was leading marksman with 20 goals as the Shots gained a record 31 wins, finishing 15 points clear at the top. They clinched the 'double' with victory over Rushden & Diamonds in the Setanta Shield but lost to eventual winners Ebbsfleet United in the FA Trophy semi-finals.

2024/25

Aldershot won the FA Trophy in 2024/25. Tommy Widdrington's side beat Wealdstone 3-1, Chertsey Town 8-0, Boreham Wood 2-0, Sittingbourne 3-0 and local rivals Woking 2-1 to reach the FA Trophy final for the first time. Goals by Jack Barham, Dan Ellison and Josh Barrett gave the following team a 3-0 win over Spennymoor in their first visit to Wembley Stadium: Marcus Dewhurst (Jordi van Stappershoef), Luca Woodhouse, Dan Ellison, Will Armitage, Aaron Jones, Tyler Frost (Olly Scott), Dejan Tetek (Kai Corbett), Theo Widdrington, James Henry (Maxwell Mullins), Josh Barrett, Jack Barham (Kwame Thomas).
