DANNY HUNTER

Today we welcome Hornchurch to the Mangata Pay UK stadium. May I wish their Directors, Manager, players and supporters an enjoyable time with us and a safe journey home.

Well, it's been a productive few weeks, where we've taken our unbeaten run to seven matches. In that time, we've beaten Chippenham Town 1-0 away, Carshalton Athletic 4-0 at home and drawn 0-0 down at Weston-super-Mare.

In that time, we've progressed to the first round proper of the FA Cup for the 11th time in 13 seasons, and drawn a great 'old school' club in Leyton Orient at home for our troubles. These are all indicators and building blocks after our relegation last season and I hope to prove to be signs that contribute to our return to the National League at the first attempt.

Tonight gives me the chance to welcome back to our humble abode two old friends and employees who now ply their trade at Hornchurch, in Manager Daryl McMahon and the mercurial Angelo Balanta. Both did well when they were with us, both are great guys and I hope they enjoy their night, but not to the extent where they disappear into the darkness with the three points!

Over the coming weeks, the FA Cup will loom ever larger on the horizon and is of course a very nice distraction - but it's our next group of league games against the likes of Hornchurch, Eastbourne Borough on Saturday, and Farnborough three days after the Leyton Orient FA Cup tie, that will shape the start of our season and are our season's bread and butter.

So, hopefully we can deal firstly with our league business in the next four days, before turning our attention back to Leyton Orient and the chance of FA Cup glory and another shot at creating a giant killing. We must also then deal with the fallout of an FA Cup run, whether we've won or lost, as there is always a reaction to a cup run, whether good, bad or ugly, and you must be ready to react as a club to any upturn or downturn that might creep into people's mindsets and body language.

We are happy with our twenty-man squad and I feel at present that, though it can of course be slightly improved, it does have a nice balance to it... It's not easy though keeping everyone happy regarding their game time as you can imagine, but if we are to mount a concerted title challenge, then we are going to need a very strong, fully focused and completely motivated squad with a winning mentality.

We knew in May that we needed a squad with experience of winning things and with talent, but that also works tremendously hard. We also needed both youth and experience, who when called upon, can come into the team or come on during a game, make their mark and hit the ground running.

At present, we still have two or three injuries to cope with, but I'm told those are nearing a conclusion and hopefully by the time our cup tie comes around Luke will have a full complement of players to call upon.

Since Luke returned to the fold, we have won five and drawn one of our last six games and in that time we've scored 14 and conceded just one. Hornchurch will know what to expect from us this evening and that three points are vital to our momentum and progress. In truth, Luke's return has had the desired effect we all hoped for and though it's very early days, long may that continue.

CLUB INFO

Next week, I am due to meet key Hertsmere Borough Council councillors and officers to discuss the South End of the ground, Meadow Park's completion and the Brook Road car park groundworks. I've done a lot of work off my own back over the last five years, I've genuinely kept to my side of the bargain and rebuilt much of the club and as a major stakeholder around Meadow Park, and I've done my homework on its future-proofing.

If HBC is now serious about progressing things forward at their end, then as always, I'm ready to work with them and history shows I'm a great collaborator... As such, let's hope this meeting is not yet another false dawn and we don't end up with a meeting about a meeting about a meeting, and we finally stop kicking cans down the road. I genuinely hope to have some positive discussions this time with forward-thinking people and then subsequently have positive news to share with you and our local residents over the coming months.

FA CUP TICKET NEWS

We have set a capacity of 3,800 for the Leyton Orient game and I must remind everyone that this game is all ticket and will be fully segregated. At present we have given Orient 1,250 tickets and if needed that can rise to 1,400. That will please our publicans, food outlets and retailers in the town, who will have their businesses packed no doubt on the day.

That will leave my home supporters with 2,400 tickets, however at present the Orient supporters are out buying our home supporters by roughly three to one. Should I be worried? In truth, I'm not worried at all, as history shows our supporters are notoriously slow when taking up their ticket allocation for these all-ticket games.

That said, we hope that you'll all be here in your numbers, in full voice on the day and I would remind everyone that the FA have given us a Sunday, November 3rd date with a 2pm kick off. Please note, as an added incentive for those fans who are not season ticket holders, but do intend on coming to the FA Cup game - if you do attend the FA Cup game, you will also get half price entry for our top of the table clash against Farnborough FC three days later on Wednesday, November 6th.

As I end my programme notes, can I thank our very loyal group of away supporters who are with us it seems wherever we go. Again, I am in awe of the commitment shown by those of you who travelled down to Weston-super-Mare last Saturday with the M4 shut... And I must say you are just a pleasure to be associated with.

Your loyalty, humour and friendship are very much recognised and appreciated by myself, the staff and the dressing room - so, can I thank you all once again on behalf of the whole club for your loyalty and no doubt I'll see most of you down at Eastbourne.

As a gesture from myself to those supporters who are travelling on the supporter's coach to Eastbourne Borough on Saturday, you will receive a free FA Cup ticket paid by me as a thank you for your considerable efforts. Eastbourne Borough away is a vital game towards our ambitions of lifting a league title and your presence and voice will give us a better chance of getting a result on the day - so, please book your seat early and no doubt I'll see you there.

Lastly whoever you support, let's hope for an open, attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care,

Danny

LUKE GARREARD

Good Evening. Firstly I would like to welcome Daryl McMahon and his Staff and Players to The Mangata Pay UK Stadium, for tonight's National League South fixture.

This is my first midweek since returning, and I have always been fond of games under the lights at Meadow Park.

With the result on Saturday it's important we make the hard earned point even better with a positive performance and result this evening.

Having rewatched the game it was better than I first thought, some of my criticism was reflective of the 100% record we had prior to the match as opposed to dissecting what was in front of me.

Obviously, we are disappointed we didn't return home with all three points, but remained unbeaten and claiming our fifth clean sheet in six fixtures.

My observations are still one of ensuring we have more than one way to win a game of football, we have a side that possesses real quality and can have moments in games, but I want us as a group to assess, acknowledge and adapt to oppositions and surroundings and to work out what is hurting them and delivering on that.

That for me is a sign of a great side, who is fluid and can modify their game to find a way.

We now have a period of games in the League prior to our FA Cup tie and it's important we capitalise on the next two matches, as we will be finding ourselves playing catch up with fixtures and we need to close the gap on top spot as soon as possible.

With games coming thick and fast, it will definitely benefit us especially with the strength and depth we currently possess.

We have a few injuries that are slowly returning which will improve us, but to still boast the squad we had on Saturday proves the level of competition we currently have in the building.

You could make a case for any one of the subs to start and that is very pleasing for me as a Manager and gives me a welcome headache.

Players know they have to perform and keep a level of consistency to remain in the team and that breeds standards which I feel the players have adhered to in recent weeks.

We are confident and have a belief as a team and continuing our form will be important to climb the table.

Let's get Meadow Park rocking and get right behind the boys.

Look forward to seeing you all, enjoy the game

Luke

IN THE DUGOUT

Manager: Daryl McMAHON

Daryl McMahon, the Urchins' gaffer as of January, came through West Ham United's youth academy and enjoyed a playing career in the Football League with Torquay United, Port Vale, Leyton Orient, and Notts County. The Hornchurch boss also played for Cambridge United, Farnborough, Boreham Wood, Eastleigh, Dover Athletic, and Ebbsfleet United before transitioning into management. McMahon had taken charge of the likes of Ebbsfleet United, Macclesfield Town, and Dagenham & Redbridge before his role in the dugout at the Hornchurch Stadium.

ONES TO WATCH

Liam NASH

Born: Southend-on-Sea - 19 January 1996

Position: Forward

Liam Nash, a forward with previous experience at the likes of Billericay, Aveley, Dartford, and Gillingham, joined Hornchurch in 2020 after a stint in Gibraltar. Despite transfer delays, the 28-year-old continued his impressive scoring form, netting 82 goals and providing 35 assists in 141 appearances by the end of last season. Most notably, Nash scored a sensational goal at Wembley in May of 2021, helping the Urchins to FA Trophy glory.

Darren McQUEEN

Born: London - 8 May 1995

Position: Forward

Forward, Darren McQueen has already played under manager, Daryl McMahon at both Ebbsfleet United and Dagenham & Redbridge. Starting at Spurs' youth academy, McQueen moved to Ipswich Town, later joining Maldon & Tiptree in 2015. McQueen had two spells at Ebbsfleet, with stints at Sutton United and Dartford in between. He played for the Daggers from 2020 to 2022, spending a season on loan at Dulwich Hamlet before joining the Urchins in July.

Ryan SCOTT

Born: Aldershot - 15 June 1994

Position: Defender

Skipper, Ryan Scott spent two seasons with Aveley prior to joining Hornchurch, making 82 appearances and scoring 14 goals, including the winner in the play-off final against the Urchins. Last season, the centre-half earned the title of Supporters' Player of the Season after scoring 10 goals and providing eight assists, leading the team with his consistent performances. Scott holds the distinction of winning three consecutive promotions, twice with Aveley and once with his current side.

CLASSIC CAMPAIGNS

HORNCHURCH

Football historian LEIGH EDWARDS selects ten post-war Hornchurch 'Classic Campaigns'

2001/02

Hornchurch won promotion as Isthmian League Third Division runners-up in 2001/02. Mick Marsden's side were unbeaten in their opening five games, then overcame a lean spell to hammer Wokingham 5-1 and Chalfont St Peter 6-3 in consecutive home matches in mid-October. Chris Woolf and Barry Fox both grabbed hat-tricks in the latter match. The Urchins won 5-0 at Clapton, then 6-0 in the return match and also slammed six goals past Dorking. They lost only two of their final 18 matches. Chris Woolf and Craig Cripps netted 46 goals in total as Hornchurch won 25 of their 42 games, finishing runners-up to Croydon Athletic with 86 points.

2002/03

Hornchurch won promotion as Isthmian League First Division North runners-up in 2002/03. The Urchins lost just one of their opening ten games, then gained an exciting 4-4 win at home to Arlesey Town. They triumphed 4-0 at Wembley and ended with a 12 match unbeaten run, trouncing Wembley 6-0 in the return match and hitting five goals past Barking & East Ham United, Wivenhoe Town and Berkhamsted Town during the closing weeks. Mick Marsden's side won 25 of their 46 games, finishing runners-up with 90 points, just one behind Isthmian League Cup winners Northwood, promoted to the Isthmian League Premier Division for the first time.

Hornchurch reached the FA Cup second round proper for the first time in 2003/04. Mick Marsden's side beat Billericay Town 2-1, Carshalton Athletic 5-0 and Paulton Rovers 1-0 to reach the FA Cup first round proper. Goals by West and Johns gave the following team a 2-0 win over Darlington watched by 2,186 at Bridge Avenue: Gay, Gooding, West, Adediji, Kerrigan, Keeling, Locke, Sterling (Rowland), Graham, Opara, Johns (Allen). They lost 1-0 to Tranmere Rovers in the second round. A fifth-place finish in the Premier Division, despite a 10-point deduction for going into administration, earned the club a place in the new Conference South.

2005/06

AFC Hornchurch achieved the Essex Senior League and Cup 'double' in 2005/06. The club had been quickly reformed that summer under the name AFC Hornchurch. The Urchins won 25 of their 30 Essex Senior League games, losing just twice, 2-1 at home to Stansted and 1-0 at Waltham Abbey. They secured four-goal wins over Barkingside, Basildon United, Bowers & Pitsea, Burnham Ramblers and Hullbridge Sports. Gaining 78 points, they finished 18 ahead of runners-up Waltham Abbey. Colin McBride's side also won the Essex Senior League Cup, beating Brentwood Town 2-0 in the final, as well as winning the Gordon Brasted Memorial Trophy.

AFC Hornchurch stormed to the Isthmian League First Division North title in 2006/07. The Urchins won all except one of their opening eight games, including a 5-0 victory at home to Great Wakering. They triumphed 7-0 at Witham Town and 6-1 at Ilford, then Simon Parker grabbed a hat-trick in their 5-0 win at home to Aveley. Kris Lee emulated his feat in their 7-1 victory over Witham Town during a 31 match unbeaten run. Kris Lee and Simon Parker netted 46 goals between them as Colin McBride's side won 32 of their 42 games and gained 103 points, winning the title by a 21 point margin. They also beat Great Wakering 2-1 in the Essex Senior Cup final.

2011/12

AFC Hornchurch won promotion to the Conference South in 2011/12. Jim McFarlane's side began with a 5-2 victory at Cray Wanderers but lost their next three Isthmian League Premier Division games. Martin Tuohy grabbed a hat-trick as they won 6-0 at home to Tooting & Mitcham, soaring with just two defeats in 17 matches. The two games against title rivals Billericay Town both attracted crowds over 1,000. Martin Tuohy was top scorer with 27 goals as AFC Hornchurch won 26 of their 42 games, finishing runners-up with 82 points. The Urchins beat Bury Town 3-1 in the play-off semi-finals, then defeated Lowestoft Town 2-1 in the play-off final.

2017/18

AFC Hornchurch swept to the Isthmian League North Division title in 2017/18. The Urchins dropped just two points in their opening ten games, gaining consecutive 4-1 wins over Bury Town and Romford. Leon McKenzie grabbed a hat-trick as they won 6-0 at Mildenhall, then Theo Fairweather-Johnson emulated his feat in their 6-0 win at Romford. They gained a thrilling 5-4 win at home to Waltham Abbey, then won 6-1 at both Brentwood and Witham during the closing weeks when Colin McBride was acting manager due to Jim McFarlane's illness. They won 32 of their 46 games and gained 103 points, finishing 13 ahead of runners-up Potters Bar Town.

Hornchurch won the FA Trophy for the first time in 2020/21. Mark Stimson's side beat Bowers & Pitsea 3-1, Wingate & Finchley 4-1, Tonbridge Angels 1-0, Dulwich Hamlet 2-1, King's Lynn 3-0 on penalties after a 1-1 draw, Maidstone United 5-4, Darlington 2-1 at Notts County 5-4 on penalties after a 3-3 draw to reach the FA Trophy final. Goals by Charlie Ruff, Liam Nash and Ellis Brown secured a 3-1 win over Hereford at Wembley Stadium: Wright, Parcell, Sutton, Clark, Hayles, Muldoon, Christou, Spence (Ruff), Higgins (Dickson), Nash (Stimson), Brown. They were also Isthmian League Premier Division play-off finalists, losing 3-2 to Cheshunt.

2022/23

Hornchurch were Isthmian League Premier Division play-off finalists again in 2022/23. The Urchins lost two of their opening four games before soaring with five straight wins, hammering Corinthian Casuals 5-0 and Herne Bay 6-0 in consecutive matches. They secured five goal wins home and away against Potters Bar Town, then triumphed 5-1 in the return match at home to Herne Bay. Losing just two of their final 18 games, they were the highest scorers with 98 goals and finished runners-up to Bishop's Cleeve with 84 points. They defeated Cray Wanderers 4-2 on penalties after a 3-3 draw in the play-off semi-finals but lost 1-0 to Aveley in the final.

2023/24

Hornchurch stormed to the Isthmian League Premier Division title in 2023/24. They dropped just three points in a 17 match unbeaten start under new manager Steve Morison, gaining a 6-0 victory at Cheshunt. After losing 2-0 at title rivals Chatham Town, they went 14 matches unbeaten, including eight straight wins. Morison left for Sutton United in January and Daryl McMahon replaced him in charge. The Urchins secured promotion to the Conference South with five games remaining. They won 31 of their 42 games, losing just four, boasting the best scoring and defensive records. Gaining 100 points, Hornchurch finished 21 ahead of runners-up Chatham.

Purcell (90+1')

24 October 2015 // 15:00 // FA CUP 4RQ

Our previous meeting with the Urchins came in 2015/16 FA Cup fourth round qualifying, a game which saw the Wood come away with a 2-1 victory to advance to the first round proper, marking Luke Garrard's first win as manager.

The Wood dominated the first half, a half that saw the Wood create numerous chances, including an offside goal from Charlie MacDonald, and a penalty appeal from Luke Garrard's men waved away.

The breakthrough came when Tiryaki executed a brilliant overhead kick from a MacDonald cross to put the Wood ahead. The visitors fought back in the second half, forcing several saves from Wood keeper Edwards.

However, substitute Ricky Shakes set up Jeffrey for a crucial second goal. Despite Hornchurch's persistence, including a late consolation from a Purcell free-kick, they would be unable to find an equaliser, the Wood advanced.

12 October 2024 // 15:00 // FA CUP 4QR

FA Cup fourth round qualifying saw the Wood secured their fifth consecutive victory since Luke Garrard's return to the dugout.

Kwesi Appiah opened the scoring just three minutes in after a slick build-up involving Femi Ilesanmi, Abdul Abdulmalik, and Erico Sousa and the Wood controlled from that point with Charlie O'Connell twice heading narrowly wide from Tom Whelan set-pieces. Just before halftime, Junior Dixon intercepted a defensive error, setting up Abdul Abdulmalik for a close-range finish.

In the second half, Fabio Saraiva's long-range effort for the Robins missed narrowly. The Wood would then add a third goal in the 57th minute, with O'Connell heading home a Tom Whelan corner. Kwesi Appiah completed the rout in the 70th minute, pouncing on a perfect cross from substitute Jayden Richardson to completed a brace. The Wood comfortably the match out, with Appiah now tallying six goals in six games.

The Wood earned a hard-fought point in a goalless draw against Weston-super-Mare in Somerset, another occasion in which Luke Garrard named an unchanged lineup from our previous outing.

The Seagulls threatened within the first ten minutes, as Reuben Reid came close following a mix-up between Nathan Ashmore and Charlie O'Connell. Junior Dixon and Cameron Coxe had efforts blocked, while the hosts' Sam Pearson and Jacob Cane also missed chances to break the deadlock.

The second half saw Garrard make changes, but the Seagulls remained on top until a stunning save from Max Harris denied a Tom Whelan free-kick. The Wood finished the stronger side, hitting the crossbar and creating late opportunities, but were unable to find the back of the net. Although not at their best, Luke Garrard's side extended their unbeaten run to six matches and remain defensively solid ahead of this evening's clash with AFC Hornchurch.

DON'T FORGET LAST YEAR'

Maidstone United defender Raphe Brown made his first start of the season in a 3-0 FA Cup win over Ebbsfleet, stepping in while Reiss Greenidge was on international duty.

Now in his fifth season at the Gallagher Stadium, Brown's performance helped the Stones reach the first round proper. Last season, Brown had a dramatic FA Cup journey, including a red card that was overturned and a suspension that kept him out of the fourth-round win at Ipswich.

Reflecting on last season, Brown said, "You can't forget what we did in the FA Cup last year, it will stick with us forever."

LOCAL CUP CLASH CONFIRMED'

Last week, fellow Vanarama National League South side and latest opponents, Weston-super-Mare were given a draw away to neighbouring Bristol Rovers in the first round proper of the Emirates FA Cup.

The match will be held at the Memorial Stadium, scheduled between on Saturday 2nd November, with kick off scheduled for 15:00. This tasty cup clash will mark the first competitive meeting between the two clubs on the banks of the Severn Estuary, with Scott Bartlett's Seagulls side having the opportunity to challenge their higher-league local rivals.

It's still not too late to join the BW PASE Academy, who are delighted to announce our final Academy Trial for the 2024/25 season.

Our offer includes great education provision, great coaching with three to four sessions a day from Monday to Friday, with games scheduled on Wednesdays.

Our full-time staff feature numerous 'A' and 'B' license coaches, a full time Goal Keeping Coach, Strength and Conditioning Coaches, full time Medical Staff, Analysts, plus advice from the first team manager, players and staff.

On top of your education and coaching sessions, you will also receive a FREE BWFC Season ticket, access to our onsite gym, a complete set of training kit for just £50 and FREE access to all Arsenal Development and UEFA Youth Champions League home games, plus paid work experience on matchdays and transport to and from your Wednesday games.

So if you unhappy with your current football sports provision or the education provider? Then why not come and see what we can offer you...The BW PASE Academy does exactly what it says it does, it combines football with education, with all training and lessons delivered on site, in first class facilities.

WHY TRIAL WITH BW PASE ACADEMY?

Because our track record holds true to our mission and values; we create an environment for 16-18-year-olds to progress within both sports and education surrounded by first class facilities and resources.

We want to stop talented young individuals from falling through the net and give them a chance to progress their talent with top quality coaching aligned to education. In truth we have a proven track record of producing players who have gone on to play at the very top level in both England and Europe.

Have you got what it takes to become the next Iliman N'Diaye or Sorba Thomas?

If this all sounds financially like it's too good to be true, if this sounds like the type of programme you would be interested in joining but think you cannot afford, then think again and don't hesitate, come to our final trial with the BW PASE Academy, you honestly have nothing to lose!

Just for the time it takes you to trial, you will receive a FREE match ticket to one of Boreham Wood Football Clubs upcoming league games and FREE entry an Arsenal Development game here at the Mangata Pay UK Stadium Meadow Park as our guest.

In association with the National League Trust, the Boreham Wood Community Trust runs holiday camps for both boys and girls between the ages of 4-to-14 years-old each school holiday.

Dates: Monday 28 October to Friday 1 November
Times: 09:00 to 12:30 (4-years-old), 09:00 to 15:00 (5-14 years-old)

Who for: Boys & girls, aged 4-14 years-old
Venue: Boreham Wood FC's 4G astro pitch

Prices:
£15.00 per day, £60.00 full week (4-years-old)
£20.00 per day, £80.00 full week (5-14 years-old)

The holiday camp will be run on the club's 4G astro pitch, giving the children the opportunity to train on the same pitch as their favourite Boreham Wood players.

Each holiday camp is full of fun games, matches, competitions and exciting prizes. Our camps provide the children with the perfect opportunity to progress their footballing skills with the support and guidance of our excellent community coaches.

The camps are perfect for all abilities; our professional coaches will teach the participants brand new skills and help them to perfect the more basic techniques of passing, ball control and shooting.

Contact

If you're interested in attending our upcoming holiday camp, or if you would like more information, email Community Trust Lead Coach Chaz Brown on cbrown@borehamwoodfootballclub.co.uk or call the Community Office on 020 8953 5097.
